A NEW ERA

A new era in the proud tradition of Maryland Athletics began in November 2007 with the first extensive expansion of Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium in over a decade.

Phase One includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse, allowing for the addition of 64 luxury suites of varying sizes. Additionally, mezzanine seating for approximately 500 will be added (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a Presidential Suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game-day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; enhanced seating for disabled customers; and a state-of-the-art video scoreboard on the West concourse.

Phase Two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort; chair-back seating in the 200 level on the North side; and additional restrooms and concessions on the South side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those 3,000 seats from obstructed-view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future Expansion includes the renovation of Gossett Football Team House to include larger locker rooms and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury suite at the stadium.

MARYLAND

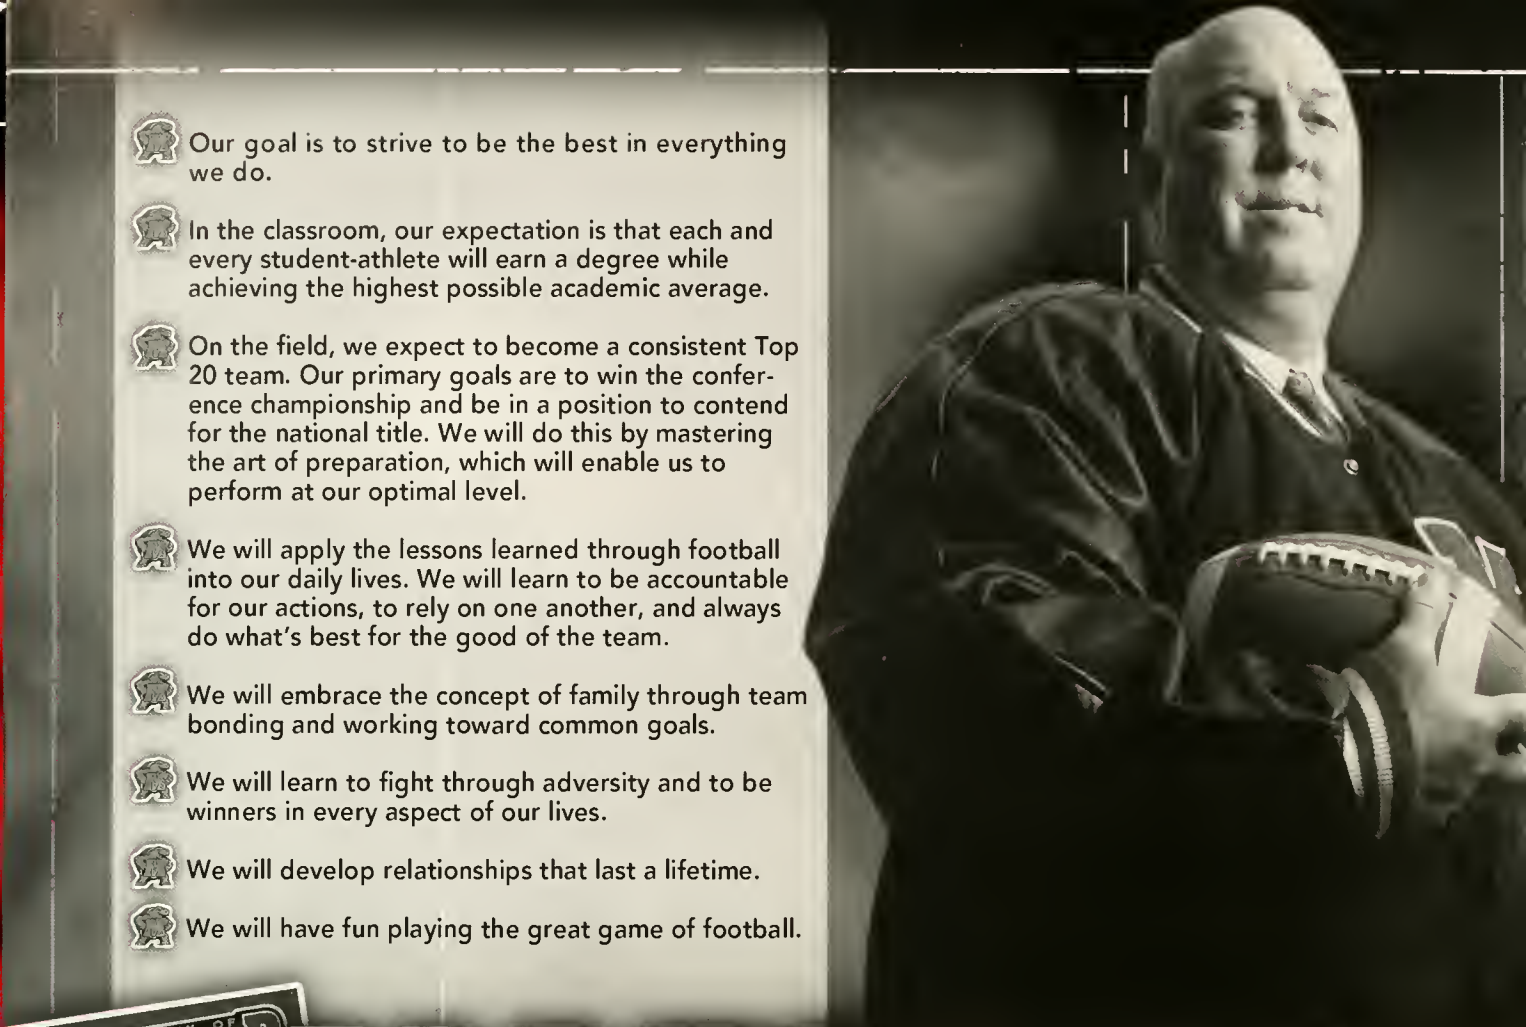
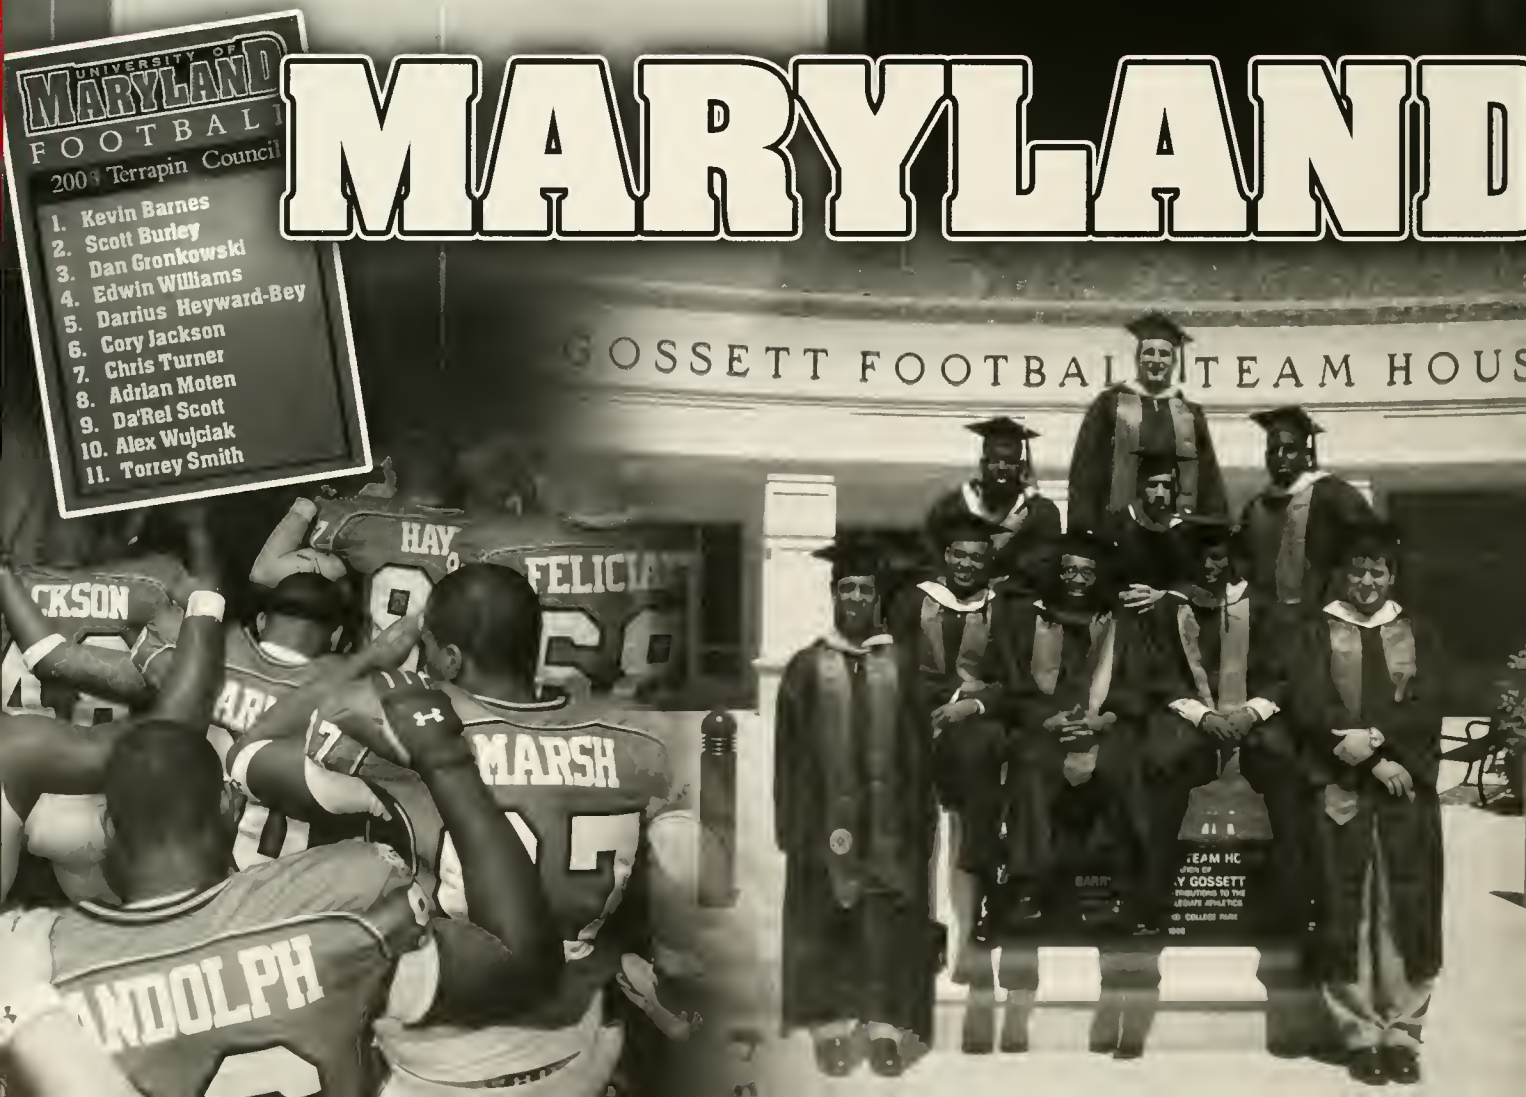
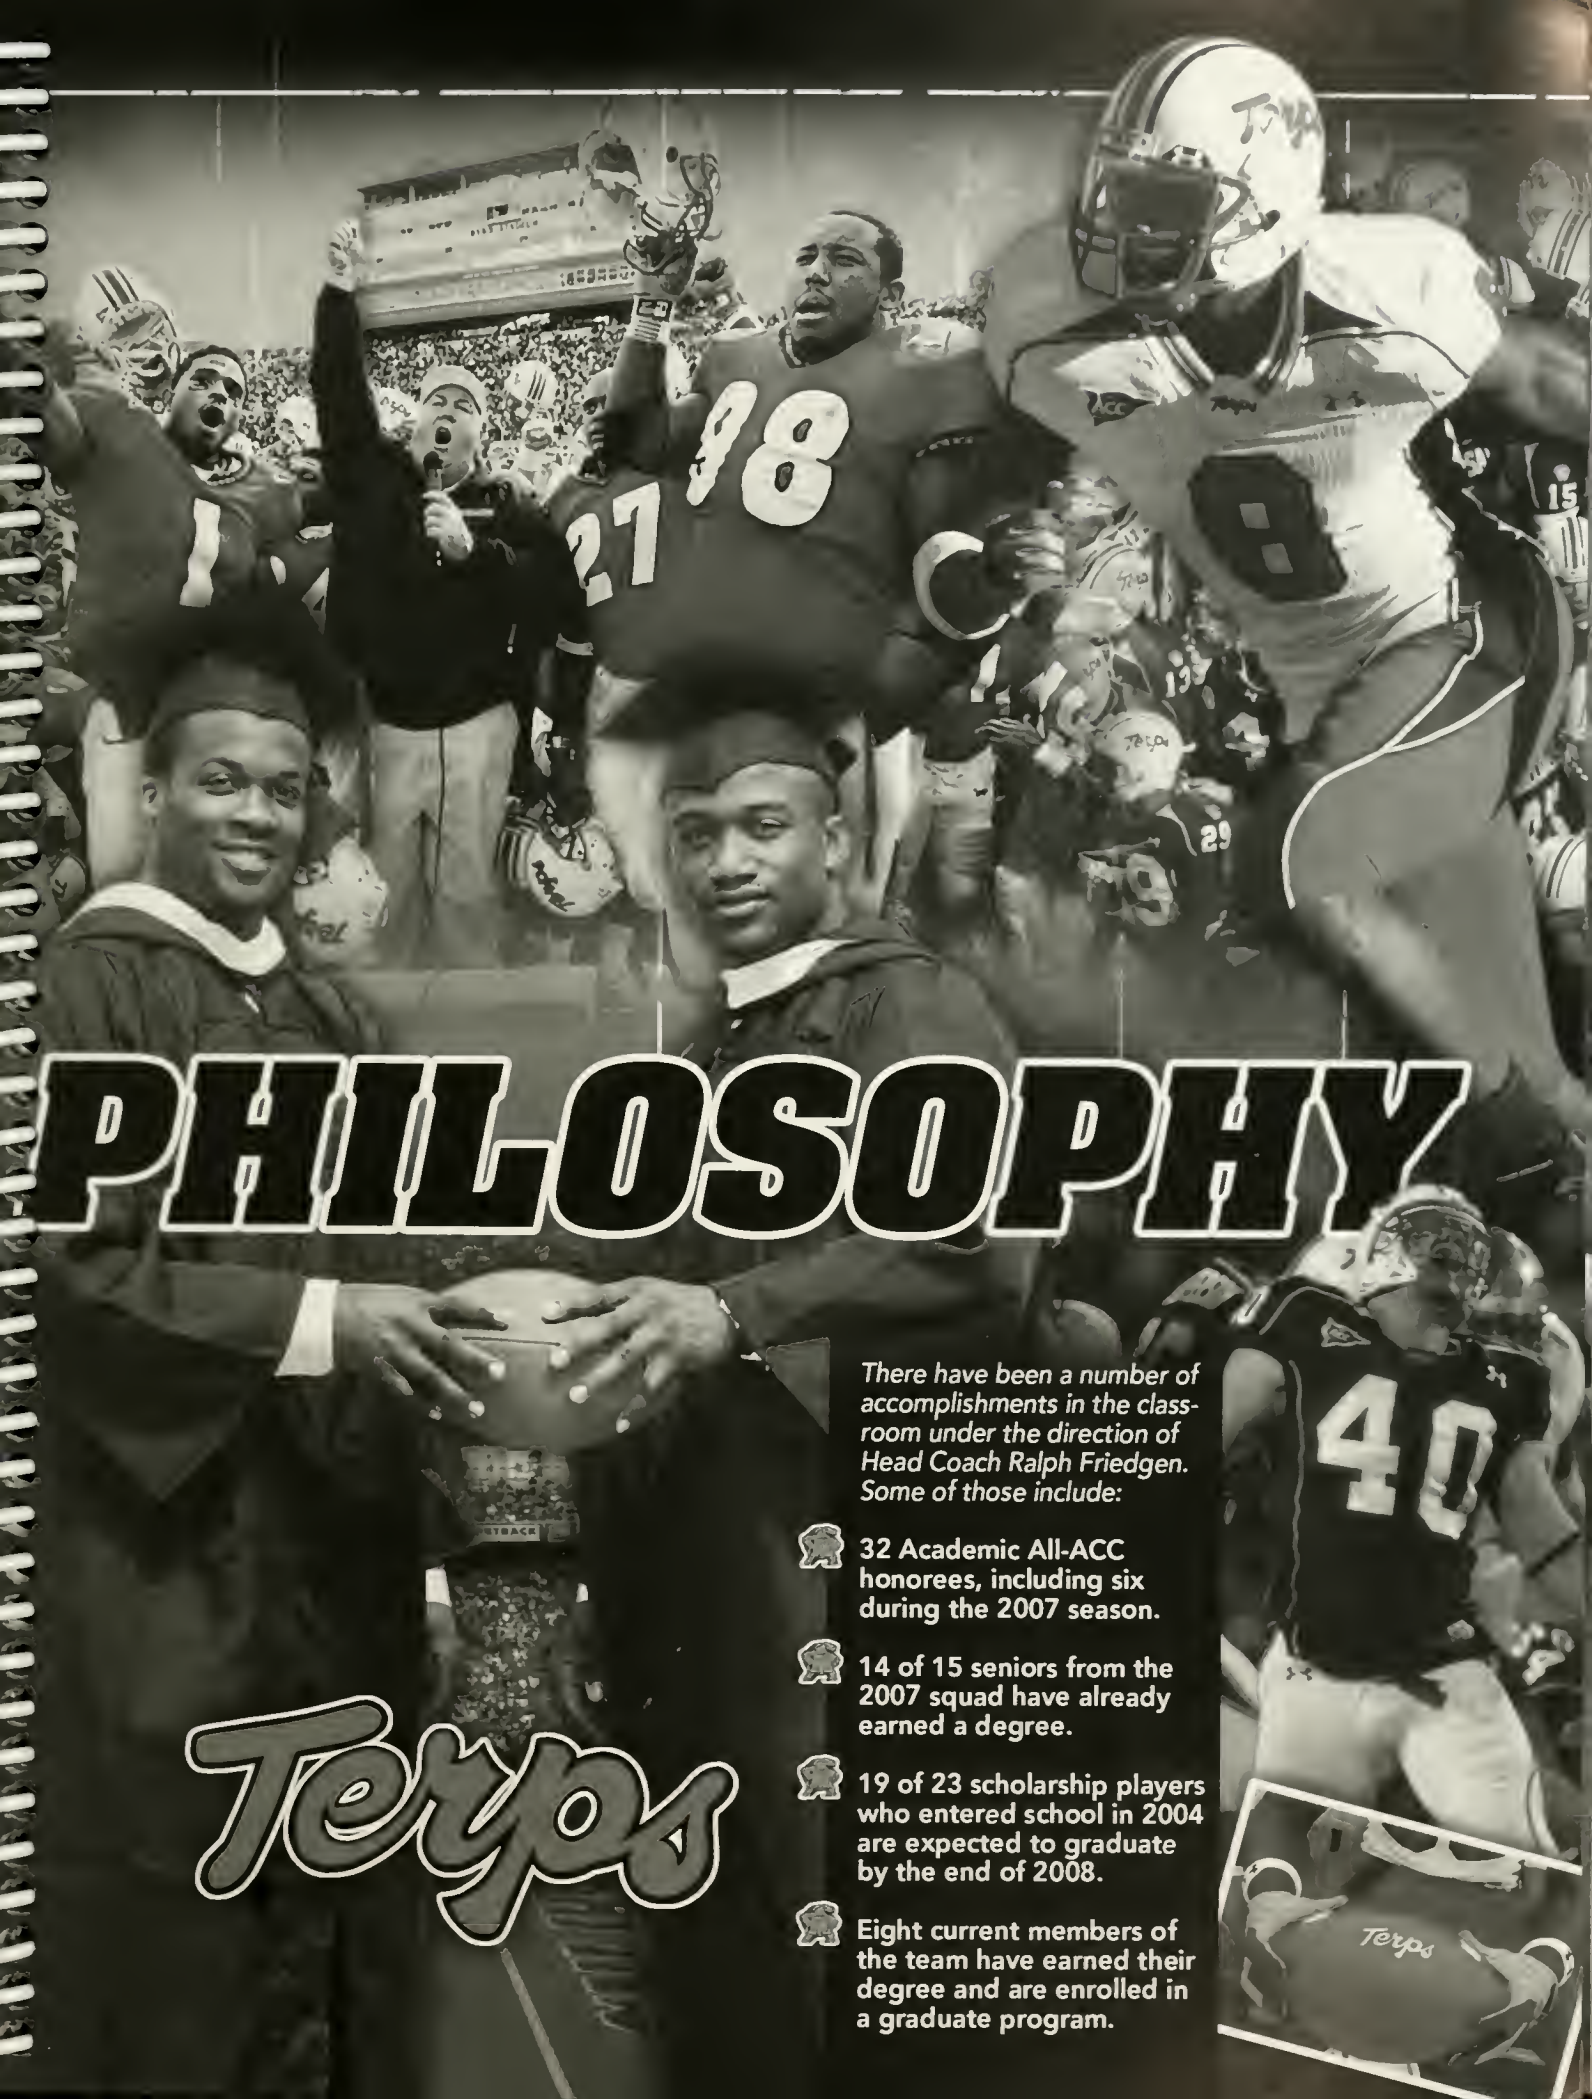
- Our goal is to strive to be the best in everything we do.
- In the classroom, our expectation is that each and every student-athlete will earn a degree while achieving the highest possible academic average.
- On the field, we expect to become a consistent Top 20 team. Our primary goals are to win the conference championship and be in a position to contend for the national title. We will do this by mastering the art of preparation, which will enable us to perform at our optimal level.
- We will apply the lessons learned through football into our daily lives. We will learn to be accountable for our actions, to rely on one another, and always do what's best for the good of the team.
- We will embrace the concept of family through team bonding and working toward common goals.
- We will learn to fight through adversity and to be winners in every aspect of our lives.
- We will develop relationships that last a lifetime.
- We will have fun playing the great game of football.



MARYLAND





PHILOSOPHY

There have been a number of accomplishments in the classroom under the direction of Head Coach Ralph Friedgen. Some of those include:

- 32 Academic All-ACC honorees, including six during the 2007 season.
- 14 of 15 seniors from the 2007 squad have already earned a degree.
- 19 of 23 scholarship players who entered school in 2004 are expected to graduate by the end of 2008.
- Eight current members of the team have earned their degree and are enrolled in a graduate program.

GAME DAY AT

The gameday atmosphere at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium is among the best in the country. Fans arrive early, they rock the house and stay late. Some of the top crowds in school history have occurred during Ralph Friedgen's tenure:

- School record home attendance in 2005
- 20 of the top 25 crowds in Byrd Stadium history have occur since 2001
- Three of the top eight crowds in stadium history occurred in 2007

Maryland Alma Mater

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, Maryland!
Steadfast in loyalty,
For thee we stand.

Love for the black and gold,
Deep in our hearts we hold,
Singing thy praise forever
Throughout the land.

Maryland Victory Song

Maryland, we're all behind you.
Wave high the black and gold,
For there is nothing half so glorious
As to see our men victorious.
We've got the team, boys,
We've got the steam, boys,
So keep on fighting, don't give in!
M-A-R-Y-L-A-N-D
Maryland will win.

Attendance at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium has continued to be strong over the last seven years. In 2005, Maryland set a school record for per-game attendance when an average of 52,426 fans passed through the turnstiles at the five home games. The Terrapins have drawn more than 49,000 fans in each of the last five seasons, the first time in school history that milestone has been achieved. In Ralph Friedgen's seven seasons an average of 49,092 have seen each game. In fact, the five highest average attendance figures have occurred in Ralph Friedgen's seven seasons. The home attendance in the last seven years is more than the previous 12 years combined.

A new era in the proud tradition of Maryland Athletics began at the conclusion of the 2007 regular season with the first extensive expansion to Chevy Chase Bank Field in over a decade.

PHASE ONE, which began in November 2007, includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse, allowing for the addition of 64 suites of varying sizes. Additionally, mezzanine seating for approximately 500 will be added (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University Suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new team store; and enhanced seating for disabled customers. Additionally, a state-of-the-art LED videoboard was installed last summer in the West end zone and will be operational for the 2008 season. Phase One is scheduled to be completed prior to the start of the 2009 season.

PHASE TWO includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort; chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side; and new restrooms and concessions on the South side. Additionally, playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those 3,000 seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. GOSSETT

The Gossett Football Team House encompasses everything a student-athlete needs at one of the top universities in the country.

In recent years, the Gossett Team House has been transformed into one of the top football facilities in the nation.

An expansion project over the course of the last few years has improved the University of Maryland's football facility to better meet the needs of Terrapin student-athletes and recruits through the expansion of four components:

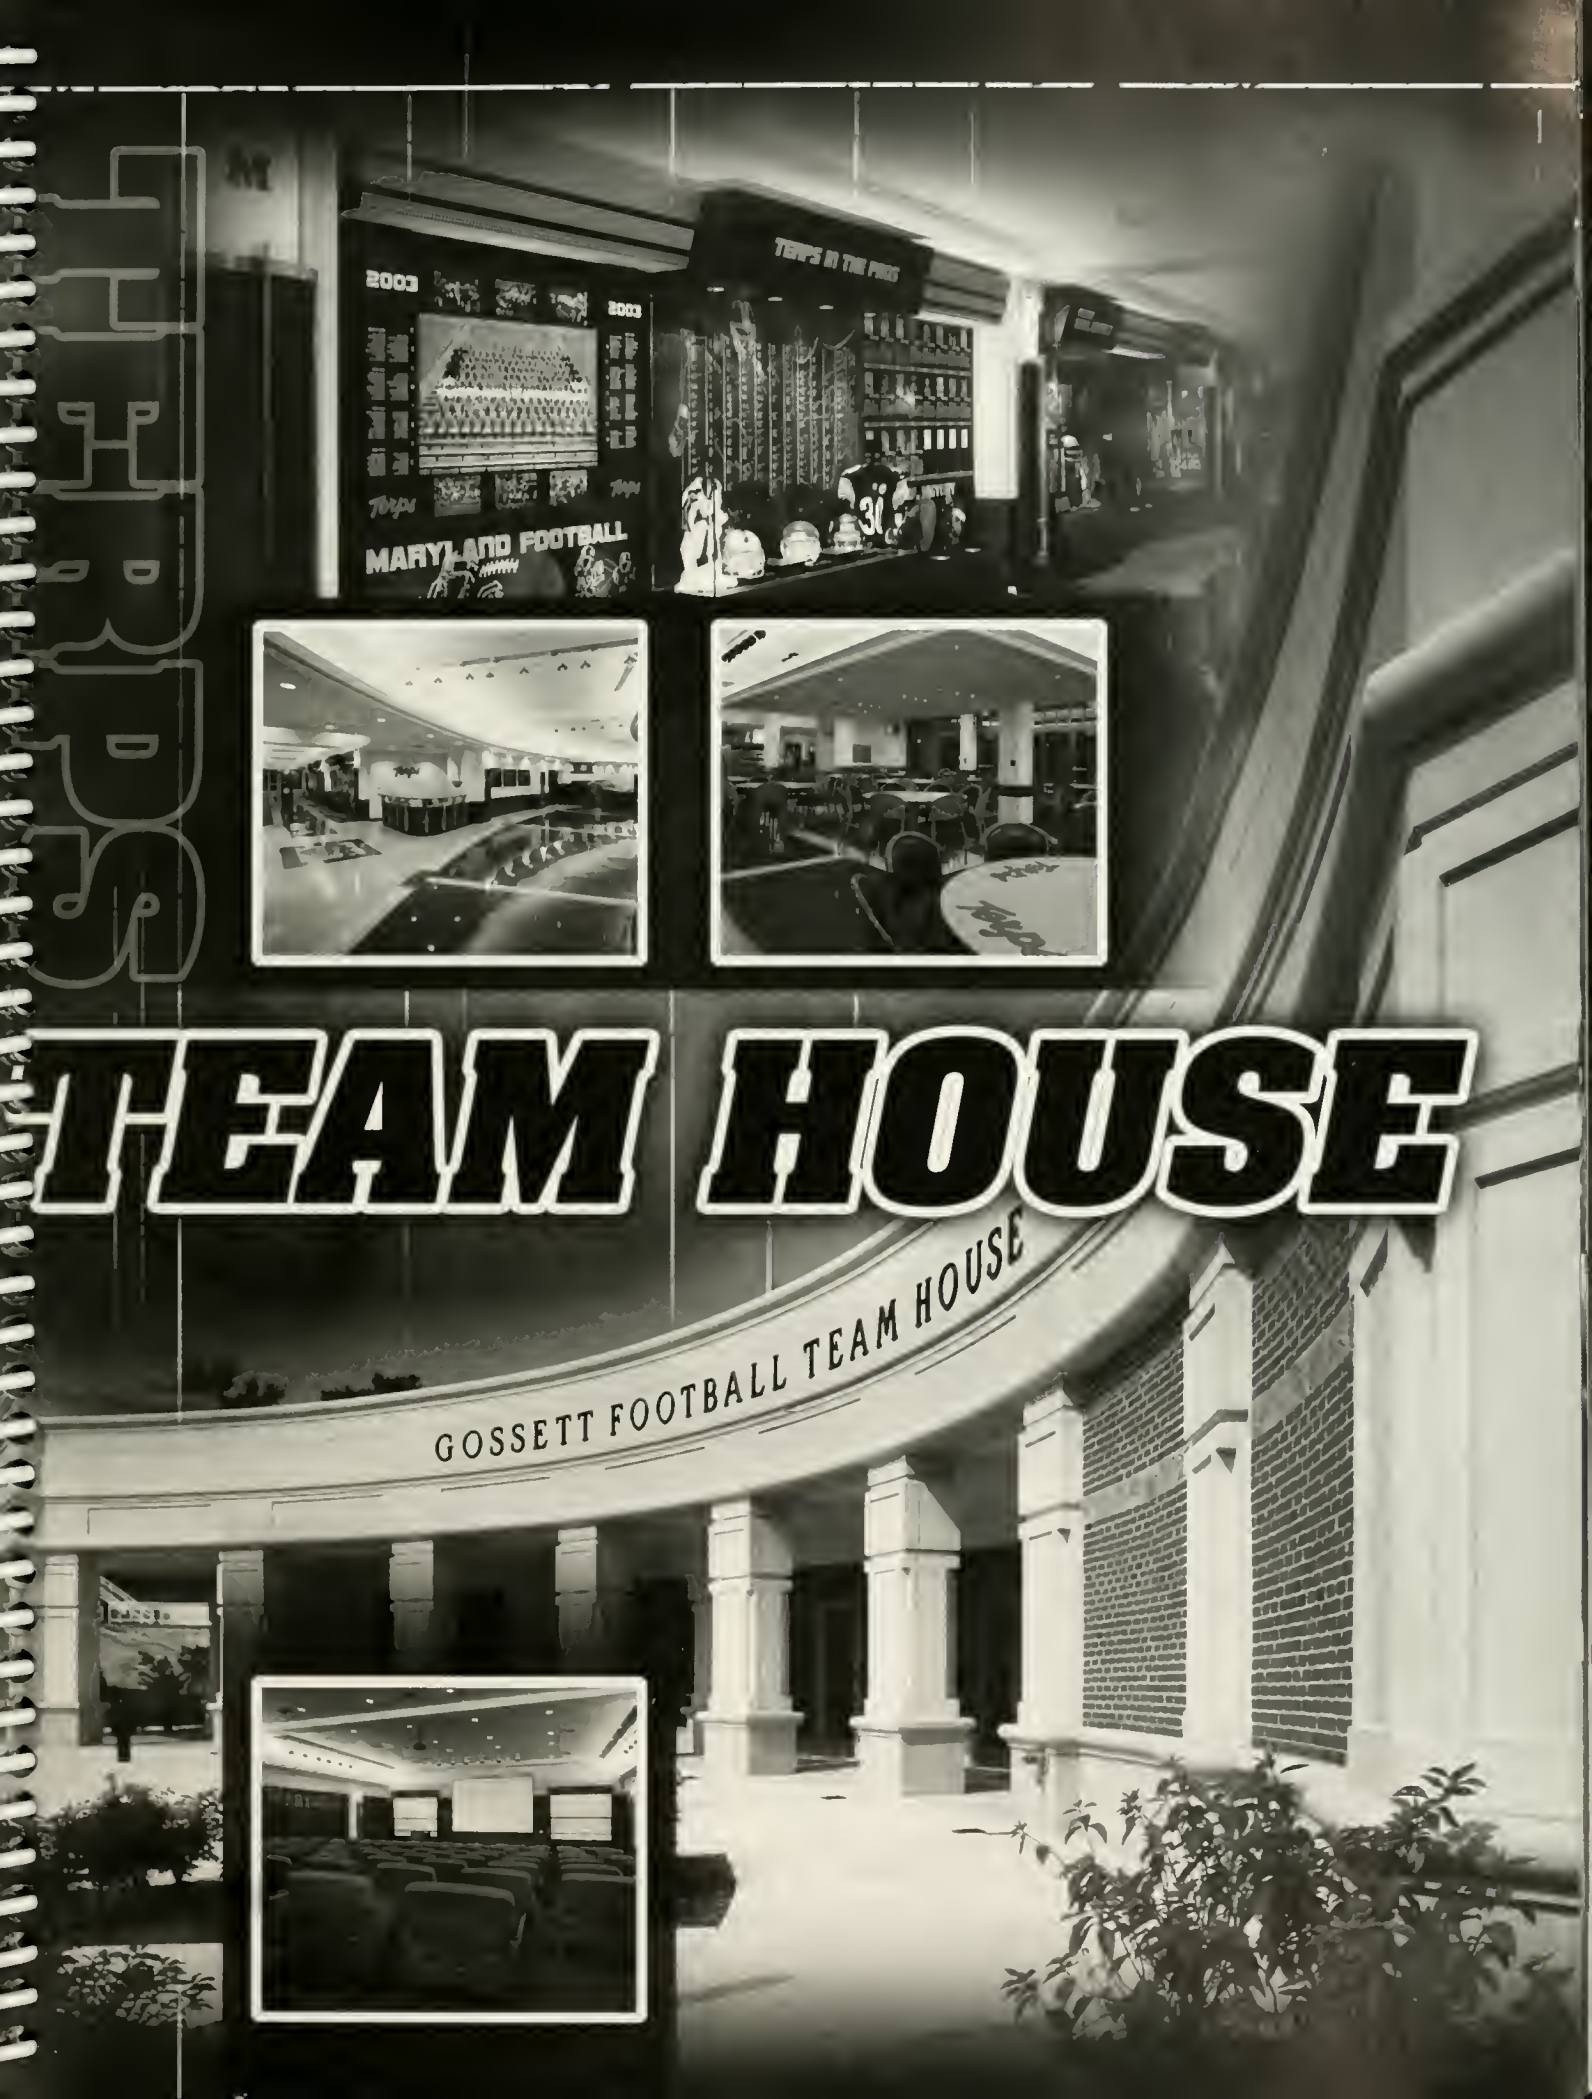
- Expanded academic support and career development unit
- New recruit meeting room/dining facility with kitchen
- New team meeting auditorium
- Expanded entrance and lobby

Phase One of the 15,500 square-foot renovation included the creation of an expanded academic support lab. This increased the existing space dedicated to support and strengthen the academic and career-achievement initiatives of football student-athletes by more than 4,000 square feet. In addition, a new video board in the East end zone was finished in time for the 2002 season, giving fans a more vibrant and exciting experience in Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium with game action and replays shown on a board measuring feet by 28 feet (an additional video board was added in the West end zone prior to the 2008 season).

Phases Two and Three, completed in the summer of 2004, include a 3,500 square-foot meeting room and dining facility which provides a multi-purpose showcase for recruits and their families.

It also includes a new team meeting auditorium which gives the entire football team the opportunity to meet together in one room, allowing the coaching staff to teach using state-of-the-art technology in an environment that has sufficient seating space for all the players. This addition improves the staff's capability to effectively present offensive and defensive game plans.

The construction also included an enhanced entrance and lobby for the Gossett Team House that will showcase the program's tradition, importance and success. A striking first impression for recruits and visitors, the entrance and lobby highlights the rich past of Maryland football and showcases the Terps' return to national prominence.

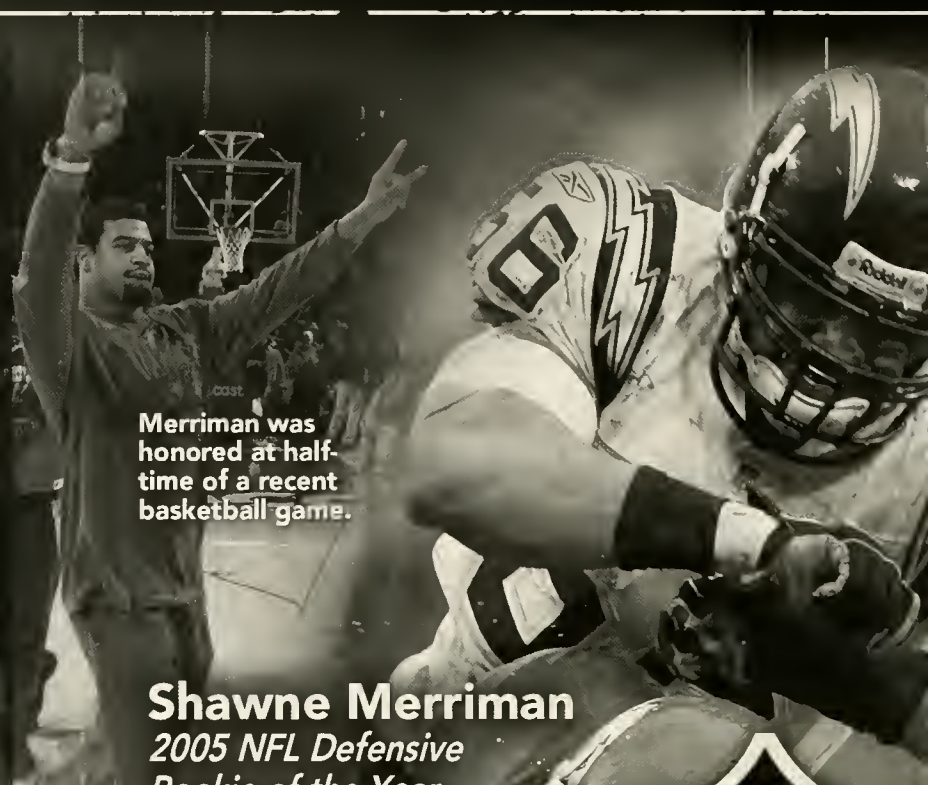


TEAM HOUSE

Beginning with Maryland's first-ever NFL draft pick in 1937 and continuing in 2000 with Frank Wycheck's lateral in the "Music City Miracle," the Terrapins have fashioned an impressive tradition in the National Football League. Names like Scarbath, Jones, Nolan, White, Avellini, Esiason, Shiner, O'Donnell, Collins, Nehemiah, Lewis, Glover, Atkinson and Mike-Mayer have dotted NFL rosters over the years. In all, nearly 150 Terrapins have gone on to play professionally following their Maryland careers.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Maryland has had 195 National Football League Draft choices since 1937.
- Including Vernon Davis, the 6th pick overall in the 2006 Draft, there have been 14 Terrapins taken in the first round of the NFL Draft, including a pair of No. 2 overall selections in Jack Scarbath (1953) and Randy White (1975).
- Butkus and Bednarik award-winning linebacker E.J. Henderson was selected early in the second round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Henderson was the 40th selection overall.
- Four former Terrapin quarterbacks have appeared in the Super Bowl: Boomer Esiason (1988), Frank Reich (1990-93), Neil O'Donnell (1995, 2000) and Scott Zolak (1996).
- 36 former Terrapins were on NFL rosters prior to the start of the 2008 training camps.
- Three former Maryland head coaches (Bobby Ross, Lou Saban and Clark Shaughnessy) and four former Maryland players (Dick Modzelewski, Dick Nolan, Ron Waller, Mike Tice) have gone on to serve as head coaches in the NFL.
- Former Dallas Cowboy Randy White made eight Pro Bowl appearances during his career, among the most in NFL history. White was co-MVP of Super Bowl XII and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.



Merriman was honored at half-time of a recent basketball game.

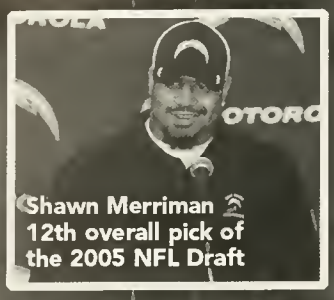
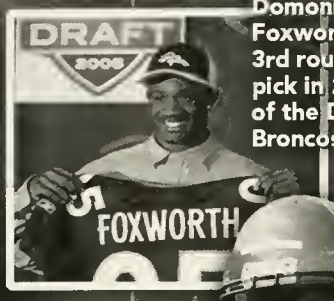
TERPS AND THE NFL DRAFT



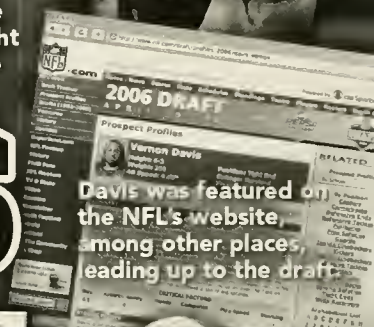
Shawn Merriman 12th overall pick of the 2005 NFL Draft



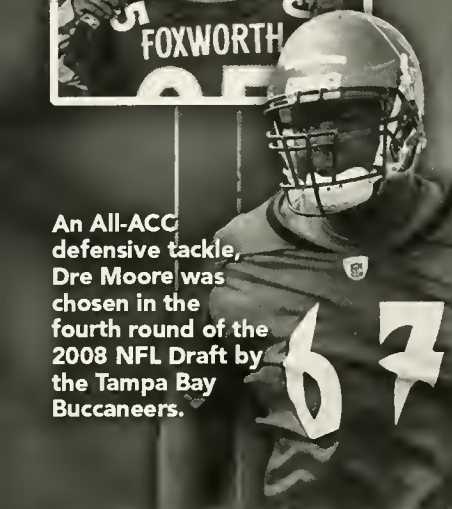
Domonique Foxworth 3rd round pick in 2005 of the Denver Broncos

Vernon Davis, seen here with 49er coach Mike Nolan, was the No. 6 overall pick of the 2006 NFL Draft. He is the highest Terp selected since 1975 and the highest a tight end has been picked in the NFL since 1972.

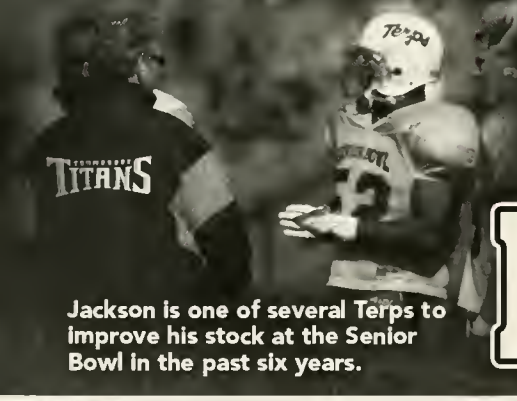
Davis blew scouts away at the NFL Combine with his speed and strength.



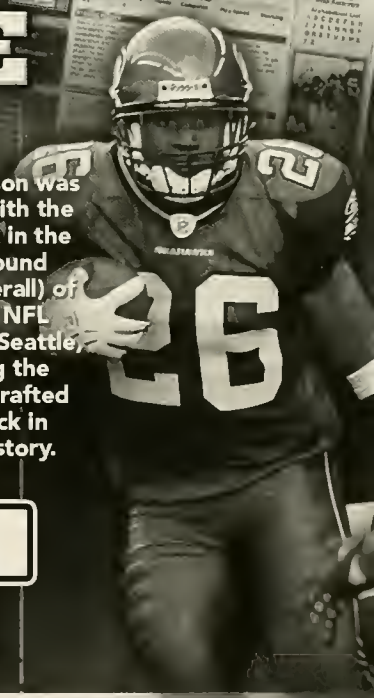
Davis was featured on the NFL's website, among other places, leading up to the draft.



An All-ACC defensive tackle, Dre Moore was chosen in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.



Jackson is one of several Terps to improve his stock at the Senior Bowl in the past six years.



Josh Wilson was chosen with the 23rd pick in the second round (55th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft by Seattle, becoming the highest drafted cornerback in school history.

Four Terrapins were invited to the 2008 NFL Combine in Indianapolis. More than 30 NFL scouts and executives were on hand in College Park to watch Maryland players work out at the annual Pro Timing Day.

QUARTERBACK LEGACY

Jack Scarbath

JACK SCARBATH (1950-52) — Maryland's split T quarterback was runner-up to Billy Vessels for the Heisman Trophy and was a unanimous All-America selection in 1952. In three seasons, the Terps were 24-4-1 with Scarbath as QB, including 10-0 in 1951.

DICK SHINER (1961-63) — An honorable mention All-America selection in 1962 and a two-time first team All-ACC choice who helped lead the Terps to a 21-17 win over Penn State.

BOB AVELLINI (1972-74) — Set school marks at the time for total offense (312 yards) and passing yards (314) while completing 21 of 31 passes in a game in his first career start his sophomore year vs. Duke. Went on to have a 10-year NFL career.

NEIL O'DONNELL (1987-89) — A two-year starter in college, he ended his career in the No. 2 spot on most major Terp passing charts. Drafted by the Steelers in 1990, he became the team's franchise player during his six seasons, making a Pro Bowl appearance in only his second year and leading Pittsburgh to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX.

SCOTT ZOLAK (1989-90) — Despite starting just one season for the Terps, he finished his collegiate career among Terp leaders in passing yards (3,124) and completions (270). His 2,589 passing yards in 1990 ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history and helped earn him honorable mention All-America recognition from Football News. He was taken in the fourth round of the 1991 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

Boomer Esiason

BOOMER ESIASON (1981-83) — A two-time All-American who set 17 school records, led the Terps to the ACC championship in 1983 and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl. Arguably the most prolific left-handed quarterback in NFL history, Esiason was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and league MVP in '88.

FRANK REICH (1983-84) — Best known for leading the Buffalo Bills back from a 32-point deficit in the 1992 NFL playoffs against Houston, he also commanded the second-greatest comeback in the college game as well rallying the Terps after halftime against No. 6 Miami (Fla.) and down 31-0. Maryland pulled off the miracle upset, 42-40, and Reich finished the season as one of the top-rated passers in the country. Appeared in four Super Bowls.

STAN GELBAUGH (1984-85) — Played behind Esiason and Reich before moving into the Terps' starting lineup in '84 when Reich went down to injury. Gelbaugh stepped in to lead Maryland to four wins and a one-point loss on the road to Penn State. The following season, the Terps went on to win the ACC title and a Cherry Bowl championship.

Scott Zolak

SCOTT MILANOVICH (1993-95) — Left campus as one of the most decorated Terrapin QBs ever. In fact, Milanovich still owns most Maryland passing records, including career standards for yards (7,301), TDs (49) and completions (650). He is currently the QB coach with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL.

SHAUN HILL (2000-2001) — Sparked the Terrapins to the 2001 ACC championship and earned team MVP honors, throwing for 13 touchdowns and rushing for seven more. Originally picked up by the Vikings, Hill is currrently in his seventh season with the San Francisco 49ers.

SCOTT MCBRIEN (2002-2003) — Southpaw transfer from West Virginia who led the Terrapins to 21 wins in his two years as a starter — most by any Terp QB in two years — and was named MVP of the Peach and Gator Bowls. Currently with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL.

Friedgen was featured in the Sports Illustrated 2003 College Football Preview.

It caught on quickly and continues to spread... Fridge Fever, *that is.

Perhaps never in the history of Maryland Athletics has a coach overseen a more immediate and dramatic turnaround of his team's fortunes than Ralph Friedgen, the consensus national Coach of the Year in 2001, who is third all-time in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the number of wins in the first seven years of his career. Friedgen has taken the Terps to five bowls in his first seven seasons, including posting a school-record three straight bowl wins.

Friedgen's rookie season included an ACC title, a BCS appearance in the FedEx Orange Bowl, and a final ranking of No. 10... Maryland finished each of the next two seasons by winning 10 of its last 11 games, including dominating performances in postseason bowls (30-3 over Tennessee in the 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 41-7 over West Virginia in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl).

A high-powered, exciting offense that resulted in back-to-back scoring records... an attacking, suffocating defensive style... standout special-teams play — all have been hallmarks of Friedgen's Terrapin teams, as they have posted a 56-31 record the past seven seasons.

Wise GUIDES

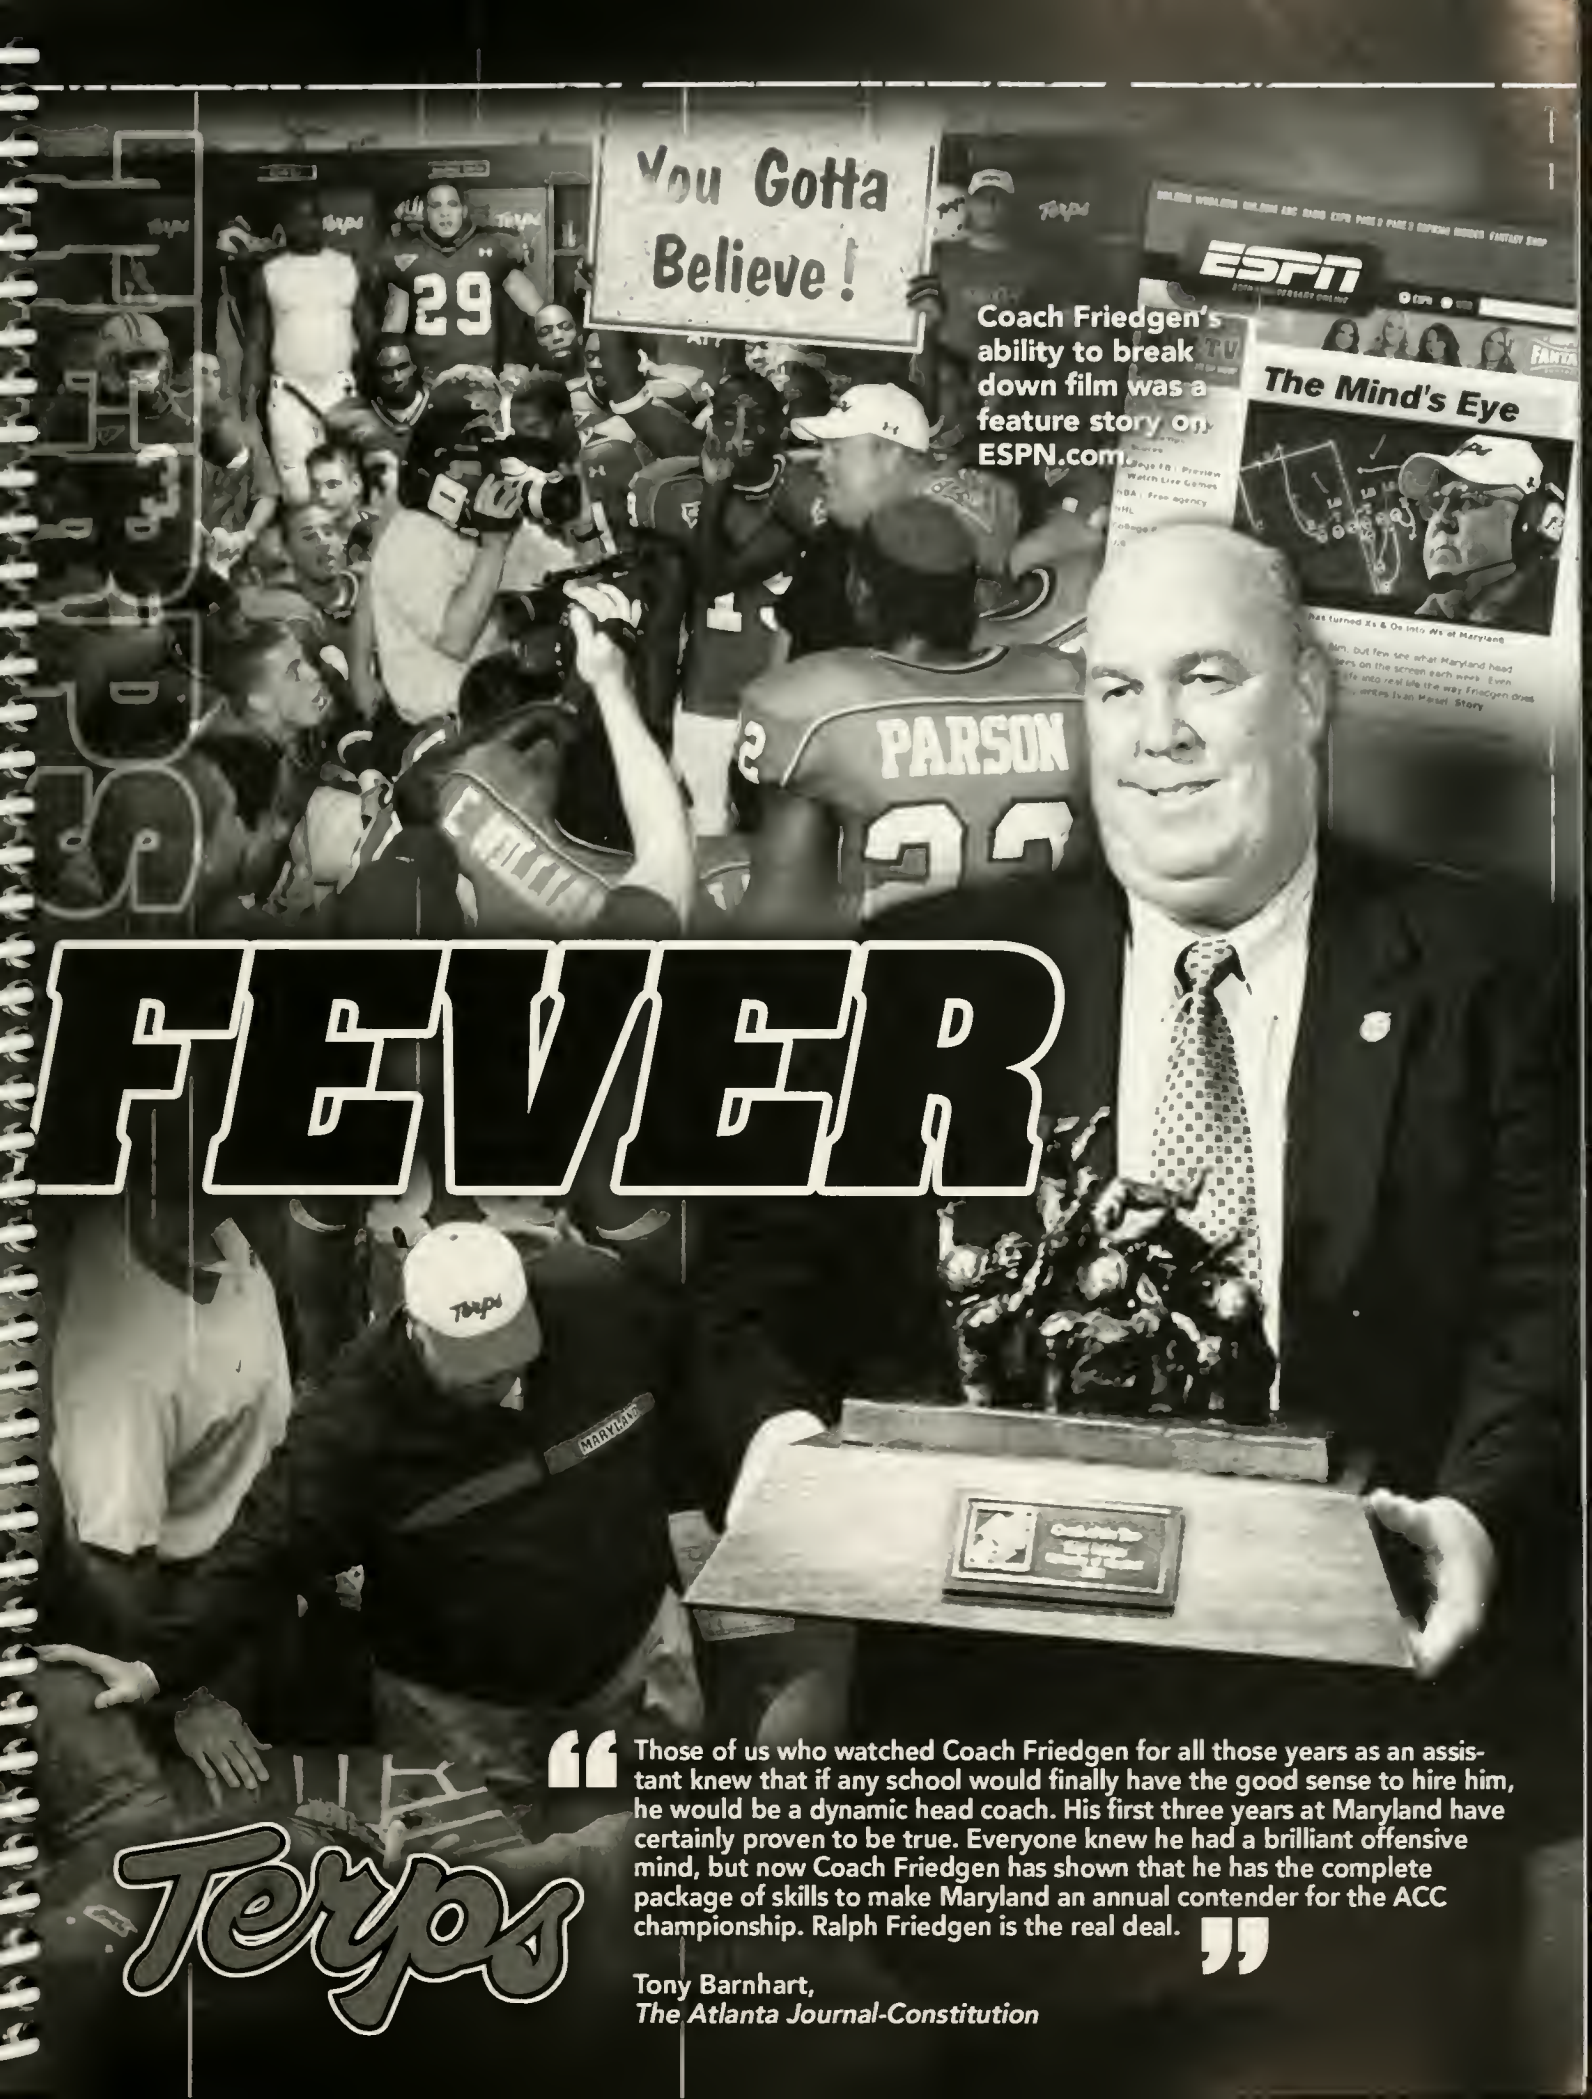
Plotting, scheming and motivating behind the scenes.

FRIDGE

"Some people look at a football field and see hash marks and yard lines. Ralph Friedgen sees plays and patterns invisible to every other naked eye. And if anyone on defense does see them, they see them a step too late. More important, Ralph has the skill to teach what he sees to his players.

You always hear about great middleweights who are 'pound for pound' the best fighters in the world. That's meant as a compliment to smaller men. Ralph is not a small man, but pound for pound he's still the best offensive coach in the country."

Ivan Maisel
ESPN.com



Coach Friedgen's ability to break down film was a feature story on ESPN.com.

FEVER

Terps

"Those of us who watched Coach Friedgen for all those years as an assistant knew that if any school would finally have the good sense to hire him, he would be a dynamic head coach. His first three years at Maryland have certainly proven to be true. Everyone knew he had a brilliant offensive mind, but now Coach Friedgen has shown that he has the complete package of skills to make Maryland an annual contender for the ACC championship. Ralph Friedgen is the real deal."

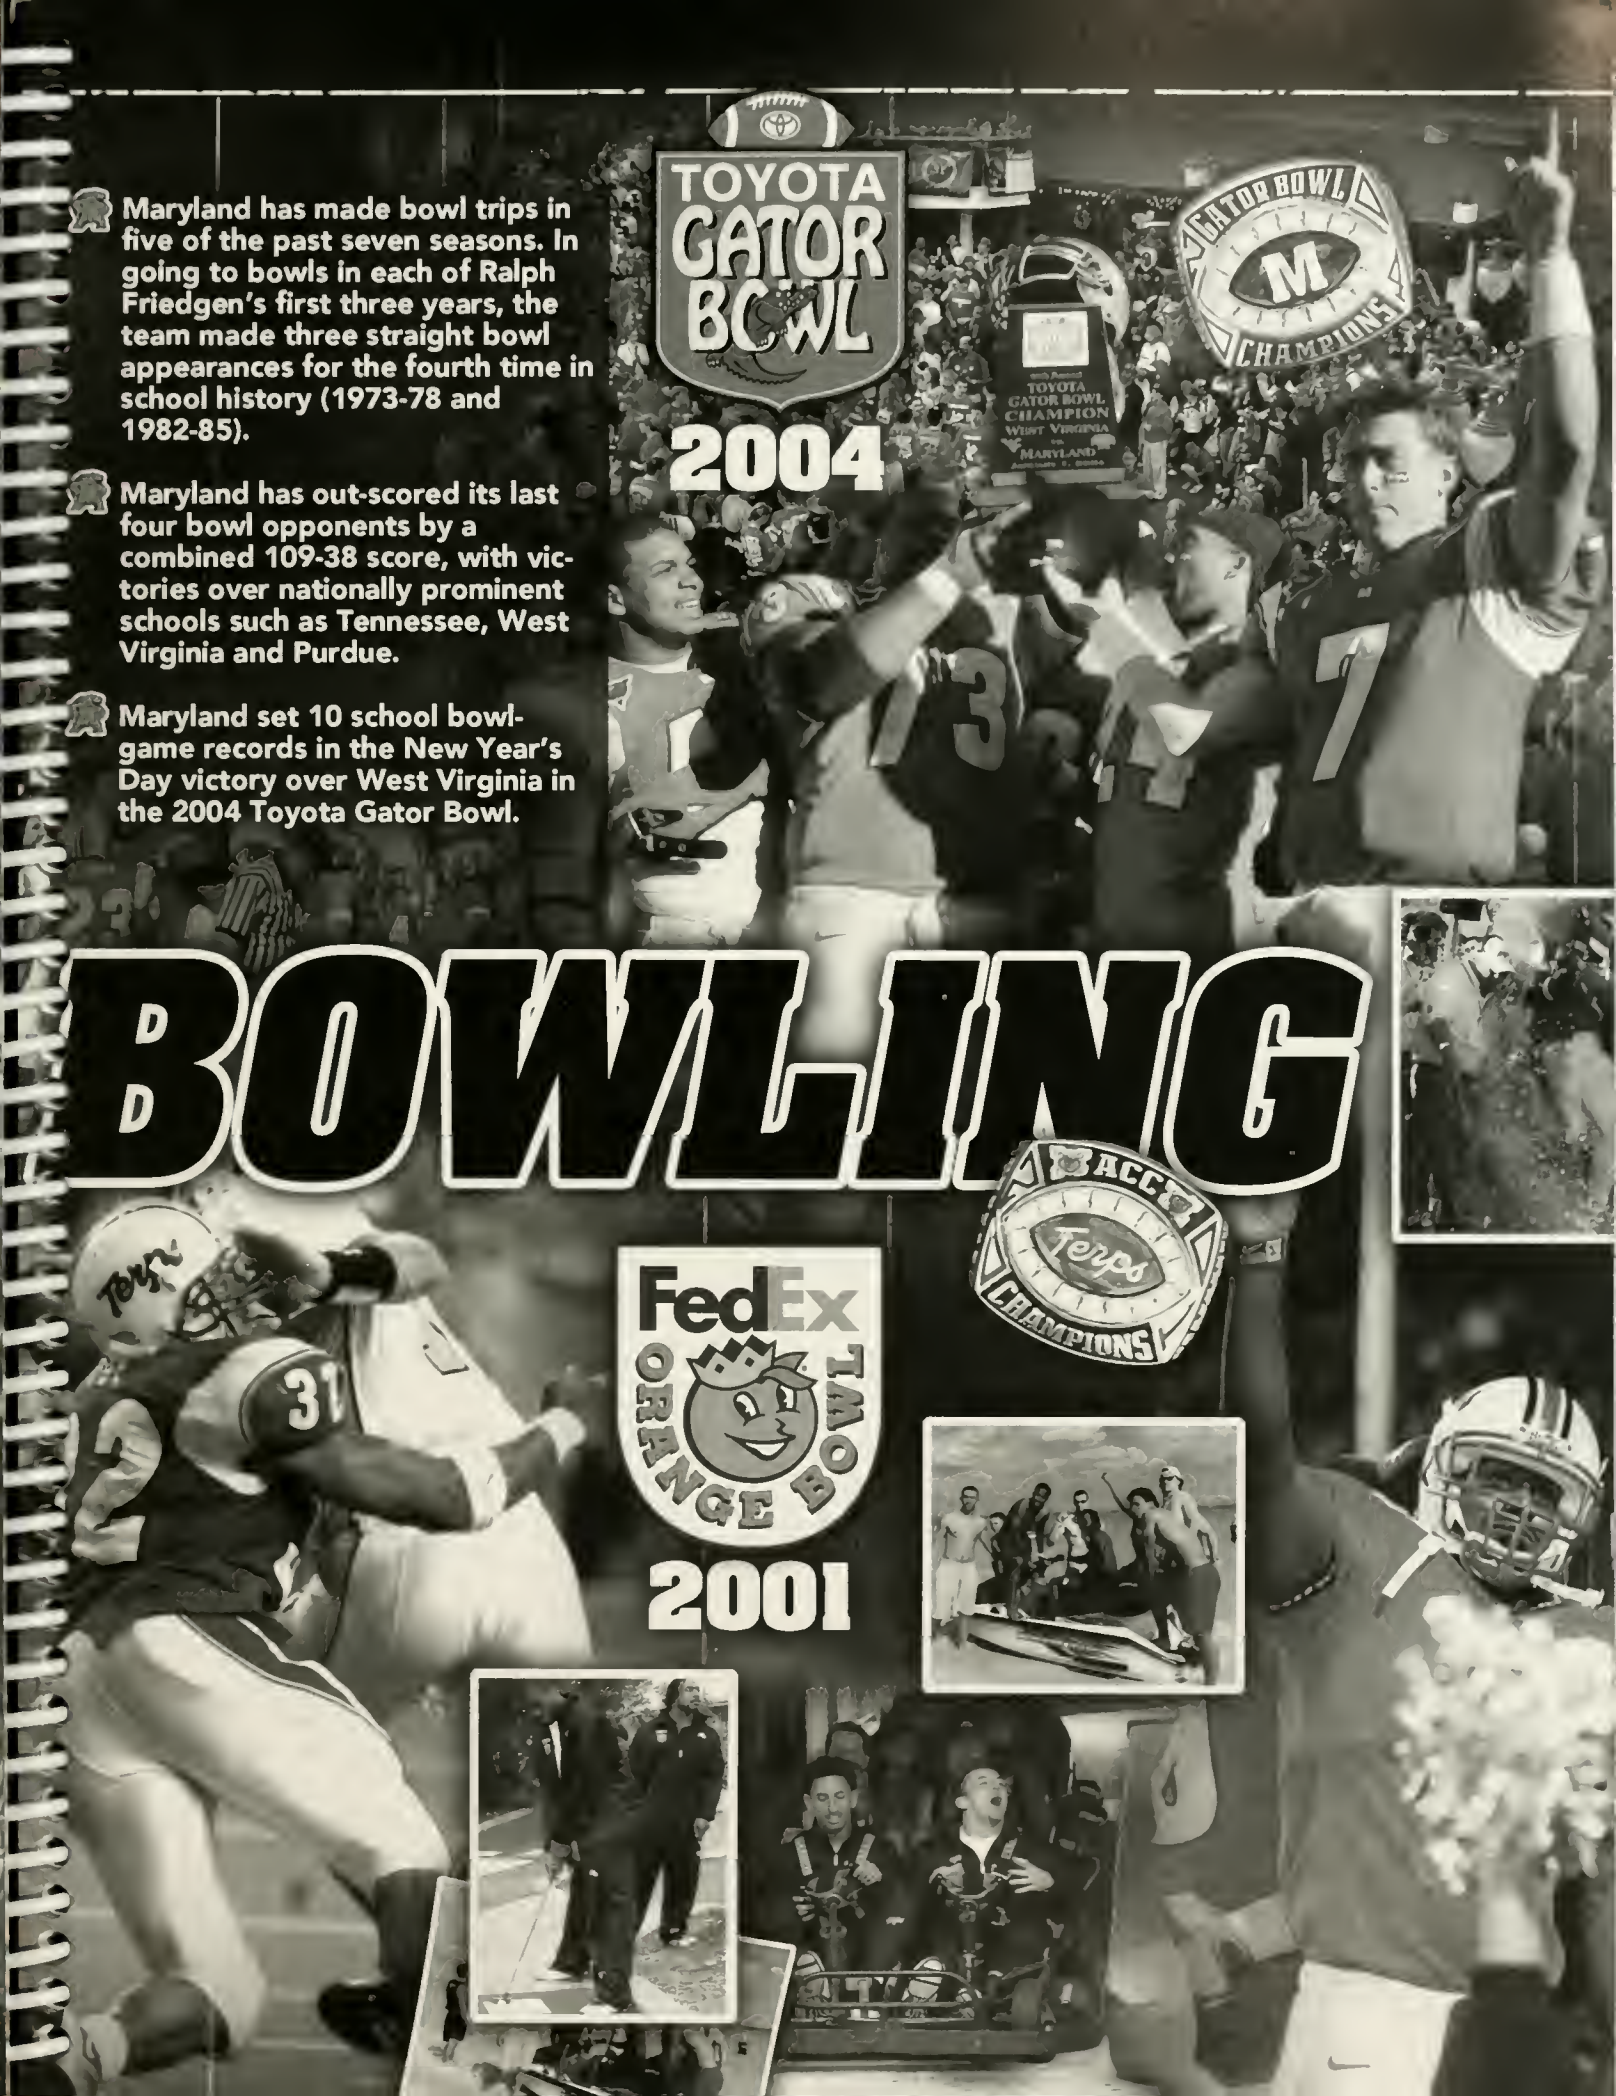
2002

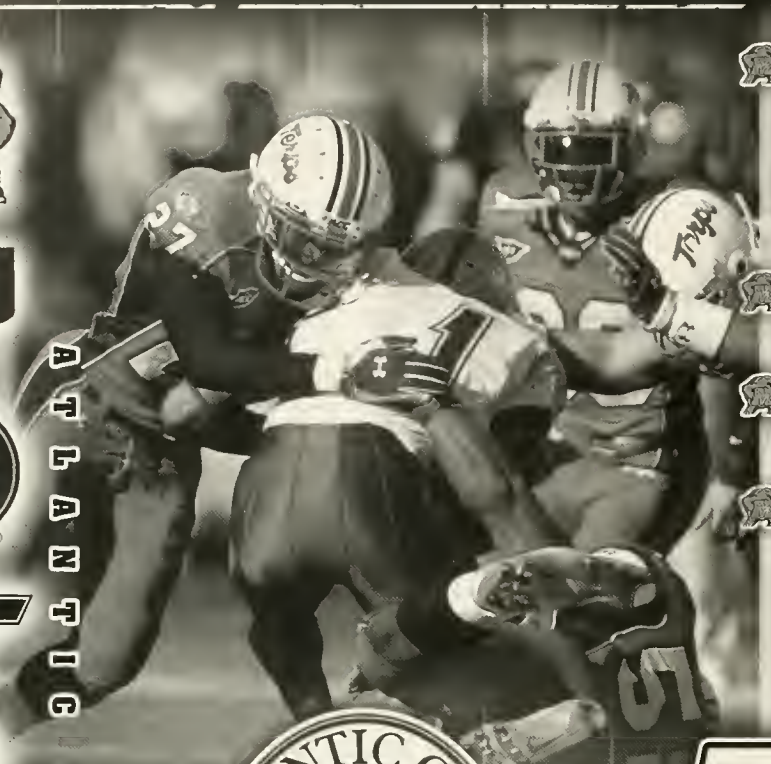
The University of Maryland made its fifth bowl trip in seven years when it was invited to play Oregon State in the 2007 Emerald Bowl. The game in San Francisco's AT&T Park drew more than 32,000 fans for the ACC vs. Pac-10 matchup.

Maryland has a well-established history of bringing loyal fans in large numbers to postseason games in their recent bowl appearances.

BOWLING

- Maryland has made bowl trips in five of the past seven seasons. In going to bowls in each of Ralph Friedgen's first three years, the team made three straight bowl appearances for the fourth time in school history (1973-78 and 1982-85).
- Maryland has out-scored its last four bowl opponents by a combined 109-38 score, with victories over nationally prominent schools such as Tennessee, West Virginia and Purdue.
- Maryland set 10 school bowl-game records in the New Year's Day victory over West Virginia in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl.





- The Atlantic Coast Conference continued to be one of the dominant football conferences in the nation in 2007, with two teams ranked among the nation's Top 10 in the final Associated Press poll. Fans around the league are ready for an exciting 2008 season, with the league showing great parity and balance.
- ACC teams have won two of the last nine national championships, five titles since 1990 and nine national crowns overall since the 1981 season.
- The ACC now features three teams that played in five of the first six BCS National Championship games.
- In 2007, the ACC matched its record from the previous season with eight teams earning bowl bids. Since 2001, the ACC has appeared in post-season play 49 times. In 2002, the ACC set a NCAA record for the percentage of teams in a conference that reached the postseason when seven of the then-nine teams earned bids.

ACC CONFERENCE O

- ACC attendance continued to increase, as the league enjoyed its an average per-game attendance of 53,733. The mark is the best since the ACC expanded to 12 teams and the second-best in league history. Ten ACC schools, including Maryland, filled their stadiums to 91 percent of capacity or better.
- With Virginia's Chris Long and Boston College's Matt Ryan being chosen second and third in the 2008 NFL Draft, the ACC became the first conference in the nation to have two student-athletes chosen among the top four picks in the draft for three consecutive years.
- Seven ACC teams were ranked at least one week during the course of the 2007 season.

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2007, 86 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 21st, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences each had specialties listed among the top 25 in the nation.

NO BETTER

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

beyond the University of Maryland campus.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th-largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

FROM WALK-ON TO FRONT AND CENTER

Important to any college program are walk-on players, who not only make a difference in aiding a team's depth and continuity, but can also earn their own scholarship and bid for significant playing time.

Take the case of Chad Scott. After playing two seasons at Towson in 1993 and 1994, Scott chose to walk on at Maryland, uninvited. By the end of his first semester on campus, Scott was awarded a scholarship and became a Terrapin co-captain for his senior year in 1996. The rest is history. Scott was a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1997 and played for the three-time NFL Champion New England Patriots.

Scott exemplifies the ultimate walk-on scenario. However, every season at Maryland, there are walk-on players who find their niche and contribute greatly to the Terrapins' program. With recent scholarship reductions, walk-on players have become a vital component to the rebuilding of Maryland football fortunes.

Another example is receiver Jermaine Arrington, who walked on and was the Terps' leading receiver in 1998, moving on to sign a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers.

A recent Maryland player to go from walk-on to standout is former safety Madieu Williams, a transfer from Towson who became the first Terrapin picked in the 2003 NFL Draft, going in the second round to the Cincinnati Bengals. Williams was one of the top defensive rookies in the NFL in 2004, finishing with 103 tackles, three interceptions and two sacks as a starting cornerback. He signed last spring as a free agent with the Minnesota Vikings.

Head Coach Ralph FRIEDGEN

Maryland '70
Eighth Year at Maryland

Ralph Friedgen is in his eighth year as head coach at the University of Maryland with a reputation as one of the top offensive minds in college football.

Friedgen has lifted the Terrapins to unprecedented heights in his tenure, taking the team to five bowl games, including a pair of New Year's Day appearances, and a school record three straight bowl victories. Prior to Friedgen's arrival, Maryland had just one bowl game appearance in the previous 15 seasons.

There has also been extraordinary fan support in his tenure, with the top four average single-season home attendance marks occurring in the last seven years. In addition, 20 of the top 25 crowds in the history of Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium have taken place since 2001.

He is the 33rd head coach in school history and ranks fourth in Maryland annals in career winning percentage (.676). His 56 wins are also the third most of any Atlantic Coast Conference head coach through seven years.

After spending the last two years as head coach and offensive coordinator, Friedgen relinquished that difficult dual role after the 2007 season.

In his first season as offensive coordinator since becoming head coach, he directed the team to a 9-4 record, marking the fourth nine-win campaign in the previous six seasons and 13th in school history. The Terps culminated the 2006 season with a convincing 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Friedgen led the team to another bowl appearance last season despite having to persevere through numerous injuries as only three offensive players started all 13 games. In all there were 17 members of the two-deep which missed at least one game.

In spite of the injuries, Friedgen had the Terps at their best against the toughest competition as Maryland defeated a pair of top 10 teams in 2007. In 115 years of football, the Terps had never defeated two top-10 teams in the same season.

The wins over No. 10 Rutgers and No. 8 Boston College put the Terps among elite company nationally as well. Maryland was one of only four teams in the country (also LSU, Kentucky and Illinois) to defeat two top-10 teams during the 2007 campaign.

A long-time successful assistant coach at Georgia Tech, where he was credited with overseeing one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks, Friedgen continues to build a new level of pride and glory to his alma mater's football program, guiding the Terps to a 56-31 record, including an ACC title and a pair of second-place finishes in his first seven years.

Not only were his 50 wins after six seasons more than those of Terps legend Jerry Claiborne, they also fall just shy of the all-time ACC mark of 51, set by Clemson's Danny Ford in the early 1980s. In addition, in his first three seasons at the helm of the Terrapin program, Friedgen became the first coach in conference lore to lead a team to three-straight seasons of 10 wins or more, while his 36 wins in his first four years ranked him in the top 10 in NCAA history, surpassing the fourth-year marks of coaches such as Frank Leahy and Joe Paterno.

The consensus national coach of the year in 2001 after leading Maryland to its first ACC championship since 1985, Friedgen and company have returned Maryland to prominence on the national scene. The Terrapins have won more games (56) in the seven seasons under Friedgen than they had in the 14 years prior to his arrival (55).

Long overlooked as a head-coaching candidate, the 1970 Maryland graduate was tapped as the Terps' head football coach following the 2000 season, and he wasted no time in returning the program to the glory days it achieved when Friedgen was an assistant to Bobby Ross in the 1980s.

Seven years ago, in his first season as the Terps' grid boss, Maryland won its first seven games and eventually halted Florida State's reign as perennial ACC champion, earning the league's automatic berth in the Bowl Championship Series' FedEx Orange Bowl. By winning the ACC title that season, Friedgen became the first mentor in league history to win the championship in his first year as a head coach.

In 2002, despite a 1-2 start and without 19 seniors from the previous year, the Terps made their way back to a major bowl game, winning 10 of their last 11 games and finishing in a tie for second in the ACC. The 2003 campaign provided a bit of déjà vu for Friedgen and the Terrapins as they again started 1-2, and again ran off 10 wins in their final 11 games to earn a second New Year's bowl bid in three years.

By winning 11 games in 2002, Friedgen became just the second coach in school history to hit that mark, matching Claiborne's 11-win campaign in 1976.

The 2006 team started 3-2 before reeling off a five-game winning streak, which placed them in the midst of the ACC Atlantic Division race. The Terps lost to eventual champion Wake Forest on the final game of the regular season, but Maryland was a force in the league race throughout the year, enabling it to earn the fourth slot among ACC postseason bids and a trip to Orlando, Fla., for the Champs Sports Bowl.

Friedgen's teams have had some impressive performances in their five bowl appearances. The Terps posted lopsided victories over Tennessee (30-3) in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and over West Virginia (41-7) in the Toyota Gator Bowl. In all, Maryland has out-scored its last four bowl opponents, 109-38.

His offensive success notwithstanding, Friedgen's teams at Maryland have been solid on defense, ranking among the nation's leaders annually while producing the

RALPH FRIEDGEN HAS GUIDED THE TERPS TO WINS IN THE 2003 PEACH, 2004 GATOR AND 2006 CHAMPS SPORTS BOWLS.

ACC's Defensive Player of the Year in three of the last seven seasons (E.J. Henderson in 2001 and 2002; D'Qwell Jackson in 2005).

Named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country in 1999 while at Tech, Friedgen brought 32 years of assistant coaching experience (including 21 as an offensive coordinator either in college or the NFL) with him in his return to College Park.

The 61-year-old Friedgen (pronounced FREE-jun) owns the rare distinction of coordinating the offense for both a collegiate national champion (Georgia Tech in 1990) and a Super Bowl team (San Diego in 1994).

Friedgen spent 20 seasons with the aforementioned Ross in coaching stops at The Citadel, Maryland, Georgia Tech and the NFL's San Diego Chargers. He returned to Tech in 1997, where he served another successful stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under good friend George O'Leary, now the head coach at the University of Central Florida.

A 1970 graduate of Maryland, where he earned a degree in physical education, Friedgen launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant before heading off to a series of jobs that included The Citadel (1973-79), William & Mary (1980) and Murray State (1981).

In 1982, he returned to Maryland as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Ross, with Friedgen's tenure lasting until 1986. During that stretch, the Terps captured three consecutive ACC championships (1983-85) and played in four bowl games. All told, the Terrapins were 39-15-1 from 1982-86 and won two bowl games (the Sun Bowl in 1984 and the Cherry Bowl in 1985). It is the type of success Friedgen has reinstilled in his current group of Terrapins.

The Ross-Friedgen connection began in 1973, when Ross hired the former Maryland offensive guard as defensive line coach at The Citadel. Friedgen spent seven seasons at The Citadel, the last three as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He then worked one season (1980) as offensive coordinator at William & Mary and one season (1981) as assistant head coach at Murray State before Ross tapped him to be his offensive coordinator at Maryland in 1982.

During his five-year stay at Maryland under Ross, Friedgen was instrumental in the development of future pro quarterbacks Boomer Esiason, Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh, all of whom spent at least 10 seasons in the National Football League. Esiason played professionally from 1984-97, Reich from 1985-98 and Gelbaugh from 1986-95.

Friedgen followed Ross to Georgia Tech in 1987, becoming the Yellow Jackets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the next five seasons, including the 1990 campaign when Tech, unranked in the preseason, captured the national championship with an 11-0-1 record. The national title came just two years after the Jackets had posted back-to-back seasons of three wins or less.

When Ross was named head coach of the San Diego Chargers in 1992, he tapped Friedgen to serve as running game coordinator for two seasons (1992-93) before elevating him to offensive coordinator in 1994, when the Chargers advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in franchise history. During his time with the Chargers, Friedgen helped a club that had not made the playoffs in a decade reach postseason play three times in five seasons.

Known for developing balanced offensive attacks with multiple looks, Tech was one of only two teams in the country in 1999 to average at least 200 yards rushing and 200 yards passing. Tech also accomplished the feat under Friedgen's guidance in 1990, '91 and '98. The 1999 team, with Joe Hamilton at quarterback, set 59 school records, rewriting many marks established by the 1990 national championship team, which was led by another Friedgen pupil, Shawn Jones (1989-92). Friedgen was a finalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 1998 when the Ramblin' Wreck set a then-school record with 50 touchdowns.

The first Maryland alum since Bob Ward (1967-68) to serve as the Terps' head football coach, Friedgen originally came to Maryland as a quarterback in the mid-'60s and spent most of his career as an offensive lineman, lettering in 1966 and '68 and capturing Academic All-ACC honors. He was a two-time winner of the George C. Cook Memorial Award (1968-69) for having the highest academic average on the football team.

Friedgen's coaching roots run deep. His father, also named Ralph (though not a "Sr."), was a high school coach for more than 30 years and masterminded, among other teams, the 1964 Westchester County (N.Y.) High School team that went undefeated and averaged 44 points per game running what was then an unusual multiple offense. It was an offense run by a 190-pound quarterback later recruited by Maryland who shared his name. Maybe as a sign of things to come, the younger Ralph called all of his team's offensive plays from his junior year on.

Friedgen and his wife, the former Gloria Spina, have three daughters: Kelley, Kristina and Katie. Gloria is the Coordinator of Alumni Affairs and Outreach for the College of Health and Human Performance at Maryland while both serve on that college's Board of Visitors. Kelley is in her fourth year as an associate at Arnold and Porter in D.C., specializing in pharmaceutical and medical device law; Kristina graduated from Maryland in 2008 after majoring in theater; and Katie is her third year at Maryland, majoring in art.

Friedgen was honored for his dedication to his family in June of 2007 when he named father of the year by the Washington D.C. Father's Day Council.

Terp Highlights Under Friedgen

- A 56-31 (.644) record in his first seven years, including the first back-to-back-to-back 10-win seasons in school history (10-2 in 2001, 11-3 in 2002 and 10-3 in 2003).
- A school-record three straight bowl wins, culminating with the 24-7 triumph over Purdue in the 2006 Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps have out-scored their last four bowl opponents by a 109-38 margin.
- Four of the school's 13 nine-win seasons have come in Friedgen's seven years as head coach.
- The 56 wins in seven seasons are more than the Terps had (55) in the 14 years prior to his arrival.
- During 2007, the Terps defeated two top-10 teams (No. 10 Rutgers, No. 8 Boston College). The Terps had never beaten two top-10 teams in the same season. They were also one of only four teams in the nation (LSU, Kentucky and Illinois) to accomplish that feat in 2007.
- A school record-tying 11-victory season in 2002, when the Terps won 10 of their last 11 games. Only the 1976 team won as many games.
- Maryland was joined by only four other Division I-A schools - Miami (Fla.), Oklahoma, Texas and Washington State - to have won as many as 10 games in the 2001, 2002 and 2003 seasons.
- A top-20 final national ranking in both major national polls for three straight years (2001-03). Maryland ended 2003 ranked 17th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press. In 2002, the Terps were ranked 13th in both polls, and in 2001 the team finished 10th in the ESPN/USA Today poll and 11th in the AP standings. It was the program's best three-year final rankings since 1974-76 (when the Terps finished 13th, 13th and eighth).
- Friedgen is the third-most successful seventh-year coach in ACC history, with his 56-31 mark eclipsing those of league mentors Dick Sheridan, Tommy Bowden, Bill Dooley and Mack Brown.
- Bowl appearances in five of his first seven seasons, including dominating wins in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl (41-7 over West Virginia) and a 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over perennial national power Tennessee (a team ranked fifth in the two major preseason polls). The Terrapins also earned a BCS Orange Bowl berth during the 2001 campaign.
- A 33-23 (.589) Atlantic Coast Conference record, including a 7-1 mark in 2001 when the Terps became the first team other than Florida State to win an outright ACC title since the Seminoles joined the league, and a 6-2 mark and runner-up finish in 2002.
- By winning the ACC title in 2001, Friedgen became the first mentor in conference history to win the championship in his first year as a head coach. He also tied the mark of 10-2 set by Ken Hatfield (Clemson) in 1990, the best record ever by an ACC coach in his first season.
- 33 wins in 44 games at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, where the Terps averaged a school-record 52,426 fans in 2005 and 51,263 in 2007.
- Three of the last seven ACC Defensive Players of the Year.
- 48 national television appearances, including a school-record eight showings in 2002. (The Terrapins played on national television or ABC regional six times in 2005, 2006 and 2007).
- The program's first major national award winner since 1974 in linebacker E.J. Henderson, a two-time consensus first team All-American who was named the winner of the Dick Butkus Award (nation's outstanding linebacker) and the Chuck Bednarik Trophy (nation's outstanding defensive player) in 2002.
- Back-to-back school records in number of first team All-ACC performers in 2001 (7) and 2002 (8) and an ACC-best 13 overall all-conference honors (2001).
- 31 weeks in at least one of the country's two major top 25 polls, including a streak of seven consecutive weeks at the start of the 2004 season.
- The only consensus national coach of the year award (2001) in Maryland football history.
- Four straight seasons of over 31,000 season tickets sold (2004-present). Twenty of the top 25 all-time highest crowds at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium have come during the last seven seasons.
- Back-to-back school scoring records (2001 and 2002) and a two-year team scoring average of more than 33 points per game in those seasons.
- A NCAA-low four passing touchdowns allowed in 2005. The defense also had four straight seasons (2001-2004) in which it allowed 20 points or less a contest.
- 19 Terps earning All-America recognition, including two first-teamers (Vernon Davis and D'Qwell Jackson) in 2005.

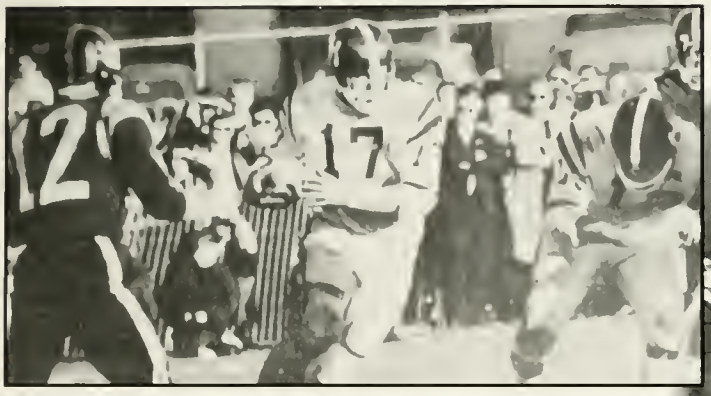
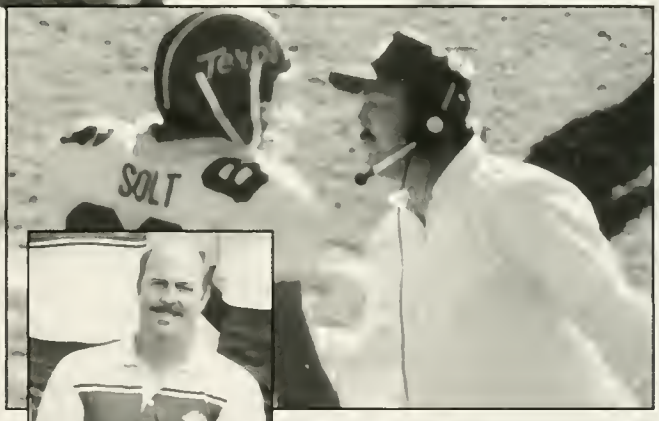
THROUGH THE YEARS WITH FRIEDGEN



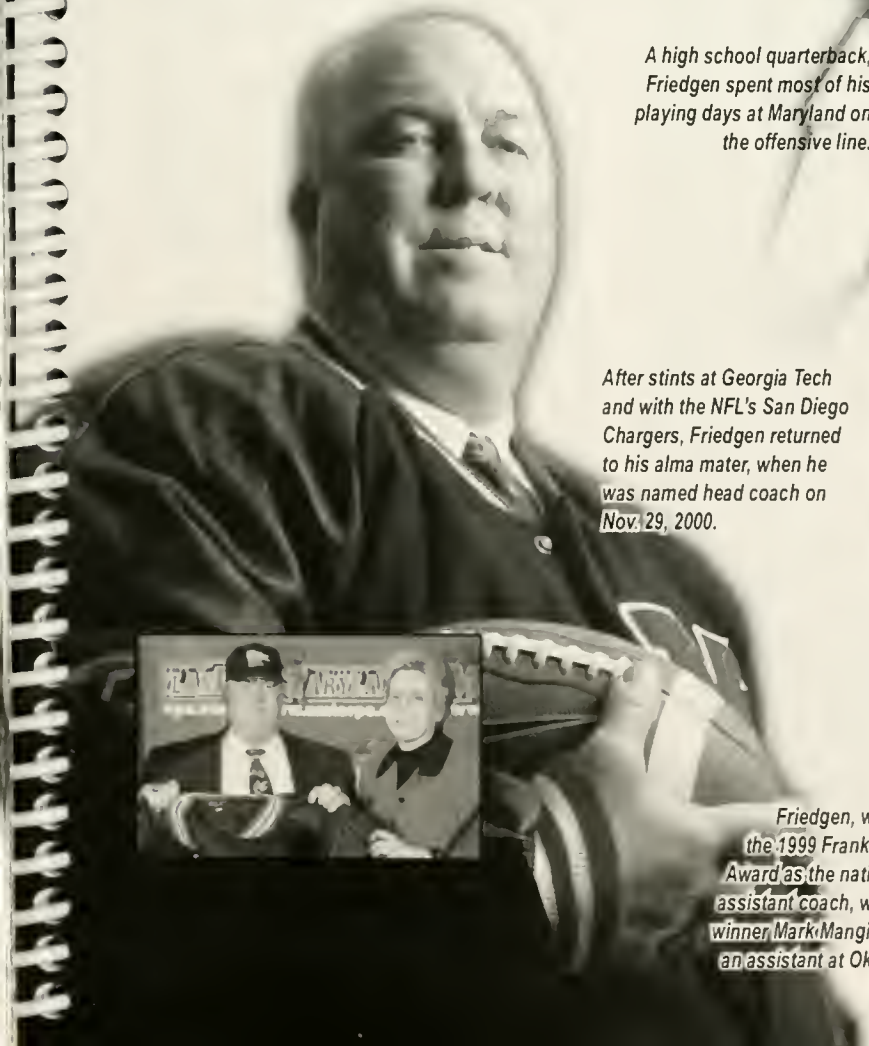
Friedgen (17) was the starting quarterback for Harrison High School in New York, playing under his father Ralph Friedgen.

A high school quarterback, Friedgen spent most of his playing days at Maryland on the offensive line.

Friedgen as a student at Maryland in 1968.



Friedgen returned to Maryland as an assistant coach in 1982, where he served through 1986.



After stints at Georgia Tech and with the NFL's San Diego Chargers, Friedgen returned to his alma mater, when he was named head coach on Nov. 29, 2000.

Friedgen, winner of the 1999 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach, with 2000 winner Mark Mangino, then an assistant at Oklahoma.

James Franklin

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

East Stroudsburg '95 • Sixth Year at Maryland

James Franklin, one of the nation's top young offensive minds, is in his first season as Maryland's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He is also in charge of tutoring the Maryland quarterbacks.

He is in his sixth season overall with the program, having served as an assistant coach from 2000 through 2004.

Franklin returned to the Terps staff in December, 2007 after spending the last two seasons at Kansas State, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He also has NFL experience, spending one season as the wide receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers.

In 2007 under Franklin's direction, K-State's ranked 20th nationally in passing offense (285.4 yards per game) and 21st in scoring offense (35.2 points per game).

Franklin's offense is coming off a record-breaking campaign as the Wildcats had a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,500-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in a single season for the first time in school history. They also set single-season school records for pass attempts (510), completions (322) and passing yards (3,425).

Receiver Jordy Nelson and quarterback Josh Freeman were a dangerous pass-catch combination for Franklin.

Nelson became just the ninth player, and the only offensive player, in K-State history to be named a consensus All-American. He ranked second in the nation in both receptions (10.2 per game) and receiving yards (133.8 per game) en route to becoming a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, which honors the top receiver in the nation.

Freeman threw for 3,353 yards and ranked 26th nationally in total offense (276.8 ypg) to earn honorable mention All-Big 12 honors. Running back James Johnson tallied 1,106 rushing yards to become a second-team all-league choice.

During the 2006 season, Franklin helped lead the Wildcats to a 7-6 record, a tie for second place in the Big 12's North Division and a berth in the Texas Bowl, ending a two-year postseason drought.

A total of seven players from Franklin's offensive unit earned postseason accolades in 2006, including Freeman, who was tapped as an honorable mention freshman All-America by The Sporting News. Freeman set the Kansas State single-season freshman record with 1,780 passing yards.

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Kan., Franklin spent the 2005 season with the Packers where he worked with receivers Donald Driver, Javon Walker and Robert Ferguson, as well as record-setting quarterback Brett Favre.

Driver posted what were then career highs with 86 receptions for 1,221 receiving yards. He also became just the fourth Packers player with an 85-reception season (joining Shannon Sharpe, Robert Brooks and Walker).

Despite losing Walker early in the season with a knee injury, the Packers still posted the sixth-highest receiving yards total in the NFL that season.

Franklin also spent five seasons (2000-04) as the Terps wide receivers coach where he quickly established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters.

In 2003, he was promoted by Friedgen to recruiting coordinator and helped deliver back-to-back recruiting classes that were ranked among the nation's top 25 by several prominent recruiting outlets. Rivals.com also ranked Franklin as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters for two consecutive years while at Maryland.

Maryland's receiving corps also flourished under Franklin's guidance. In 2001, Franklin mentored All-ACC wide receiver Guilian Gary, who led a balanced group of wideouts with 49 receptions for 727 yards and six touchdowns. Gary went on to finish his Maryland career ranked among the school's top 10 receivers in receptions, receiving yardage and receiving touchdowns.

In both 2002 and 2003, Franklin had four different receivers record at least 300 receiving yards despite returning just one starter each season.

Franklin was also a part of three bowl game appearances in his first tour of duty in College Park.

Prior to his first stint at Maryland, Franklin rose quickly through the coaching ranks, making stops at five different schools in five years. He received his start in coaching at Kutztown University in 1995 as the program's receivers coach before returning to his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, in 1996 as a graduate assistant and secondary coach.

In 1997, Franklin worked alongside current Kansas State head coach Ron Prince at James Madison, serving as the program's receivers coach. The following season, he received his first coaching assignment at a BCS conference school as the graduate assistant in charge of tight ends at Washington State for the 1998 season. Franklin then moved on to Idaho State in 1999 where he served as the wide receivers coach.

While at Idaho State, the Bengals' receiving corps totaled 29 touchdowns, 258 receptions and more than 3,300 receiving yards, contributing to one of the best offensive seasons in school history as ISU finished the year ranked ninth nationally in total offense.

Franklin got his professional experience at this time, serving NFL minority coaching internships with the Miami Dolphins (1998), Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008).

A four-year letterman as a quarterback at East Stroudsburg from 1991-94, Franklin was a two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference selection. As a senior in 1994, he garnered team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill nominee for Division II Player of the Year after setting seven school records, including single-season marks for total offense (3,128), passing yards (2,586) and TD passes (19). He also earned Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week honors in October of that season.

Franklin earned a bachelor of science degree in psychology from East Stroudsburg in 1995 and his master's in educational leadership from Washington State in 1999.

He and his wife, Fumi, have two girls, Ava (1) and Addison (newborn).

Chris Cosh

Defensive Coordinator/Inside Linebackers

Virginia Tech '83 • Fourth Year at Maryland

Chris Cosh is in his third year as Maryland's defensive coordinator.

Cosh, who has served as a defensive coordinator in three of the six BCS conferences, also oversees the middle (Mike) and weakside (Will) linebackers.

This is Cosh's second tour of duty with the Terps, having spent the 1997 season in College Park.

Cosh's defense has continually grown during his second tenure.

Last year's defense was highlighted by first-team All-ACC performers Erin Henderson and Dre Moore. Henderson led the league in tackles from his weakside linebacker spot, while Moore, a defensive tackle, went on to become a fourth-round draft choice of Tampa Bay in the 2008 NFL Draft.

In addtion, LB Dave Philistin was fourth in the ACC in tackles and DL Carlos Feliciano and DB Isaiah Gardner were also signed as free agents after the draft.

Cosh's defense ended the year No. 24 nationally in scoring defense (21.5 points per game) and No. 33 in pass defense (210.69 yards per game). The group posted eight more sacks and five more interceptions than the previous year.

In 2006, Cosh was responsible for a unit that contributed to the school's first nine-win season in three years, and finished the year with a 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps defense held the opposition to an average of 21.8 points per game. Under Cosh's leadership, the defense marked breakout performances by cornerback Josh Wilson and Henderson, who each earned All-ACC honors.

Wilson went on to become a second-round choice of the Seattle Seahawks in the 2007 NFL Draft, while DL Conrad Boston (Minnesota Vikings) and LB David Holloway (Anzona Cardinals) signed free-agent contracts.

Cosh came to College Park after spending two seasons (2004-05) as a linebackers coach at Kansas State. The Wildcats defense ranked 32nd nationally in 2005 allowing an average of 128.9 yards per game in one of the nation's toughest-running conferences. Junior linebacker Brandon Archer was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection in 2005, an accolade which came a year after Cosh helped coach the newcomer to second-team honors in his first year as a starter.

In the five years prior to his trek to Manhattan, Kan., Cosh served under Lou Holtz as linebackers coach (1999-2002) and defensive coordinator (2003) at South Carolina.

In his tenure at USC, he helped produce some of the Southeastern Conference's top linebackers with Kalimba Edwards (two-time first team all-league, Butkus and Lombardi Awards finalist in 2001) among them. His resume as a position coach also includes tutoring ultimate New York Jets first-round pick and Pro Bowler John Abraham (1999) and freshman All-American Lance Laury (2002).

During his time in Columbia, S.C., the Gamecocks won back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history

In addition to serving under coaching legends Snyder and Holtz (who he also worked under as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech), Cosh was the defensive coordinator at Michigan State under former Miami Dolphins and current Alabama Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban, one of the top defensive minds in football. In his lone season (1998) in East Lansing, Mich., the Spartans upset No. 1 Ohio State and knocked off Notre Dame. Cosh's unit helped spark those wins with the 10th-ranked pass defense in the nation.

During his first tour of duty at Maryland, Cosh coached the linebackers while also heading up the team's recruiting efforts. In that one year with the Terps, linebackers Eric Barton and Kendal Ogle finished second and third, respectively, in the ACC in tackles.

The greatest testament to his skill as a coach of linebackers may have come in his previous job at Illinois (defensive coordinator from 1992-96) when he led Dana Howard (1994) and Kevin Hardy (1995) to consecutive Butkus Awards. Howard posted a Big Ten record in tackles in 1994.

He also oversaw a defense which saw DE Simeon Rice earn consensus All-America honors before being drafted by the Arizona Cardinals. Fellow LB John Holecek also went on to a career in the NFL.

A former linebacker who earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Virginia Tech in 1983, Cosh also got his start in coaching in Blacksburg, Va., where he was a student assistant during the 1983 season. He then made five different stops (Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Southeast Missouri State, UNLV and two tours at Minnesota) before settling in at Illinois. In all but one of those full-time jobs he worked either as defensive coordinator or linebackers coach.

Cosh and his wife, Mary, have two sons, J.J., who is in his second year at the United States Naval Academy, and Billy, a sophomore in high school. Cosh is a native of Washington, D.C., and graduated from Bishop McNamara High School in Forestville, Md. He was chosen Metro Defensive Player of the Year while serving as captain at Bishop McNamara before moving onto Virginia Tech where he led the Hokies in tackles in 1980.

Tom Brattan

Offensive Line

Delaware '72 • Eighth Year at Maryland

After coaching in the Big Ten and Pac-10, Tom Brattan has found a home with Maryland in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The veteran coach is in his eighth season as the Terps' offensive line coach. He boasts more than 35 years of coaching experience, including 26 at the collegiate level.

The Maryland offensive line has been one of the team's strengths since 2001, producing six first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference performers and a handful of other players honored by both the league and national media.

Last season, Andrew Crummey was tabbed a second-team All-American, while Scott Burley earned all-conference honors.

Over the last two seasons, Brattan's offensive line opened holes for two of the top backs in school history. Lance Ball completed his career last fall ranked fourth in school history in rushing yards and Keon Lattimore ended his tenure No. 14 on the career rushing list.

In 2006, two of Brattan's pupils earned accolades, as Crummey and Stephon Heyer were recognized as part of the All-ACC team. Heyer also earned a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team for his performance in the Champs Sports Bowl vs. All-American and 2007 first-round NFL Draft choice Anthony Spencer of Purdue.

The 2006 unit allowed Ball and Lattimore to each rush for over 700 yards and yielded just 19 sacks, the second-lowest total in the ACC.

One year before that Brattan's players were also recognized for their superb efforts. In 2005, he mentored a first-year player in Jared Gaither to third team freshman All-America honors. Brattan also oversaw a young line to a season that helped Ball earn second team All-ACC recognition at tailback, all despite losing its top player (Heyer) prior to the season. The season was reminiscent of the 2003 campaign when an injury-plagued unit still produced the nation's 24th-best rushing offense, allowed just 20 sacks and had a first team All-ACC performer in C.J. Brooks.

In previous seasons, the Terp line had similar success. In 2002, Brattan had four of five linemen earn All-ACC recognition while the team had the league's second-rated rushing attack (198.8 ypg) and scoring offense (32.2 ppg) while allowing 21 sacks in 14 games.

In his first year (2001), the Terps averaged 35.5 points per game, allowed just 18 sacks and paved the way for a 1,242-yard season from Doak Walker finalist Bruce Perry. In doing so, Melvin Fowler earned All-ACC recognition en route to being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round and Todd Wike earning a first team all-league nod.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Brattan spent two years (1999-00) at Stanford University, where he served as the Cardinal's line coach in charge of centers and guards. Stanford went 8-4 in 1999 and had wins over Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Notre Dame on the way to a Rose Bowl bid. The 1999 Stanford offense scored at least 31 points in all but three games and hit the 50-point plateau three times. That year, Brattan's offensive line allowed just 15 sacks despite 385 passing attempts (one sack for every 27 attempts).

Brattan took his first full-time job at the collegiate level at William & Mary in 1983 as an offensive backfield coach. After just one season, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and served the remainder of his tenure (1984-91) in that capacity. He also worked with the offensive line at William & Mary. In that time, the Tribe advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs on three occasions. From 1986 to 1990, William & Mary earned national rankings in three seasons (No. 9 in 1986; No. 13 in 1989; No. 7 in 1990). The success was largely a product of Brattan's offensive design as his unit ranked in the top 20 in offense in 1985 and 1986, while it had the top-rated attack in Division I-AA for the 1990 season and the sixth-best in '91.

Megan, Tom, Anne, Kristen and Kate Brattan

Brattan took his success at the I-AA level to his next job, Northwestern, where he resided from 1992-98 as offensive line coach. In Brattan's first three years at the school, the Wildcats continued to struggle, pushing their streak of seasons without a winning mark to 23.

Then in 1995, the Wildcats were in the national spotlight as they came seemingly out of nowhere to win the Big Ten championship for the first time in 47 years and advance to the Rose Bowl where they ultimately fell to Southern California. They finished that season -- despite the Rose Bowl loss -- ranked seventh in the nation with a 10-2 record. Brattan's offensive line allowed just eight sacks all year while helping propel Darnell Autry to a new school rushing record. Northwestern finished fifth nationally in rushing.

The Wildcats went on to post a combined 15-1 conference record in 1995 and 1996, taking the Big Ten crown both years after having won just five league games in the previous three years. In 1996, they earned a bid to play Tennessee in the Citrus Bowl.

Brattan got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Delaware, in 1972. After one year in Newark, he took his first full-time coaching post at Highland Springs (Va.) High School as an offensive line coach. After three years (1973-75) at Highland Springs, he moved back to his home state and took his first head coaching job at McKean High School in 1977. He spent one year at McKean - the same high school that helped produce Maryland legend Randy White - before moving back to Virginia and taking over as the head coach at Lloyd C. Bird High School. After serving at Bird in 1978, he returned to Highland Springs -- this time as a head coach -- for his final four years (1979-82) at the prep level.

A native of Newark, Del., Brattan is a 1972 graduate of his hometown school where he earned his bachelor's degree in history and later earned his master's degree in education in 1977. He was a member of the Blue Hen football team and earned a varsity letter in 1971. He and his wife, Anne, have three children -- Kristen, Kate and Megan, a current Maryland student.

John Donovan

Running Backs

Johns Hopkins '97 • Eighth Year at Maryland

One of the more versatile members of the staff, John Donovan is in his eighth season at Maryland, including second as the running backs coach.

Donovan spent his first four years with the Terps as assistant recruiting coordinator before becoming running backs coach in 2005.

After spending two seasons overseeing the Terps' quarterbacks, Donovan returned to coaching the running backs last spring.

Donovan will look to mold a young, but talented group this year after the departure of Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore, two of the top running backs in school history.

Last season Donovan helped groom a new starting quarterback.

Jordan Steffy, who was the lone signal-caller on the squad to take snaps entering the year, opened as the starter before getting injured and giving way to Chris Turner.

Turner emerged as a viable option for the Terps, throwing for nearly 2,000 yards in eight starts and finishing third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing efficiency.

Donovan's first season mentoring the signal-callers was one of the more successful in recent years, as he helped Sam Hollenbach complete his career among the school's passing leaders. Hollenbach finished the season fourth on the school's career passing yards list. He threw for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2006 en route to All-ACC honors.

In his first season as Terps' running backs coach, his unit was lacking a returning starter and without the services of Josh Allen whose season had ended with a knee injury.

In the end, Donovan got strong performances from Mario Merrills and Lattimore, and ultimately found a viable starter in Ball, who ended up rushing for over 100 yards in four of the team's final seven games, earning second team All-ACC honors along the way.

Prior to taking over as running backs coach, Donovan's position in the recruiting department included maintaining and organizing the Terrapins' recruiting database, setting up all recruiting events (official and unofficial visits, game day visits, recruiting weekends, etc.) and serving as director of all Maryland football camps. In addition, he oversaw the group of graduate assistants employed by the team from 2001-04.

Donovan's current post is his first full-time coaching position at the Football Bowl Subdivision level (formerly Division I-A), but that is not to say that he lacks experience.

Prior to coming to College Park, he served as an offensive graduate assistant at Georgia Tech for three years, working directly with then-offensive coordinator Ralph Friedgen. In that time, he broke down all opponent game film, assisted with coaching quarterbacks (1998) and the offensive line (1999-2000) while helping Friedgen with game planning and practice preparation. During his tenure, Tech won an ACC Championship (1998) and had the nation's leading offense (1999), averaging over 200 yards passing and rushing while setting 59 school records in the process.

Notably, Donovan's first job as a position coach at the Division I-A level - though temporary -- came when Friedgen departed at the end of the 2000 season to become the Terrapins' head coach. Bill O'Brien was elevated to serve as the team's offensive coordinator for the 2000 Peach Bowl in Friedgen's absence and Donovan was called upon to serve as the Yellow Jackets' running backs coach for the game.

Prior to his arrival in Atlanta, Donovan worked as an assistant secondary coach at Villanova, helping the Wildcats to a 12-1 record in 1997 and a No. 1 ranking (Division I-AA) in the season's final six weeks. His responsibilities with the Wildcats included coaching the team's safeties, coordinating scout teams for the offense and special teams and breaking down game film for the defense.

A 1997 graduate of Johns Hopkins University, Donovan was a three-year starter for the Blue Jays. He was twice named an all-conference defensive back and recorded 12 career interceptions. While in school, he worked as a training camp intern for the Carolina Panthers. He later went on to earn his master's degree in economics from Georgia Tech.

A native of River Edge, N.J., Donovan married the former Stacey Spicer of Potomac, Md., in May, 2005. The couple has a 2-year-old son (John Patrick) and a baby girl (Cate), who was born in Dec., 2007.

Lee Hull

Wide Receivers

Holy Cross '88 • First Year at Maryland

Lee Hull is in his first season as wide receivers coach at Maryland, joining the staff in March.

Hull spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at Oregon State University.

The former professional football player coached running backs his first two seasons in Corvallis and wide receivers the last three. He coached three OSU All-Americans, including a pair of wideouts, and was a part of four bowl wins.

The 42-year-old had three receivers catch 30 or more passes last season, including Darrell Catchings, who was a freshman All-America along with fellow wideout James Rodgers.

In 2006, he coached Sammie Stroughter to All-America status in one of Oregon State's best seasons. The Beavers posted a 10-4 record, second-best in school history, including a win over Missouri in the Sun Bowl. That season, Stroughter led the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 10th in the country in receiving yards per game (92.4).

Stroughter was on the watch list for the 2007 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the top receiver in the nation.

In Hull's first season in charge of wide receivers, Mike Hass ended his stellar career as a first-team All-America selection and the winner of the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. Hass posted the third-highest receiving yards total (3,924) in league history. He is currently a member of the Chicago Bears.

A native of Vineland, N.J., Hull also coached current St. Louis Rams' running back and former OSU All-American Steven Jackson during the 2003 season. Jackson was a first-team All-Pac-10 and third-team All-America choice as a junior, his final season at OSU.

Prior to his five seasons at Oregon State, Hull spent five years (1998-2002) at his alma mater, the College of Holy Cross. He coached linebackers for one season at the Worcester, Mass., school before becoming wide receivers coach, as well as overseeing the kickoff coverage and kickodd return units. He also went on to become the passing game coordinator.

Hull was a standout wide receiver at Holy Cross from 1984-87, playing under former Maryland coach Mark Duffner his final two seasons. The Crusaders posted a 21-1 record his last two years and were ranked No. 1 in Division I-AA in 1987. Holy Cross also won the Colonial League title and the Lambert Cup that season. He was a preseason All-America choice entering his junior season.

He went on to play professionally with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL. Hull spent 1990-92 with Winnipeg where he was coached by Mike Riley in his first season.

Riley was the head coach at Oregon State during his five-year tenure. The Blue Bombers won the 1990 Grey Cup. He also played for Toronto in 1992.

Hull was also a free-agent signee of the New England Patriots in 1998.

Prior to joining Holy Cross, he coached at the prep level in Massachusetts for five years. He was offensive coordinator at South High School in Worcester for three years (1992-94) and the passing game coordinator at Auburn High School in 1995. He returned to South High in 1996 as head coach.

During his coaching career, Hull has participated in a number of internships. In 1999 her interned in the CFL. In 2000 and 2001 he took part in the NFL's Minority Internship Program. In addition, he attended the 2007 Minority Coaches Forum in Chandler, Ariz.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Holy Cross in 1988 and a master's in secondary education from Worcester State in 1995.

He had a stellar high school career as both a football player and track performer.

Hull lettered twice as a wide receiver for Vineland High School in New Jersey. He was selected All-Cape League, first-team All-South Jersey, first-team All-New Jersey Group-4, honorable mention all-state and the Vineland Student-Athlete of the Year. He was a long jumper and ran the 400 meters.

Hull and his wife, Stacey, have two sons, Alexander and Jordan, and one daughter, Laila.

Kevin Lempa

Secondary

Southern Connecticut State '74 • Second Year at Maryland

A veteran of the collegiate and professional ranks, Kevin Lempa is in his second season as the secondary coach with the Maryland Terrapins

In his first season in College Park, Lempa helped direct an impressive pass defense as the Terps yielded just 210.7 yards per game.

He used a talented group of veterans and newcomers, including Christian Varner, Isaiah Gardner, J.J. Justice, Kevin Barnes, Anthony Wiseman and Nolan Carroll, to help the Terps rank No. 33 nationally in pass defense.

Barnes and Gardner were among the league leaders in pass coverage. Those two cornerbacks each ranked tied for fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference in passes defended, while Barnes was tied for seventh in interceptions.

No matter what the combination of his defensive backfield, Lempa has over two decades grooming secondaries

Prior to coming to Maryland, Lempa spent four seasons (2003-06) as the secondary coach with Boston College, where he led one of the top units in both the Big East and ACC.

The Eagles were among the nation's best in picking off passes in 2006. BC's 21 interceptions were tied for third nationally, trailing only Western Michigan (24) and Wake Forest (22). They also had 17 interceptions in 2004 which led the Big East.

Two of his defensive backs - cornerback DeJuan Tribble and strong safety Ryan Glasper - were All-ACC performers in 2006.

Tribble's 0.54 interceptions per game in 2006 were tied for eighth nationally, helping BC rank 34th in total defense (310.9 yards per game) and 14th in scoring defense (15.7 points per game).

Prior to his second stint at BC (he was at the school as an assistant from 1981-90), Lempa was the defensive coordinator at the University of Hawai'i from 2000-02.

During Lempa's tenure, Hawai'i placed high nationally in several defensive categories. The 2001 team finished the year 9-3 and put four players on the All-Western Athletic Conference team. The 2002 team went 10-4 and played in the ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl.

Lempa spent three seasons (1997-99) in the NFL as a defensive assistant with the San Diego Chargers. San Diego had one of the better defenses in the NFL during that period and led the league in yards allowed (263.0 pg) in 1998.

Lempa is a 1974 graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, where he was a two-year starter at wide receiver.

Before serving on the Chargers' staff, he was the defensive coordinator at Dartmouth College (1991-96) where he coached three All-New England/ECAC defensive backs.

He also spent four years (1977-80) at the University of Maine with former BC coach Jack Bicknell before the two moved on to Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Lempa went to four bowl games during his first 10 years at BC, including the 1985 Cotton Bowl. Overall, he has coached in 10 bowl games, including each of the last five seasons (four with Boston College and one with Maryland).

The Eagles went to the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2005 Continental Tire Bowl and the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

Lempa has a master's degree from the University of Maine (1978). He and his wife Sara, have two grown children, Christopher and Tara.

Danny Pearman

Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends & H-Backs

Clemson '87 • First Year at Maryland

Danny Pearman is in his first season as the Maryland tight ends/special teams coach, joining the staff in January.

Pearman, who has coached in 15 bowl games, including two Division I-A national championship games, has experience as a player and coach in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Pearman spent the 2007 season at Duke University where he coached tight ends and oversaw special teams.

Last season, the Blue Devils improved in four of five special teams categories from 2006.

Duke ended 2007 ranked No. 26 nationally in kickoff return yardage defense, while Jabari Marshall was third in the ACC in kickoff returns (24.6 ypr).

Pearman coached defensive ends and assisted with special teams at the University of North Carolina in 2006. During that year, Connor Barth was a perfect 10-for-10 in field goal attempts, Brandon Tate was second in the ACC in punt returns and the Tar Heels' kickoff return yardage defense was 14th nationally.

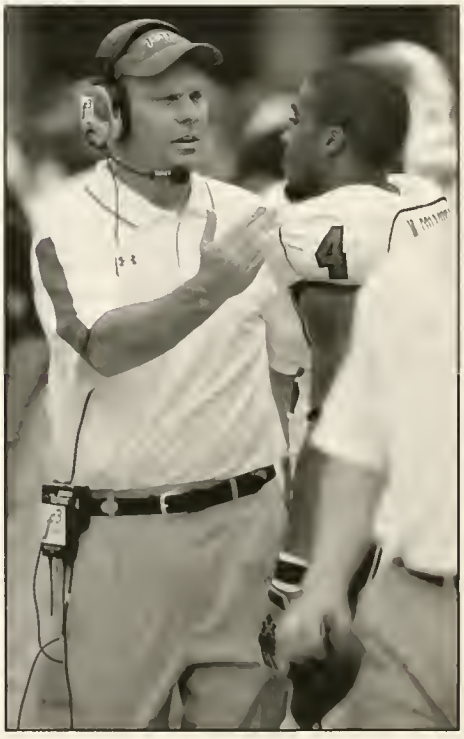
Prior to those two stops, he spent eight years (1998-2005) at Virginia Tech, serving as the Hokies' tight ends/ offensive tackles coach. He also assisted Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer with special teams. Beamer is renowned as one of the top special teams coaches in the nation.

Pearman helped lead the Hokies to eight consecutive bowl games and coached in the 1999 national championship game (Sugar Bowl) against Florida State. During Tech's march to the national title game, Pearman's tight ends caught 17 passes, 16 of which went for first downs.

In addition, Pearman mentored Jeff King, an All-ACC tight end who was a fifth-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2006 NFL Draft, as well as Bob Slowikowski, a tight end selected in the sixth round by the Dallas Cowboys in 2002.

Pearman, who played tight end at Clemson, also coached at the University of Alabama from 1990 through 1997, which included a national title in 1992 and five other bowl games appearances.

Tanner, Kristy, Trent, Danny and Taylor Pearman



After helping guide the Crimson Tide to a national championship victory over Miami, he contributed to Alabama winning Southeastern Conference Western Division titles the next four years.

Pearman was a graduate assistant at Alabama for two years, and then served as coach of the offensive tackles from 1991 to 1996. He coached the defensive tackles and special teams in 1997.

Pearman won three letters as a tight end at Clemson from 1983 through 1987. In his playing days, he was named a strength and conditioning All-American. He helped the Tigers win two ACC football championships.

Following graduation, Pearman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Tigers in 1988 and 1989. The Tigers won the ACC championship again in 1988 and went to bowl games in both of Pearman's seasons.

In all, Pearman has coached in 10 bowl game wins -- 1989 Gator, 1991 Blockbuster, 1993 Sugar, 1993 Gator, 1995 Citrus, 1996 Outback, 1998 Music City, 2001 Gator and 2003 San Francisco.

The native of Charlotte, N.C., has a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in business administration, both from Clemson.

Pearman and his wife, Kristy, have three children - a daughter, Taylor, and two sons, Tanner and Trent.

Al Seamonson

Outside Linebackers/Special Teams Assistant

Wisconsin '82 • Eighth Year at Maryland

Al Seamonson is in his eighth season as Maryland's outside linebackers coach, working with the strongside (Sam) backers and the LEOs (linebacker end option). He also assists with special teams.

Seamonson has prepared a number of defensive players for the NFL over the years, including All-Pro Shawne Merriman.

Last season, former walk-on Moise Fokou emerged as one of the team's top tacklers from his Sam linebacker position. The junior finished third on the team in stops and tied for the team lead in forced fumbles.

In 2006, Seamonson was responsible for a unit that was consistently among the defense's best tacklers. Among his pupils, Sam LB David Holloway ended the year third on the team in tackles and moved on to the NFL, playing with the Anzona Cardinals.

He has also groomed Trey Covington who has been a three-year starter at LEO, a hybrid defensive end/linebacker spot.

In 2005, Seamonson helped Holloway to a productive year (61 tackles, 4.5 TFLs, 3.0 sacks) from his "Sam" spot while working to replace one of the defense's top players of the year in Merriman.

Merriman was a first team All-ACC pick in 2004 and ended up second in the ACC in sacks and tackles for loss en route to being the 12th overall pick of the 2005 NFL Draft and eventually the league's Defensive Rookie of the Year. In addition, Holloway - a former walk-on - was one of the pleasant surprises of the season as he finished fifth on the team in tackles and tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries in his first year as a starter.

In 2003, Seamonson helped lead a defense that was again one of the top units in the nation in scoring (sixth) and total defense (15th). Merriman finished the season with the second-most sacks in the ACC. In 2002, he helped coach a Terp defense that ranked first in the ACC and seventh nationally in scoring, allowing just 16.3 points per game. In addition, the Maryland rushing and passing defense each ranked in the top three in the league while the team was second in the conference in sacks (37) and red-zone defense. Seamonson's outside linebackers were a source of both steady improvement and big plays while Merriman was named to The Sporting News' ACC All-Rookie team. All of this came on the heels of a team that had the nation's fourth-best turnover margin (+1.45 average) and the ACC's lowest scoring defense (19.1 points per game) in his first season on the job in 2001.

Seamonson boasts 25 years of collegiate coaching experience. Prior to coming to Maryland, he spent the 2000 season at Bowling Green State University -- where he worked under former Terp defensive coordinator Gary Blackney -- as the Falcons' special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. Seamonson helped the Falcons produce a defensive unit that ranked fourth in the MAC in rushing defense and total defense.

Seamonson's coaching tenure prior to BGSU was weighted heavily in military settings. From 1987-99, he coached at The Citadel, where he started as a wide receivers coach (1987) before serving the remainder of his tenure (1988-99) as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. At The Citadel, Seamonson coached under former Terp offensive coordinator Charlie Taaffe and worked alongside current defensive line coach Dave Sollazzo. He helped coach five linebackers to All-Southern Conference honors and one (J.J. Davis) to an appearance in the Senior Bowl. The highlight of his tenure was in 1992 when the Bulldogs led Division I-AA in scoring defense, yielding just 13.0 points per contest en route to a Southern Conference championship while advancing to the I-AA playoffs for the third time in five years.

Kristi, Kalvin, Karter, Kylen and Al Seamonson

The Citadel was not Seamonson's first taste of the military life, however, as he was a linebackers coach at the U.S. Military Academy (Army) in West Point, N.Y., for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In his first year at Army, the Cadets were one of the surprise teams in the country as they won the 1985 Peach Bowl, 31-29, over Illinois. It was one of just four times in the Academy's history that it had gone to a bowl game.

A 1982 graduate of Wisconsin and a two-year letterwinner at wide receiver, Seamonson got his start in coaching in Madison. In 1982, he served as a volunteer coach for Wisconsin's wide receivers. The next two years he was a graduate assistant working with the secondary.

A native of Stoughton, Wis., Seamonson was a wide receiver at Stoughton High School and was a captain for the all-state Shrine Team in 1977. He and his wife, Kristi, have three children: Kylen, Kalvin and Karter.

Dave Sollazzo

Defensive Line/Recruiting Coordinator

The Citadel '77 • 11th Year at Maryland

A veteran of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Dave Sollazzo is in his eighth year as defensive line coach and fourth season as recruiting coordinator at Maryland.

Sollazzo is his 11th season overall at the university. He was a volunteer defensive line coach for the Terps in 1986 and '87 as well as a graduate assistant in 1984. Over the last seven years, the defensive line has continued to be a strong suit for the Terps.

Sollazzo's work orchestrating the Terps' recruiting efforts have led to the signing of some outstanding student-athletes.

Over the last two seasons, the Terps have signed 31 student-athletes ranked among the 100 nationally at their positions, including nine All-Americans. In addtion, 31 of the 43 signees received all-state recognition during their careers.

Last year, the defensive line, led by Dre Moore steadily improved en route to the Terps fifth bowl appearance in the past seven seasons. Moore secured first-team All-ACC honors and went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bucaneers

In 2006, Moore anchored the line along with Conrad Bolston, who has since moved on to the NFL.

During the 2005 season, Maryland's defensive line was one somewhat in transition, but the unit again played well. Bolston had his best season, leading the team with five sacks, while Jeremy Navarre (25 tackles, 2 1/2 TFLs), a converted fullback, emerged as a true freshman. Navarre, a senior this season, is expected to be the anchor of a young defensive line.

In 2004, the Terrapin defense ranked 21st nationally, giving up an average of 315.3 yards per game. Though it had lost standout DT Randy Starks a year early (selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2004 NFL Draft), the defensive line still performed well, helping the team to top 25 rankings in three categories.

In 2003, the Terps were first in the league in total defense (15th nationally) and pass defense while finishing third in rushing defense. They recorded 35 sacks, just one fewer than league leader Florida State, and Starks became just the second Maryland tackle in 15 years to earn first team all-conference honors.

In 2002, Maryland finished second in the league in total defense while holding its opponents to 57 yards below their season rushing averages coming into their respective games with the Terrapins. In addition, the Terps finished atop the league and seventh nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.3 points per game. Individually, Starks earned second-team All-ACC honors in just his second season.

In his first year back at UM, Sollazzo took a group that entered the season as a concern in terms of talent and depth, and turned it into a rock-solid unit that helped anchor one of the top defenses in the ACC as the team led the league in rushing and scoring defense. Under his tutelage, nose tackle Charles Hill became an honorable mention All-ACC pick and, ultimately, a third-round choice of the Houston Texans in the 2002 NFL Draft.

Dave, Christopher and Ellen Sollazzo

Prior to his current stint at Maryland, Sollazzo spent two seasons (1999-00) at Georgia Tech as a defensive tackles coach helping the Yellow Jackets reach bowl games each year (1999 Gator Bowl / 2000 Peach Bowl).

Before joining the Yellow Jackets, Sollazzo was the defensive line coach at The Citadel from 1989-98. The Citadel was another homecoming for Sollazzo, as he had lettered for the Bulldogs for three years on the defensive line from 1974-76. In that time, he started 33 consecutive games under former Maryland coach Bobby Ross. His position coach was Ralph Friedgen.

As a coach at The Citadel, Sollazzo helped Brad Keeney achieve All-America honors and Southern Conference-leading totals in sacks and tackles for loss in 1995.

In addition, he coached nine other defensive linemen to all-conference honors while with the Bulldogs. The highlight of his coaching career in Charleston, S.C., however, may have been his involvement in helping The Citadel to the 1992 Southern Conference championship and a No. 1 ranking at the end of the regular season. That squad led the nation in points allowed (13 ppg) and finished sixth in pass efficiency defense. In 1997, he was a part of an impressive defensive effort in which the Bulldogs finished their season by not allowing a touchdown over the final 13 quarters.

Along with his ties to Maryland and The Citadel, Sollazzo has an extensive history in prep coaching. With the exception of the Maryland job in 1984 (a season that saw the Terps win the ACC and earn a berth in the Sun Bowl), Sollazzo was a high school defensive coordinator in South Carolina from 1978-85.

Sollazzo was born in the same hometown as Friedgen, Harrison, N.Y., on Christmas Eve, 1955, and earned his degree from The Citadel in 1977. He and his wife, Ellen, have a 4-year-old son, Christopher.

Dwight Galt

Director Of Strength & Conditioning

Maryland '81 • 21st Year at Maryland

Dwight Galt is in his 21st year at Maryland, including 15th year as the school's director of strength and conditioning. His responsibilities include managing the department's three weight-training facilities, and coordinating strength and conditioning programs for the Terps' 27 varsity sports, with special emphasis on football.

In addition to earning his bachelor's degree in business management in 1981 and his master's degree in exercise physiology in 1989 from Maryland, Galt is Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) certified with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association and is currently one of just 69 coaches to earn this distinction.

Galt began his career at Maryland in 1984 as an intern strength coach. He assisted with the training of the 1984 and 1985 ACC Champion football teams.

In 1989, he became a full-time assistant strength coach, and for the next three years worked with all of Maryland's intercollegiate sports programs. In 1992, Galt became the assistant strength coach for football and he is now in his 16th year of providing complete athletic development training to Terp football team members.

Galt, 50, and his wife Jan are natives of Silver Spring, Md., and have four children: Angie, Teri, Dwight IV (Deege) and Tommy.

Deege and Tommy are both members of the football team.

Jemal Griffin

Director Of Football Operations

Coppin State '96 • Third Year at Maryland

Jemal Griffin is in his third season with the Maryland football program, including first as the director of football operations.

Griffin's responsibilities include organizing all aspects of team travel, team housing and special events.

He served as assistant recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons when the Terps landed a pair of classes which were highlighted by 31 student-athletes ranked among the top 100 nationally at their positions, including nine All-Americans.

Griffin was charged with the maintenance of the recruiting database and mailings, organizing recruit visits and special events, as well as academic and compliance issues for prospective student-athletes.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Griffin spent seven years as a member of the staff at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore. He started as defensive backs coach in 1999, a year later he was named assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, where he was tasked with all aspects of the Warriors' offense and recruiting. While there, Griffin coached two high school All-Americans, as well as many of all-state and All-Metro players. His teams earned a 45-27 record during his tenure, including two Baltimore County 3A-4A championships and two Maryland 4A North championships.

A native of Baltimore, Griffin played baseball and football at Northwestern High School and as a senior was named to the Baltimore Sun's All-Metro team after finishing 10th in the area in passing. He earned his degree in management science from Coppin State University in 1996, where he was a four year starter on the Eagles baseball team as a shortstop, and was named to the MEAC's All-Tournament team as a senior. He and his wife Carla have two boys, Brandon, 12, and Joshua. 1

Ryan Steinberg

Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Maryland '07 • Second Year at Maryland

Ryan Steinberg is in his second season with Maryland, including first as the assistant recruiting coordinator.

Steinberg maintains the recruiting database and is in charge of mailings. He also organizes recruit visits and special events, as well as assisting in academic and compliance issues for prospective student-athletes.

He spent the 2007 season as an intern on the Maryland staff. Steinberg was also an assistant camp director in 2008.

Prior to becoming a full-time member of the staff, Steinberg spent five seasons as a student assistant in the Maryland football office.

He served as the Gridiron Technology specialist from January 2006 through May 2007, helping implement and maintain the state-of-the-art computer program which aids the coaches and players in simulating game action.

Steinberg also spent the 2002 through 2006 football seasons as a student equipment manager, including the final three as the head student manager.

He also worked at the Terrapin Technique School each summer as a student.

A native of North Potomac, Md., Steinberg graduated from Maryland in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in family studies. He also minored in sports commerce and culture.

Ron Ohringer

Head Equipment Manager
Maryland, '85
21th Year

Ron Ohringer is in his 21st year as the Terrapins' head equipment manager.

Ohringer oversees the ordering, inventory, maintenance and distribution of all athletic equipment for the university's 27 intercollegiate sports programs. While managing the overall equipment operation for the entire department, Ohringer primarily serves as the football equipment manager on a day-to-day basis.

A native of nearby Washington, D.C., Ohringer graduated from Maryland with a bachelor's degree in journalism and public relations in 1985. While a student in College Park, he served the football team as a manager and was the team's head student manager for his final three years.

Following graduation, Ohringer utilized his degree by serving as an assistant with both the NFL's Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles. He also worked with the Washington Commandos of the Arena Football League and the former Alexandria Dukes baseball team in the Carolina League.

Ohringer and his wife Amy reside in Laurel, Md., and have two children: Casey (11) and Derek (7).

Kevin Glover

Director of Character Education
Maryland, '84
Fifth Year

A name familiar to Terp and NFL fans, Kevin Glover is in his fifth season with the Terrapins as the school's first-ever director of character education.

As it relates to the Maryland football program, Glover serves as a liaison between the team and the National Football League, taking care of all dealings regarding scouts and agents.

Glover also works with the university's other varsity sports programs, helping provide developmental programs and appropriate speakers on topics of interest to each team and their growth, collectively and individually.

A first-team All-American at Maryland in 1984 and a member of the school's Athletics Hall of Fame, Glover was a second-round selection by the Detroit Lions in the 1985 NFL Draft. He anchored a line that helped Barry Sanders to 2,053 yards in 1997 and ultimately earned three trips to the Pro Bowl. He was his team's NFL Player Association Representative for six seasons and was elected to serve on that organization's executive committee for two years.

An active speaker in local youth and church organizations, Glover and his wife, Cestaine, reside in Columbia, Md., and have three children: Maya, Matthew and Zaria.

Jonah Bassett

Football Video Director
Catawba College, '99
Fifth Year

Jonah Bassett is in his fifth year as the Terrapins' football video director. His duties entail working with his staff to videotape all Maryland practices, scrimmages and games and then use the team's state-of-the-art XOS Sports Pro video equipment to edit and break down the footage to best serve the needs of the coaches and players.

Bassett came to Maryland after spending four years with the Atlanta Falcons, serving in the capacity of assistant video director and intern along the way.

His experience includes stints with the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe (2000), Catawba College (1993-99), the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe (1999) and the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League (1999). He worked with former Terrapin offensive coordinator Charlie Taaffe while in Montreal.

A native of Rutland, Vt., Bassett is a 1999 graduate of Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C. Bassett and his wife, Donna, have a 3-year-old son, Jonah Jr.

Kyle Schmitt

Graduate Assistant
Maryland, '04
Second Year

Kyle Schmitt is in his second season as a graduate assistant with Maryland.

The former Terrapin offensive lineman spent the 2006 season as the tight ends coach at St. Vincent College.

Schmitt played in 48 games in his Maryland career (2001-04), including 27 starts at center and guard. He signed with the Minnesota Vikings after the 2005 NFL Draft and spent the preseason with the team.

In 2006 Schmitt played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe, starting six games. He also spent time with the Amsterdam Admirals and the Berlin Thunder.

He signed with the Arizona Cardinals in January 2006 and spent training camp with the team.

Schmitt graduated in 2005 with a bachelor of arts degree in history. His brother, Andrew, is a long-snapper with the Terps.

Schmitt and his wife, Haley, were married last summer.

Brian White

Graduate Assistant
Juniata College, '04
Third Year

Brian White is in his third season as a graduate assistant with the Maryland football program.

White has worked with the Terps scout teams over the last two seasons. In 2006, as a member of the offensive coaching staff, White worked primarily with the offensive line. He also spent time in the working with the running backs.

Prior to Maryland, White spent two seasons at Hargrave Military Academy, serving as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. At Hargrave, he was responsible for all offensive line practice organization, position evaluation and adjustments. White also recruited the East Coast and organized an annual college showcase combine, which attracted over 300 coaches.

A native of Oakland, N.J., White is a 2004 graduate of Juniata College, where he was a center, earning a bachelor's of arts degree in history.

Delbert Cowsette

Intern
Maryland '09
First Year

Delbert Cowsette is in his first season as an intern with the Terps.

Cowsette, a former Maryland standout at defensive tackle, spent the last four seasons playing in the Arena Football League following a six-year stint in the National Football League.

Cowsette was a two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection with the Terps and the most valuable player of the defense for the 1999 season, a season where he also served as a team captain.

Following his illustrious Maryland career, Cowsette was selected by the Washington Redskins in the 2000 NFL Draft. After three full seasons with the Redskins, Cowsette also spent time with the Chicago Bears, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, New York Giants and Indianapolis Colts.

Cowsette worked at Maryland in 2007 as an assistant strength coach. Cowsette gained coaching experience in 2004, coaching the defensive linemen at Potomac High School in Sterling, Va.

An Ashburn, Va. native, Cowsette graduated from Maryland in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science degree in geography.

Wes Robinson

Head Athletic Trainer
Morehead State '95
Second Year

Wes Robinson is in his second year as the Terrapins' head football athletic trainer.

Robinson provides athletic training coverage of practice and games to all of Maryland's football student-athletes. Robinson also oversees assistant athletic trainers in their roles with the football program.

Robinson came to Maryland after seven years at Purdue University, where he was an assistant athletic trainer with the Boilermakers' football program and the head trainer for wrestling. Robinson also worked with the baseball team during his tenure.

Prior to Purdue, Robinson spent two years as a physical therapist and athletic trainer at the St. Elizabeth Sports Medicine Center. Robinson got his first job in football athletic training at the University of Kentucky, where he served as a graduate assistant from 1996-98.

Robinson holds two bachelor's degrees, receiving a bachelor of arts in physical education/exercise science from Morehead State University in 1995 and a bachelor of science in health sciences from the University of Kentucky in 1996. Robinson also earned a masters of science in physical therapy from Kentucky in 1998.

Robinson currently resides in Laurel, Md., with his wife, Katy

Heather Arianna

Associate Director of ASCDU
Syracuse, '92
13th Year

Heather Arianna is in her 13th year at the University of Maryland. Arianna serves as the associate director of the academic support/career development unit (ASCDU), working specifically with the Terrapin football student-athletes.

Her current responsibilities include monitoring eligibility and coordinating all of the academic support services for the football student-athletes, teaching UNIV 100 (a freshmen orientation course) and managing the ASCDU satellite facility located in the Gossett Football Team House.

Arianna has worked in the academic support units at Syracuse and Louisville, as well as serving as an academic assistant at Florida State, before coming to Maryland in 1995.

Before taking over coordination of the academic program for the Terrapins in 1997, she worked with men's and women's soccer, women's lacrosse, field hockey, wrestling, women's swimming and men's golf.

Ananna earned her bachelor's degree from Syracuse University in 1992 and a master's degree in education and college student personnel services from the University of Louisville in 1994.

Arianna and her husband, Vinnie, have two daughters, Manssa and Samantha.

Walt Holliday

Assistant Director of ASCDU
Upsala College, '92
Third Year

Holliday has been working for 12 years in the area of student-athlete development at the Division I level.

Holliday is in his third year as the assistant director of academic support for student-athletes at Maryland where he works with the football team on a daily basis to ensure both their academic and personal development.

Prior to Maryland, Holliday worked for six years at Rutgers University as a senior advisor for men's basketball. He also spent five years at Temple University as an assistant athletics director for academic support.

A 1992 graduate of Upsala College with a bachelor's of arts in communications, Holliday continues to be very active in the National Association for Athletic Advisors (N4A) where he is currently the co-chairperson for the student-athlete recognition committee. Prior to that he served on the N4A executive board from 2000-02 as a Region One representative and has presented at three national conventions.

Holliday was a four-year starter on the Updala football team where he was voted captain and named the team's most valuable lineman as a senior.

Shawn Nestor

Football SID
Babson College, '89
Second Year

Shawn Nestor is in second year as the associate media relations director at Maryland. He is the Terrapins' primary media contact for the football program, having come to College Park in November 2006. He also oversees the media relations activities for men's and women's tennis and water polo.

Nestor came to Maryland after four-and-one-half years as the media relations director at the University of Akron, including the final two as an assistant athletics director. He served as the primary media contact for football and track and field, and oversaw the daily operation of the office.

Before arriving in Akron, he spent two seasons as the assistant sports information director at Kansas State where he served as the contact for men's basketball and assisted in the publicity efforts in football.

Prior to K-State, Nestor spent two years as a media relations assistant at the University of Texas. There he assisted in the day-to-day media operations for football and served as the contact for men's track and field. He also spent a year as a student assistant in the UT media relations office, while working towards a graduate degree in sports management.

Prior to his stint at Texas, he worked for six years at Bank of Boston.

A native of Everett, Mass., Nestor received a bachlelor's of science in finance from Babson College (Mass.) in 1989.

Dahlia Levin

Director of Intensive Learning Program for Football
Maryland, '99
Seventh Year

Dahlia Levin, director of the Intensive Learning Program (ILP) for football, is in her seventh year at the University of Maryland. She joined the ASCDU program on a full-time basis in 2000 after serving as an assistant, mentor and class checker for three years. Her areas of responsibility include assessing the learning needs of the football student-athletes and creating an individual learning profile for each one. She also teaches EDCP108K, a course designed to help students with the transition to the University of Maryland. The ILP program provides structured directed study time for students using specific learning strategies.

Levin serves as a liaison to DSS for football student-athletes who may require additional classroom support or accommodations. In addition, Levin provides recommendations to the academic counselors and coaches regarding specific learning strategies and issues to help lead to the students overall success.

Levin graduated in 1999 from Maryland with a degree in sociology and did her master's work at Maryland as well in education and jewish Studies. She also volunteers with the Big Brothers Big Sisters program and is a faculty representative on the honor council for the University.

2008 OUTLOOK

THIS IS

Despite coming off their fifth bowl appearance in the previous seven seasons, the Maryland Terrapins are hungry to improve upon last year's finish.

The 2007 campaign began with promise as the Terps returned a number of key contributors from a 9-4 team which dominated its bowl game.

The Terps won their first two games last season, and despite a home loss to No. 4 West Virginia and a heartbreaking conference-opening loss to Wake Forest, were in position to compete for an ACC title after wins over No. 10 Rutgers and Georgia Tech.

However, injuries began to mount midway through the season and the Terps could not fully recover. In all, 17 members of the two-deep missed at least one game, including three along the offensive line.

But despite all the injuries, which led to four league losses by a touchdown or less, Maryland still went on post a win over No. 8 Boston College and shut out NC State in the regular-season finale to earn a berth in the Emerald Bowl, the second straight postseason appearance for the Terps.

Head coach Ralph Friedgen is hopeful that last year's hard luck will turn to good fortune in 2008.

"The injuries impacted us, but a lot of guys got on the field who may not have last season," Friedgen said. "Hopefully, that adversity will help us this year. I think we have a chance to have a very good team."

The Terps return a mostly veteran squad in 2008 with 46 letterwinners, including 14 offensive and defensive starters, back in the fold.

Among the letterwinners are 20 players who have started at least one game in their careers.

That group will look to return the Terps to the upper echelon of the Atlantic Coast Conference, a process that began shortly after the Emerald Bowl with winter workouts and spring practice.

Friedgen was pleased with how the team performed during the spring, feeling it was a productive five weeks.

"I think we had a good spring, we got a lot accomplished," Friedgen said. "A lot of players got reps. I saw a lot of kids develop. It was a learning experience. We were learning a new offense and we had some changes on special teams.

"We were able to get a good evaluation of a lot of the younger kids. We had 107 players in spring practice. We gave the younger kids a lot of opportunity to show themselves and we're pleased with where they are. But when we get back into fall camp, we'll narrow that down and work mostly the first and second teams to get ready for the season."

Even before the team began its off-season program, there were some changes in the program.

Friedgen surrendered his dual role of head coach and offensive coordinator, which he served the last two seasons.

He also hired three new staff members, including tight ends coach/special teams coordinator Danny Pearman, wide receivers coach Lee Hull and offensive coordinator/assistant head coach James Franklin, who was on staff during Friedgen's first four seasons in College Park.

"I think having a new offensive coordinator and new special teams coach have really added a new excitement to our program," Friedgen said. "I like our staff. They relate to the kids well and I think the kids are having more fun.

"I also think our team morale is very good and that translated into good practices this spring."

Though the Terps will now employ more of a west-coast based offense, much of what Franklin has learned offensively comes from Friedgen's influence. Franklin was also the offensive coordinator at Kansas State the last two years after spending one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"One of the reasons I was interested in James was the knowledge he had about what we did in the past," Friedgen said.

While the offensive philosophy has altered some, there shouldn't be wholesale changes to a unit which returns 23 letterwinners, including nine starters, the most in Friedgen's seven seasons.

The Terps will have four of their five starting offensive linemen back, as well as starting QB Chris Turner and all of the receiving corps, headlined by 2007 All-America choice Darrius Heyward-Bey.

Now after working through the off-season program, Friedgen is convinced the changes have been a plus.

"I'm pleased with where we are offensively," Friedgen said. "There are still some things we need to improve on, but I like how we're calling things. James is organized and he brings a lot of enthusiasm to the offense."

The defense will have to replace six starters, including first-team All-ACC performers Dre Moore and Erin Henderson, and three members of the secondary. The defense also worked through some changes in the off-season, but those were due mostly to injuries.

With a number of players having off-season surgery and missing spring practice, third-year coordinator Chris Cosh had to shuffle the lineup.

Linebackers Dave Philistin, Moise Fokou and Rick Costa joined DL Mack Frost on the sidelines. But all are expected to be healthy and ready for fall camp.

Seniors Jeremy Navarre and Trey Covington look like the leaders up front.

According to Friedgen, they each played extremely well in the spring. They are two of the most experienced players on the team, having each started more than 30 career games.

Navarre spent the last three seasons at end, but moved inside to tackle in the spring. Covington returns for his fourth season as the starter at LEO.

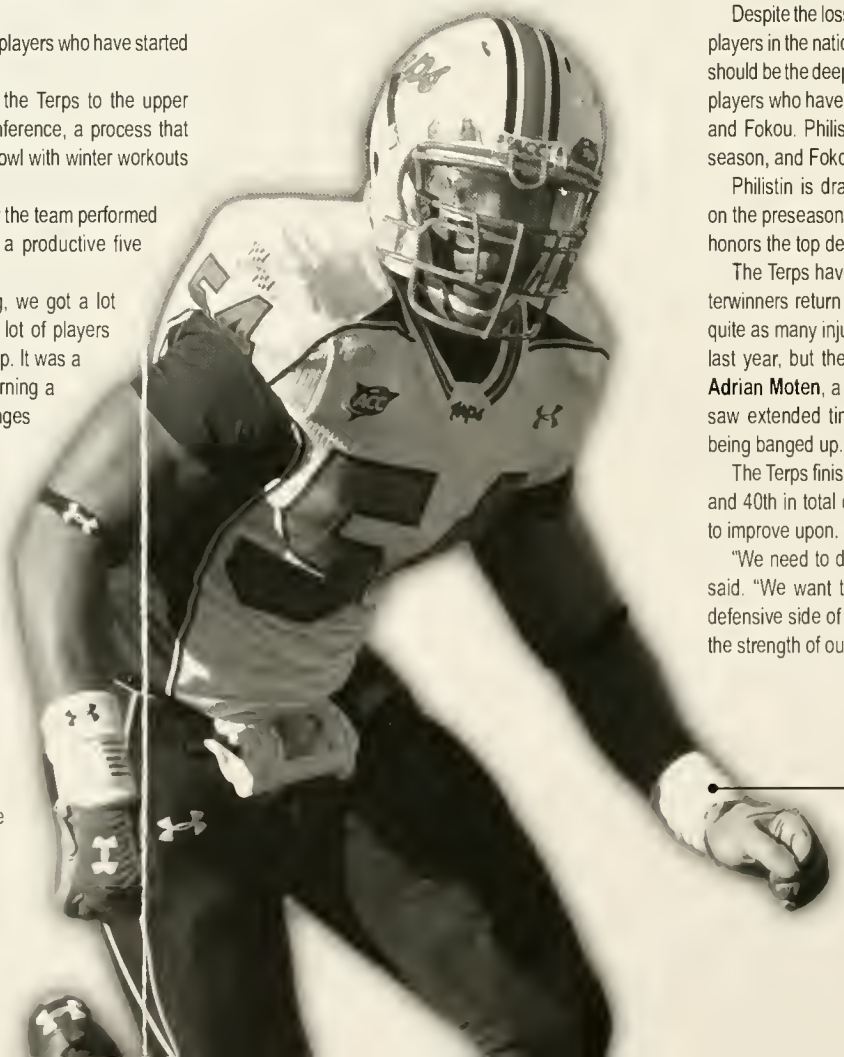
Despite the loss of Henderson, one of the most productive players in the nation the last two seasons, the linebacker unit should be the deepest group on the defense with a number of players who have seen significant action, including Philistin and Fokou. Philistin was fourth in the ACC in tackles last season, and Fokou was third on the team in stops.

Philistin is drawing national attention. He was placed on the preseason watch list for the Nagurski Trophy, which honors the top defender in the country.

The Terps have some experience on defense as 20 letterwinners return from last season's squad. There weren't quite as many injures on defense as there were on offense last year, but there were a number of players, including Adrian Moten, a 2007 Freshman All-America choice, who saw extended time in a reserve role due to teammates being banged up.

The Terps finished 24th in the country in scoring defense and 40th in total defense last season, but there are areas to improve upon.

"We need to do a better job against the run," Friedgen said. "We want to try and become more flexible on the defensive side of the ball and keep finding ways to play to the strength of our players."



Adrian Moten was a 2007 Freshman All-American and is expected to play a key role for the Terps' defense in 2008.

Senior cornerback Kevin Barnes is the lone returning starter on the back end of the defense. He was among the ACC's best last season in passes defended.

While most of the regulars are back on special teams, they'll have a new coach in Pearman, whose pedigree includes an eight-year stint on Frank Beamer's Virginia Tech staff. Beamer is well known nationally for his special teams success.

Senior Obi Egekeze and sophomore punter Travis Baltz formed a good tandem last season as first-year starters and should only improve this fall.

All the staff changes have allowed Friedgen to become more involved off the field.

"This has allowed me to get more involved with the players and to make sure I'm spending as much time as possible motivating them," Friedgen said. "I didn't have as much time for that the last two years."

Team Notes:

- The Terps are scheduled to have a veteran team this fall with 31 seniors on the roster, including 21 who are on scholarship. Last season, Maryland had just 15 seniors on its roster. Fourteen members of last year's senior class have already graduated.
- The Terps are scheduled to face eight teams this year which reached the postseason in 2007. ACC foes Clemson, Virginia, Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Florida State and Boston College played in bowl games, while Delaware reached the 2008 Football Championship Subdivision title game. In addition, California, which reached as high as No. 2 in the 2007 national polls, also played in a bowl and visits College Park for the first time.
- Three of the top eight crowds in Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium history occurred last season: 53,107 vs. West Virginia (No. 5), 52,827 vs. Boston College (No. 7) and 52,782 vs. Virginia (No. 8). In all, 20 of the top 25 crowds in the history of Byrd Stadium have come in Ralph Friedgen's seven seasons.
- Maryland's league road schedule may be the toughest in the ACC. The Terps' four road games (Boston College, Clemson, Virginia Tech and Virginia) come against the top two finishers from each division last year.
- The Terps' nine returners on offense are the most since 1999 when Maryland had 10.
- Nearly half the 46 returning letterwinners have started at least one game in their career. In all, 20 Terps have started at least one contest. DL Jeremy Navarre has started a team-high 35 games. C Edwin Williams has the most starts among offensive players with 26.
- Members of the 2008 Terrapin Council, the team's leadership group, include seniors Kevin Barnes, Scott Burley, Dan Gronkowski, and Edwin Williams; juniors Darrius Heyward-Bey, Cory Jackson and Chris Turner; sophomores Adrian Moten, Da'Rel Scott, and Alex Wujciak, along with freshman Torrey Smith.
- Maryland has not had a punt blocked in the last 98 games (third game of the 1999 season), the longest streak in the nation.

Offense

Quarterback

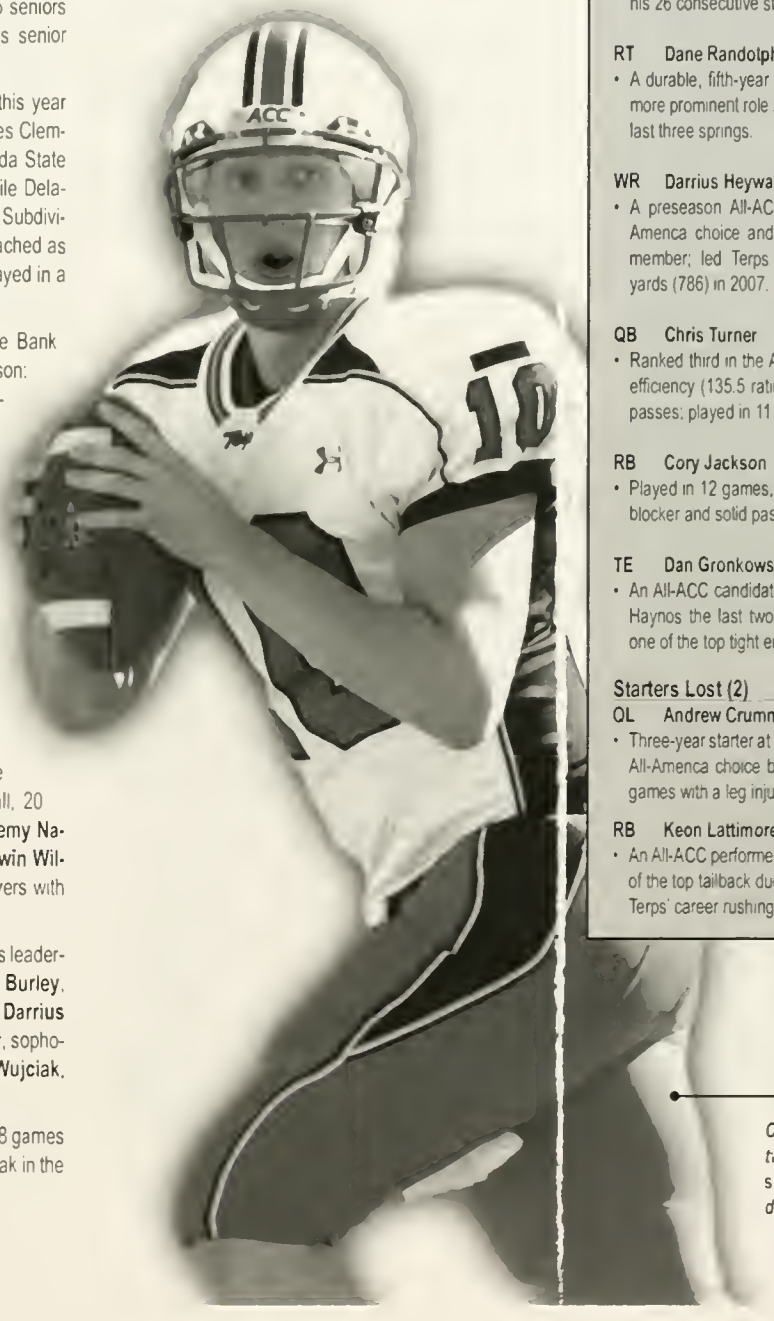
Entering last year, the Terps had limited experience at quarterback, as no one on the roster had started a collegiate game.

The situation has changed considerably with both junior Chris Turner and senior Jordan Steffy serving as the starter last season.

Quarterbacks

10	Chris Turner	QB	6-4	210	Jr.	1V
11	Jamarr Robinson	QB	6-0	190	Fr.	RS
12	Josh Portis	QB	6-4	210	Jr.	SQ
16	Tyler Bass	QB	6-3	220	Fr.	HS
19	Jordan Steffy	QB	6-1	209	Sr.	3V

Turner enters the fall as the No. 1 quarterback after posting nearly 2,000 passing yards and the third-best passing efficiency rating in the ACC in 2007.



Chris Turner led Maryland to two wins over Top 10 teams last season and enters 2008 atop the depth chart.

Offensive Starters Returning/Lost...

Starters Returning (9)

WR Isaiah Williams — Sr.-3V — 6-3, 200
- Started all 13 games in 2007; second on the team in receiving yards (395).

LT Scott Burley — Sr.-3V — 6-5, 335
- A preseason All-ACC selection; started 12 of 13 games in 2007; second team All-ACC pick by Rivals.com as a junior.

LG Jaimie Thomas — Sr.-3V — 6-4, 330
- A preseason All-ACC choice; has played in 32 career games, including 11 starts, all at left guard, earned Iron Terp status for the first time in his career in Spring 2007; should vie for All-ACC honors this season.

C Edwin Williams — Sr.-3V — 6-2, 315
- A preseason All-ACC selection; a fifth-year senior who has established himself as a leader on the offensive line; his 26 consecutive starts are tops on the offense.

RT Dane Randolph — Sr.-3V — 6-5, 300
- A durable, fifth-year offensive lineman who assumed a more prominent role in 2007; earned Iron Terp status the last three springs.

WR Darrius Heyward-Bey — Jr.-2V — 6-3, 206
- A preseason All-ACC choice; honorable mention All-America choice and 2007 Biletnikoff Award watch list member; led Terps in receptions (51) and receiving yards (786) in 2007.

QB Chris Turner — Jr.-1V — 6-4, 210
- Ranked third in the ACC and 36th nationally in passing efficiency (135.5 rating); completed 63.5 percent of his passes; played in 11 games in the 2007 season.

RB Cory Jackson — Jr.-2V — 6-1, 245
- Played in 12 games, starting eight at fullback; excellent blocker and solid pass-catcher.

TE Dan Gronkowski — Sr.-2V — 6-6, 255
- An All-ACC candidate; shared starting duties with Joey Haynos the last two seasons; expected to emerge as one of the top tight ends in the ACC in 2008.

Starters Lost (2)

OL Andrew Crummey — Sr.-3V — 6-5, 301
- Three-year starter at right guard who was a second team All-America choice by The Sporting News; missed five games with a leg injury.

RB Keon Lattimore — Sr.-4V — 5-11, 223
- An All-ACC performer who joined Lance Ball to form one of the top tailback duos in the country; ranks 14th on the Terps' career rushing list (1,744).

Turner is holding a slight lead on the quarterback job heading into the fall. He held off a challenge from Steffy and junior Josh Portis during spring practice.

Steffy heads into the fall No. 2 on the depth chart, followed by Portis.

Friedgen is hoping the experience factor translates into increased production under center.

"Turner and Steffy have played a lot of football and we've won with both of them," Friedgen said. "Even though Portis has the least experience, he has also played in a college game."

Friedgen is looking for one of the quarterbacks to grab the starting job during the preseason.

"They're not totally there understanding the new offense, Friedgen said. "I'm hoping they'll get it down this summer and someone will separate themselves in the preseason."

Turner was solid in most of his outings last season.

The junior replaced an injured Steffy in the Rutgers game, led the team to a victory over the 10th-ranked team in the country and went on to start the final eight games of the season.

Steffy started the first five contests last season and was sixth in the league in passing efficiency when he went down with a concussion against the Scarlet Knights.

It was a tough blow for the fifth-year player, who battled knee and shoulder woes earlier in his career.

"Jordan's as healthy now as he's been," Friedgen said.

Each of the quarterbacks brings a different element to the field.

"Jordan is mobile, while Chris is more of a pocket passer, but he'll scramble and make 10 yards." Friedgen said.

Portis missed the last two seasons, but he's likely to push for time in the preseason.

He transferred from Florida in 2005 and sat out 2006 due to NCAA transfer rules. Portis was ruled ineligible prior to the last year's opener and missed the whole season, though he did practice with the team.

"Josh is hungry right now after being off for two years," said Franklin. "He's got freakish physical skills but needs to continue his development as a quarterback."

The Terps are also looking to build for the future.

Redshirt freshman Jamarr Robinson is the only other quarterback on the roster who has been in the system.

He is fourth on the depth chart entering the season, but served as either the No. 2 or 3 quarterback last year.

"I've been pleasantly surprised with him," Franklin said. "He's done well in the off-season."

Freshman Tyler Bass will join this foursome in the fall. Bass is a dual-threat quarterback from Atlanta, Ga. He was a two-year starter and ranked among the top athletes in the nation as a senior in high school.

Running Back

The loss of two of the top running backs in school history is somewhat of a concern, but the Terps appear to be in good shape.

Running Backs

5	Morgan Green	RB	5-11	215	So.	SQ
16	Rashad Henry	RB	5-9	185	Sr.	SQ
23	Da'Rel Scott	RB	5-11	192	So.	1V
30	Haroon Brown	RB	5-10	257	So.	1V
35	Paul Lariviere	RB	6-0	245	Fr.	RS
36	Taylor Watson	RB	6-2	235	Fr.	RS
38	Cory Jackson	RB	6-1	245	Jr.	2V
41	Davin Meggett	RB	5-8	210	Fr.	HS
46	Steve Pfister	RB	6-2	234	Jr.	1V
49	Gary Douglas	RB	5-11	179	Fr.	HS
82	Dan Bonato	RB	5-8	182	So.	SQ

Maryland will once again feature a formidable 1-2 punch at tailback with sophomores Da'Rel Scott (left) and Morgan Green (right) handling the primary ball-carrying duties.

Sophomores Da'Rel Scott and Morgan Green showed this spring why they were both highly recruited coming out of high school. Scott continued to display his breakaway ability, while Green ran well both between and outside the tackles.

Green and Scott will attempt to duplicate the exploits of Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore, who were staples in the backfield the last few seasons.

Ball finished his career No. 4 on the Maryland career rushing list, while Lattimore was 14th on that list.

Scott and Green, who battled for the No. 3 tailback spot last season, do lack experience, but they hope to make up for that in talent. Scott was No. 1 for most of the spring, though Green enters the fall atop the depth chart.

Regardless, of who is No. 1, they are both expected to play extensively.

"Da'Rel and Morgan each had really good springs and we're expecting them to play well this season," Friedgen said.

Overall, returning players account for just 15 percent of last season's rushing yards. Scott and Green combined to carry the ball just 17 times. Scott did show some explosiveness in a limited role last season. He averaged 18.5 yards each time he touched the ball.

Green and Scott offer a different look than Ball and Lattimore.

"Da'Rel is a talented back," Franklin said. "He's got the ability to take it the distance. We just need to keep Da'Rel and Morgan healthy. I think we have more speed back there, but a lot less experience."

Senior Rashad Henry and sophomore Dan Bonato took quite a few snaps in the spring and will vie for time behind Scott and Green.

Neither Henry nor Bonato has played in a game, but each showed an ability to make people miss during the spring.

They could battle for the No. 3 tailback spot in the fall or it could be one of the incoming freshmen.

First-year players Gary Douglas and Davin Meggett are talented backs who could find themselves in the mix for playing time in the fall.

The Terps are in good shape at fullback where junior Cory Jackson has started since the end of his true freshman season. Jackson, one of the toughest players on the team, doesn't carry the ball nor catch it much, but is one of the best blockers in the conference and helped open holes for Ball and Lattimore the last two years.

Sophomore FB Haroon Brown filled in nicely last season as a true freshman. Jackson missed a game with a broken hand and Brown distinguished himself well.

Brown inched closer to Jackson during the spring

"Haroon has really improved," Friedgen said. "He's giving Cory a battle."

Redshirt freshman Taylor Watson will also push for time at fullback along with senior Steve Pfister, who also plays on special teams.

Wide Receiver

The quarterbacks should have plenty of explosive targets to choose from in the fall, as Maryland has a chance to have one of the most potent wide-receiving corps in the nation.

There is a veteran layer at the top of the depth chart, but plenty of young, talented players who may figure into the rotation this season.

Wide Receivers

3	LaQuan Williams	WR	6-1	180	So.	1V
7	Adnan Cannon	WR	6-2	204	So.	1V
8	Darrius Heyward-Bey	WR	6-3	206	Jr	2V
17	Danny Oquendo	WR	6-0	190	Sr	3V
18	Kenny Tate	WR	6-4	215	Fr	HS
24	Ronnie Tyler	WR	5-10	190	Fr	RS
25	Kevin Dorsey	WR	6-2	195	Fr	HS
27	Webb Dulin	WR	5-8	165	Fr.	RS
82	Torrey Smith	WR	6-1	200	Fr.	RS
83	Emani Lee-Odai	WR	6-2	200	So.	1V
85	Tony Logan	WR	5-10	180	Fr.	RS
84	Isaiah Williams	WR	6-3	200	Sr.	3V
87	Kerry Boykins	WR	6-1	200	Fr.	HS
88	Quinton McCree	WR	6-2	185	Fr	RS

Junior All-America Darrius Heyward-Bey has been the leader of this group for the last two seasons. He's already pushing his way onto most of the top-10 lists in the Maryland record book, despite only two seasons in uniform.

A former track standout who has translated that speed to the football field, Heyward-Bey has almost 100 catches over the last two seasons.

Joining him atop the depth chart are seniors Isaiah Williams and Danny Oquendo.

Williams has tremendous physical skills, while Oquendo is a steady third-down receiver. Williams has posted nearly 800 receiving yards the last two seasons and shown the ability to stretch the field.

Oquendo has been the team's slot receiver the last two seasons, and he was missed last year after he went down with a knee injury prior to the Boston College game.

At 6-foot-3 each, Heyward-Bey and Williams can go up and get the ball and then outrun defenders.

"We have a real fast group with five guys running under a 4.5 (in the 40-yard dash)," Friedgen said. "We need to get them to translate that to the field consistently."

As the new wide receivers coach, Lee Hull is charged with the task of getting the players to convert their talents to the field.

Hull joined the staff in March from Oregon State, where he coached a number of impressive receivers including Mike Hass, who won the 2005 Biletnikoff Award.

Sophomore LaQuan Williams is another receiver with experience. He had a breakout redshirt-freshman season before being shelved with a knee injury late in 2007. He highlighted his skills in the upset win over No. 10 Rutgers last season, making a remarkable diving catch on third-and-12 to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown. He ended up fourth on the team in receiving yards last season.

The Terps appear to have a solid top four at wideout, with some unproven players behind that group.

"We have a really deep and talented group," Franklin said. "They all have different strengths and we want to try and put people in the right spot."

Redshirt freshman Torrey Smith, who impressed the staff in the spring, opens the fall behind Isaiah Williams at the X receiver spot, while sophomore Emani Lee-Odai and redshirt freshman Quinton McCree serve as Heyward-Bey's backup at Z receiver.

Lee-Odai, one of the fastest players on the team, saw increased action during the second half of last season.

Smith and McCree sat out last season as redshirts, but were impressive during practice. McCree made the travel squad and nearly played in 2007.

Redshirt freshman Ronnie Tyler is another youngster who played in the spring. He finds himself behind Oquendo as the slot receiver. Tyler is somewhat undersized, but has the ability to make defenders miss in the open field.

Sophomore Adrian Cannon, who saw a decent amount of action during the second half of 2007, is slotted as a backup at X receiver behind Isaiah Williams.

The talent level is even solid behind this group.

Redshirt freshmen Tony Logan and true freshman Kevin Dorsey could also push for time. Logan and Dorsey are penciled in as reserves at Z receiver heading into the fall.

Dorsey is a highly-touted local recruit who enrolled in classes in January. He participated in spring practice, but missed some time while rehabbing from a foot injury.

Logan is a little under-sized but he has the ability to make people miss in the open field.

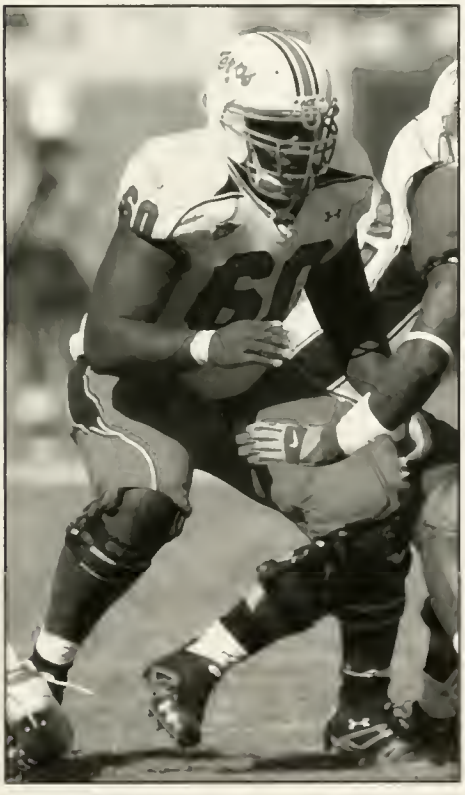
There are also two incoming freshmen with impressive credentials.

Kenny Tate was one of the top recruits in the nation a year ago. The 6-foot-4 product from Forestville, Md., was ranked among the top wideouts in the nation as a senior.

In addition, Kerry Boykins comes to the Terps from Chesapeake, Va. He was also a highly regarded receiver in high school, ranking among the top 20 wideouts by Scout.com.

Offensive Line/Tight End

One year after this unit was decimated with injuries and forced to play some unproven players, the offensive line has a chance to be the strength of the team.



Center Edwin Williams is the keystone of an experienced group of Terrapin offensive linemen.

The Terps did lose an All-American in Andrew Crummey, who is off to the NFL, but four players with 66 career starts are back, as are four others who saw significant action last season.

"We've got quite a few guys who have played and done something," Franklin said. "Guys we've won with. If we could just develop some more depth, not just for this year but for the future, that would help"

There are five seniors – LT Scott Burley, LG Jaimie Thomas, C Edwin Williams, RG Jack Griffin and RT Dane Randolph - among the top six linemen, so getting some of the younger guys ready will be critical.

Williams has the most experience among this group with 26 career starts, tops among offensive players. He is among the top centers in the ACC and was also placed on the watch list for the 2008 Rimington Trophy.

Randolph has started 17 games at right tackle and stepped in to play some snaps at left tackle last season when Burley was saddled with nagging ankle injuries.

Burley distinguished himself well in his first season as a starter. He managed to start 12 games in 2007 despite being hampered by sprains to both ankles at various points in the season. He ended up earning all-conference honors for his play.

Thomas started just seven games at left guard, missing the second half of the season with a fractured right fibula. He was able to return and play in the Emerald Bowl.

Four of the five starting spots look locked up entering the fall.

There is still a battle going on for the starting nod at right guard, replacing Crummey, who was a three-year starter.

Griffin and junior Phil Costa will both play, but the question is who opens the game. Both played extensively last season and are versatile.

Costa started one game at right guard for an injured Crummey and started the last six contests for Thomas at left guard. Costa has also played center in the past.

Campbell, meanwhile, continued to impress in the spring and is competing for a time at left tackle.

The Terps have a number of linemen who redshirted last season including Stephen St. John, Joe Faiella, Lamar Young. Tyler Bowen and Bearthur Johnson.

All have skills, but those need to be developed.

Young is a big, strong interior lineman. He enters the fall No. 2 at left guard and could find himself in the mix for time.

St. John is a listed as a reserve at left tackle, behind Burley and Campbell, while Faiella is penciled in at right guard.

Johnson is another big-framed player, who is listed as a reserve at right tackle.

Other veterans who are expected to add depth include Lee Oliver, Danny Edwards, Evan Eastburn, Matt Harraka and Kyle Sappington.

There are also some talented incoming freshmen including R.J. Dill, Justin Gilbert and Justin Lewis.

Dill played in the Big 33 game (Ohio-Pennsylvania) this past summer

Tight end should be in good hands with Dan Gronkowski back. He has started 17 career games, including eight last season. Gronkowski has been used mostly as a blocker, but he has good hands and can run well after the catch.

"Dan Gronkowski just had a sensational spring," Friedgen. "We expect him to be much more involved in the passing game this season."

Junior Tommy Galt will be asked to fill a more substantial role this year. He was used as the third tight end in running formations last season.

Redshirt freshman Lansford Watson made a move at tight end in the spring. He will battle with Galt for time as Gronkowski's backup.

Sophomore Drew Gloster served as a backup at H-back last season and will assume the No. 1 spot in the spring.

Others expected to vie for time at tight end/H-back include Devonte Campbell and Matt Furstenberg.

Campbell and Furstenberg are true freshmen who entered school in January. They both participated in spring practice, though Furstenberg was limited with a shoulder injury

Defense

Defensive Line

With the loss of two of the three starters along the defensive line, the Terps have some holes to fill.

Dre Moore and Carlos Feliciano combined to start 46 career games in the interior of the line, so the Terps have to replace a pair of talented players.

Moore went on to become a fourth-round choice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in last spring's NFL Draft, while Feliciano was invited to some off-season camps.

"We're a little untested up front," Cosh said. "This is a group where someone will have to emerge, especially inside."

98	Chris Rhodes	DL	6-3	265	Fr.	RS
99	Carl Russell	DL	6-6	270	Fr.	HS

Senior defensive end Jeremy Navarre is the most experienced returnee, having started a team-high 35 career games. He is the Terps' active career leader in tackles for loss (18.0) and sacks (9.0).

"Jeremy had a tremendous spring," Friedgen said. "Our line had a tough time blocking him."

Navarre slid inside to tackle in the spring and looks to line up there in the fall. Though he has been at end for most of his career, he moved inside quite a bit last season.

Despite missing the spring rehabbing his off-season knee surgery, senior Mack Frost is expected to start at defensive end.

Frost played quite a bit last season before injuring his knee.

He spent time at defensive end with Navarre bumping inside to tackle, especially on pass-rushing downs. Frost has the ability to get around the edge to rush the passer.

There looks to be a battle brewing at nose tackle.

Junior Travis Ivey, a good-sized run-stuffer, was atop the depth chart at nose tackle in the spring, but senior Olugbemi Otulaja and redshirt freshman Dion Armstrong have pushed their way to the top heading into the fall.

Ivey is a veteran who played mostly in goal-line situations last season, though he spelled Feliciano and Moore at times. Ivey is still expected to see extensive time on the line.

Otulaja is under-sized, but one of the strongest players on the team, while Armstrong has raw, yet-to-be tapped skills.

Senior Dean Muhtadi and junior Deege Galt look to provide some depth on the line.

Muhtadi saw limited time last season, but was effective when he was on the field. He served as Navarre's backup in the spring, while Galt and junior Jared Harrell are penciled in as reserves at defensive end.

Mack Frost missed most of spring practice due to an injury, but he is expected to be ready for the fall and could earn a starting spot at defensive end.

Some of the youngsters will also get a chance to see time.

Joining Armstrong are redshirt freshman Ian Davidson and true freshmen Joe Vellano and Carl Russell.

Vellano and Russell signed in 2007, but did not matriculate until the spring semester.

Russell enters the fall as a backup at defensive end, while Vellano, who was injured in the spring, is expected to play tackle.

Defensive Starters Returning/Lost...

Starters Returning (5)

DE Jeremy Navarre — Sr.-3V — 6-3, 270
- An All-ACC candidate; started 35 of the last 37 games; 35 starts are most on either side of the ball; tied for 2nd on team with 5.5 sacks in 2007, moved from end to tackle in the spring.

LEO Trey Covington — Sr.-3V — 6-3, 240
- Started 34 of Terps' last 35 games; career-highs of 9 tackles, including 2 sacks, in 2007 Emerald Bowl.

LB Dave Philistin — Sr.-3V — 6-2, 231
- A member of the watch list for the Nagurski Trophy and preseason All-ACC selection; started all 13 games in 2007 at MLB; 157 career tackles are tops for returnees; ranked 4th in ACC and 2nd on team with 124 tackles.

LB Moise Fokou — Sr.-2V — 6-2, 225
- Former walk-on who had breakout season in 2007 with 84 tackles, special-teams standout who led Terps with 17 stops in coverage.

CB Kevin Barnes — Sr.-3V — 6-1, 188
- An All-ACC candidate who enters spring as No. 1 corner; led Terps with four interceptions as a junior, 2nd on team with nine pass breakups.

Starters Lost (6)

DT Dre Moore — Sr.-4V — 6-4, 311
- First team All-ACC as a senior; 2nd on team with 8.5 tackles for loss and led Terps with six sacks. 10.5 career sacks; ranked among top NFL Draft prospects at DT.

DT Carlos Feliciano — Sr.-4V — 6-5, 315
- Played in 41 career games, including 20 starts, finished with 42 tackles as a senior.

LB Erin Henderson — Jr.-2V — 6-3, 236
- One of the top linebackers in the nation who was a Butkus Award semifinalist as a junior; led the ACC and ranked ninth in the nation in tackles per game (11.08); a third team All-American and first team All-ACC selection by Rivals.com.

CB Isaiah Gardner — Sr.-3V — 5-11, 197
- Started his final 27 games at cornerback; tallied over 130 tackles as a junior and senior.

SS Christian Varner — Sr.-4V — 5-11, 205
- Played in all 48 games over his final four years; his 35 consecutive starts were the most on the team; had 165 career tackles.

FS J.J. Justice — Sr.-4V — 6-2, 222
- Played in every game since the start of his freshman year (2004); fourth on the team in tackles (76) last year, including the most among defensive backs.

Senior Trey Covington is manning the LEO position, a hybrid defensive end/linebacker spot, for the fourth-consecutive year. Covington provides a veteran presence and a pass rusher off the edge. He played very well in last year's Emerald Bowl, posting nine tackles, including a career-high two sacks.

"Covington and Navarre could be a force in the pass rush," Friedgen. "Trey is playing his best football. He had a very good spring."

Covington will be backed up by senior Rick Costa and redshirt freshman Derek Drummond.

"Drummond is a big, long guy," Cosh said. "We're hoping he can help us at this spot."

Costa has been plagued by injuries in his career, but has shown an ability to rush the passer, so he'll open fall camp at LEO, though he could easily move back to linebacker.

Defensive line could be a spot where some true freshmen could push for time.

The newcomers arriving in the fall include A.J. Francis, Masengo Kabongo and Zach Kerr.

Francis and Kerr are big, highly-touted local players, while Kabongo was one of the top-rated tackles in the country as a high school senior.

Linebacker

The linebacker unit has a chance to be one of the deepest and most talented groups in the ACC even though it lost one of the most productive linebackers in school history.

Erin Henderson led the team in tackles the last two seasons from his Will linebacker spot. He was a two-time All-ACC choice, semifinalist for the 2007 Butkus Award and 2007 All-American. He followed in the footsteps of his brother, E.J., who was a two-time All-American and winner of the Butkus Award. Both are now members of the Minnesota Vikings.

However, there are five linebackers on the roster with extensive playing experience.

Seniors Dave Philistin and Moise Fokou were two of the top linebackers in the ACC last season when they started all 13 games. In addition, Adrian Moten was one of the top freshman defenders in the league a year ago.

Philistin ranked fourth in the ACC in tackles (9.5 pg) as the Mike linebacker and Fokou was 20th (6.4 pg) from his Sam LB position. Moten, who played all three linebacker positions, tied for the team lead in sacks (5.5) and tallied 50 tackles despite not starting a game.

However, off-season surgery to Philistin, Fokou and Rick Costa kept them out of spring practice. All are expected to be healthy for fall camp. Costa, however, is expected to open the preseason at LEO, though could also still play linebacker.

With that two out, others had a chance to shine.

After an injury-plagued 2007, senior Chase Bullock opened the spring No. 1 on the depth chart at Will linebacker. Bullock was near the top of the depth chart at Mike LB entering last season, but hurt both his ankles early in the year and played sparingly the rest of the way.

He took advantage of his opportunity in the spring, leading the team in tackles. He opens the fall atop the depth chart at Will, along with Philistin.

Fokou and Moten look to battle it out for the Sam linebacker spot.

Moten opened the spring No. 1 on the depth chart at Sam linebacker with Fokou's injury.

Those two will be backed up by Dominique Herald and Femi Akinwande, both of whom were moved from safety to linebacker in the spring.

"Dominique is a little undersized, but we're trying to get some more speed on the field," Cosh said.

The long awaited debut of sophomore Alex Wujciak may not be far off. He enters the fall No. 1 on the depth chart at Mike linebacker. Last summer Wujciak looked like a player who was going to be an integral part of the defense. But a knee injury near the end of preseason camp derailed his year before it even got started.

The Terps hope Wujciak can be a force in the run game. Despite his size, he has the ability to track down ballcarriers.

"Alex is a guy who can affect tempo and effort," Cosh said. "He likes to play the game and that's infectious."

Redshirt freshman Ben Pooler, who nearly played last season, and senior Alex Schulz are the backups to Wujciak.

Freshman Demetrious Hartsfield and junior Hakeem Sule are the backups to Philistin and Bullock at Will.

Hartsfield was one of six true freshman who enrolled in January. He has the speed to be a factor on the outside or on special teams.

Another true freshman, Eteyen Edet, will join this group for fall camp. He burst onto the national recruiting scene last year.

"We think our linebackers will give us some toughness on defense," Cosh said. "We also need to find some leaders on defense and hopefully there are a few guys from this group we can look to."

Secondary

The Terps spent the spring looking at options in the secondary where they have to replace three starters.

Defensive Backs

1	Terrell Skinner	DB	6-3	214	Jr. 2V
2	Kevin Barnes	DB	6-1	188	Sr. 3V
4	Jamari McCollough	DB	5-11	195	Jr.SQ
6	Anthony Wiseman	DB	5-10	185	Jr. 2V
9	Richard Taylor	DB	5-11	193	Sr. 2V
14	Nolan Carroll	DB	6-1	202	Jr. 2V
18	Austin Walker	DB	6-0	185	Fr.RS
20	Antwine Perez	DB	6-1	200	So.TR
21	Trenton Hughes	DB	5-11	175	Fr.RS
22	Drew Robinson	DB	5-10	197	Sr. 1V
24	Arnold Davies	DB	6-0	195	Sr.SQ
26	Michael Carter	DB	5-11	175	So.RS
29	Jeff Allen	DB	6-1	190	Sr. 3V
32	Brandon Jackson-Mills	DB	5-11	160	So.SQ
37	Cameron Chism	DB	6-0	185	Fr.HS

Senior cornerback Kevin Barnes, who had a team-high four interceptions and ranked tied for fifth in the ACC in passes defended, is the lone returning starter with the departure of CB Isaiah Gardner, FS J.J. Justice and SS Christian Varner.

Barnes and juniors Anthony Wiseman and Nolan Carroll battled it out in the spring for the starting roles and that should continue into the fall.

"Nolan established himself this spring and Wiseman is battling Barnes for a starting spot," Friedgen said.

All three will see significant time.

Wiseman was the third corner for most of last season, though Carroll saw extended time later in the year at cornerback. Both have good speed and athleticism.

Senior Richard Taylor is No. 2 on the depth chart behind Carroll. Taylor was in the mix for a starting spot last season before injuring his knee in the spring and never getting on the field in the fall. He is healthy for the first time in over a year.

Others who will vie for time at corner include Michael Carter, Trenton Hughes and Brandon Jackson-Mills.

Carter has had a solid off-season and is expected to increase the competition level at cornerback. Hughes and Jackson-Mills are young, athletic players who will add depth at corner and on special teams.

The safety spots will have two new starters.

Senior Jeff Allen is penciled in as the No. 1 strong safety and junior Terrell Skinner appears to be in a battle with sophomore Antwine Perez for the starting free safety slot.

Allen and Skinner saw time in the defensive backfield last season, but most of their action has come on special teams.

Allen is a sure tackler, while Skinner is a big, athletic former wide receiver.

"Skinner got better and better last season," Cosh said.

Perez sat out last season after transferring from USC, but the Terps hope he can find his way into the mix.

"Perez showed he was physical on the scout team last season and demonstrated a willingness to hit," Cosh said

Senior Drew Robinson and junior Jamari McCollough, both of whom saw time on special teams last season, enter the fall as Allen's backup.

Redshirt freshman Austin Walker, who was impressive on the scout team last season, adds depth at safety.

Special Teams

The specialists return nearly a full complement, although there will still be competition at spots.

The unit has a new field general as Danny Pearman is the new special teams coordinator, taking over for Ray Rychleski, who had guided the group the last seven years.

Pearman will certainly place his stamp on a special teams unit which has been among the best in the ACC since Friedgen's arrival in 2001,

"Danny comes into a good situation, but I like what I saw from that unit in the spring," Friedgen said. "He's a very hard worker and has the right temperament for the position. I think the kids have really taken to him."

39	Obi Egekeze	PK	6-2	210	Sr.	2V
59	Tim Downs	LS	6-0	245	Fr.	RS

Senior Obi Egekeze and sophomore Travis Baltz form one of the top kicking tandems in the ACC, while senior Danny Oquendo is in his third season as the punt returner and Da'Rel Scott is back to return kicks.

Egekeze had a solid junior season, his first as the starting place-kicker. He made nearly 75 percent of his kicks and was almost perfect in ACC play, nailing 13 of his 14 attempts, the best mark in the league.

"Obi had a really solid spring, but just struggled some in the spring game," Friedgen said.

Baltz, a freshman All-America choice, distinguished himself well last season, averaging 40.9 yards per punt which was seventh in the ACC. He also performed better in league play, averaging 43.1 yards per punt, the second-best mark in the ACC.

Baltz held off a charge from Ted Townsley in the spring. The sophomore transfer kicked well in a couple of spring scrimmages, but Baltz was sharp throughout the five weeks of practice.

Oquendo has been a solid and steady contributor as the punt returner. He'll most likely slide back into that spot in the fall, though Anthony Wiseman saw time there last season after Oquendo missed the last four games with a knee injury.

Redshirt freshmen Ronnie Tyler and Torrey Smith are also candidates to see time at punt returns.

Scott, a 2007 freshman All-ACC pick, showed playmaking ability returning kicks last season. He nearly broke a couple for scores and had a 60-yarder vs. Florida State. His 566 return yards were the most ever for a Maryland freshman. He is expected to see extensive time at tailback, so whether Scott remains the returner is up in the air.

Wiseman, Trenton Hughes and Richard Taylor are also candidates for the kickoff return job.

The Terps will have to replace holder Matt Goldberg and short-snapper (FGs/PATs) Brendan McDermond, both of whom graduated.

Baltz served as the holder in the spring and looks like he will have the job in the fall.

Senior Andrew Schmitt returns as the team's long-snapper (punts). Schmitt has snapped the last three seasons and Baltz is just the team's third punter in the last nine years.

Schmitt will also handle the snaps for the FG/PAT team.

The Terps have not had a punt blocked since the 1999 season.

Redshirt freshman Tim Downs will serve as Schmitt's backup.

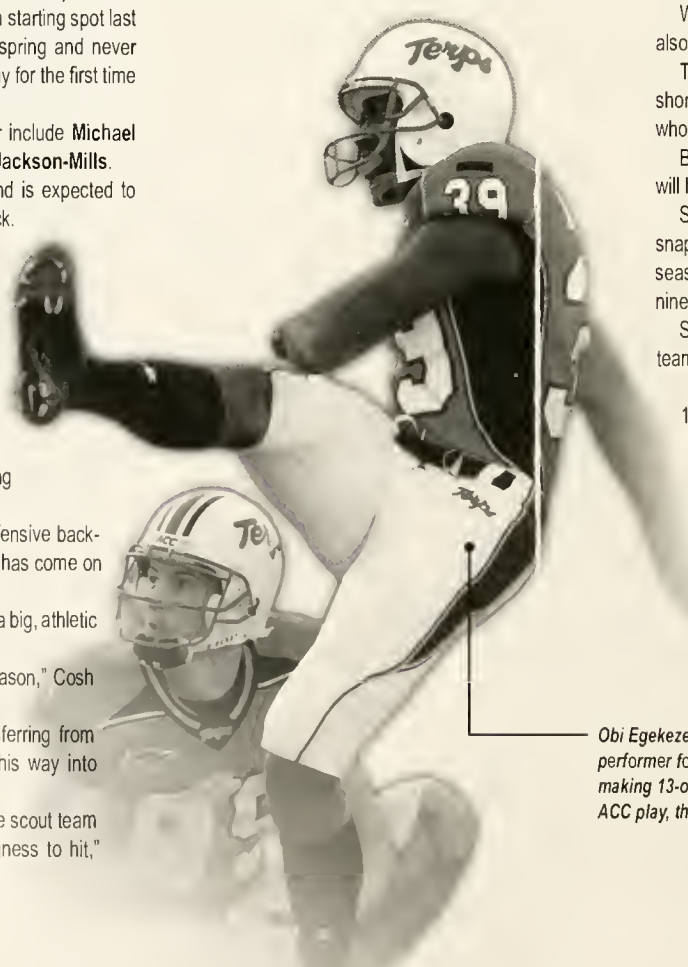
Senior David May, who never played high school football, enters the fall with a shot at kickoff duties. He's also a reserve place-kicker.

Brett Weiss and Nick Wallace will join May in a battle for the backup place-kicker spot in the fall. Weiss is also a member of the Maryland lacrosse team.



Obi Egekeze proved to be a solid performer for the Terps last season, making 13-of-14 field goal attempts in ACC play, the best mark in the league.

2007 SEASON REVIEW

FOOTBALL

2007 Review Notebook

Quick Hits

- Despite a number of setbacks during the 2007 season, the University of Maryland football team reached its fifth bowl game in seven years and upended a pair of top 10 teams. The Terps won two of their final three regular-season games, including a dominating 37-0 win over NC State in the season finale, to reach postseason play. Maryland had its school record streak of three-straight bowl wins snapped in a 21-14 defeat at the hands of Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco.
- The Terps ranked 40th nationally in total defense (358.0 ypg) and 24th in scoring defense (21.5 ppg) in 2007. The Maryland defense also stepped up down the stretch, holding NC State (Nov. 24) to just 250 total yards, including 10 on the ground, and in the win over No. 8 Boston College (Nov. 10) , sacked Heisman candidate Matt Ryan a season-high four times and held the Eagles to 45 rushing yards. The Terps surrendered an average of 69.7 rushing yards over the last three regular-season games. The Terps had two of the top tacklers in the country in junior linebackers Erin Henderson and Dave Philistin, who ranked ninth (11.1) and 39th (9.5), respectively, in the nation in stops per game. Henderson was an All-American and a Butkus Award semifinalist, as well as earning All-ACC honors for the second straight season. Senior tackle Dre Moore, a first-team all-conference choice, had a team-high six sacks. Junior cornerback Kevin Barnes led the secondary with four of the team's 13 interceptions. He ranked tied for seventh in the ACC in interceptions per game (0.31 pg). The Terps pass defense ended the year ranked fifth in the ACC and 33rd in the nation (210.7 ypg). Barnes and senior CB Isaiah Gardner each ranked tied for seventh in the league in passes defended (0.92 pg).
- The Terps offense, which was decimated by injuries (only three players started all 13 games), came together over the last month of the year, averaging 424.3 yards during the final three regular-season games, including a season-high 472 in the upset of BC. Maryland ranked fifth in the ACC in total offense (340.9 ypg), including fifth in rushing (137.5 ypg). Seniors Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore combine to average nearly 130 rushing yards per game. Lattimore was seventh in the ACC and 86th nationally in rushing (67.1 ypg), and tallied a league-best 13 rushing TDs. Ball ended the year tied for ninth in the league in rushing (59.1 ypg). He ended his career as Maryland's fourth all-time leading rusher (2,487 yards). Despite playing behind a banged-up offensive line, sophomore Chris Turner was solid for the Terps after taking over as the starting QB in the sixth game of the year. Turner, who stepped under center for junior Jordan Steffy (injured vs. Rutgers), ranked third in the ACC is passing efficiency (135.5 rating). WR Darrius Heyward-Bey, a 2007 honorable mention All-America choice, led the Terps in receptions (48) and receiving yards (687). He posted 21 catches over the last four games of the regular season. Senior guard Andrew Crummey, one of the top linemen in the nation, missed most of the season half of the season, while junior guard Jaimie Thomas missed the final five games of the year.
- The Terps special teams distinguished itself well this despite three new starters. True freshman Travis Baltz and junior place-kicker Obi Egekeze are both in their first seasons seeing game action. Baltz, a freshman All-ACC choice, ranked seventh in the ACC in punting average (40.9), including second (43.1) in league contests. Egekeze has hit 17 of 23 field goals, including a league-best 93 percent (13 of 14) in ACC games.

Four Terps Earn All-ACC Honors...

- Four Terps earned All-ACC honors from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA) and the Associated Press. On the defensive side of the ball, linebacker Erin Henderson and tackle Dre Moore were first-team selections. On offense, guard Andrew Crummey was a second-team choice for the second-straight year, while senior running back Keon Lattimore drew an honorable mention nod. Henderson was the leading vote-getter at linebacker after posting 122 tackles, including a team-best 11 tackles for loss. The Terps have had a first-team All-ACC linebacker in five of the last seven seasons. Moore developed into a force in the middle of the Maryland defense. He led the Terps with six sacks, the most by a Maryland player since 2004 (Shawne Merriman, 8.5). Moore is only the second Maryland defensive tackle to earn first-team All-ACC honors in the last eight seasons (also Randy Starks, 2003). Crummey, a member of this year's watch list for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy, earned the honor despite missing five games. Lattimore recorded career highs in rushing yards (789) and rushing touchdowns (13). No player in the conference had more rushing scores than Lattimore, who also topped the 100-yard mark four times.

Three Terps Earn Freshman All-ACC Honors...

- Three Maryland freshmen were selected to the 2007 Sporting News Freshman All-ACC Football Team. Wide receiver LaQuan Williams, linebacker Adrian Moten and punter Travis Baltz represented the Terps on the team. The magazine chose 11 starters on each side of the ball, along with three specialists. Only one school – North Carolina with six – placed more players on the team. Georgia Tech and Duke each had three selections as well. Moten, a redshirt freshman, proved to be a versatile player seeing time as a reserve at all three linebacker spots and at defensive end in pass-rushing situations. He tied for team-high honors with 5.5 sacks. Williams switched over from defensive back prior to the start of spring workouts and made the most of his opportunity by earning a share of the starting job (seven starts). He had 15 catches for 217 yards before a knee injury shelved him for the final two regular-season games. Baltz had some big shoes to fill after he took over for four-time All-ACC performer Adam Podlesh, but the true freshman responded well. Baltz ranked seventh in the ACC and 58th in the nation with an average of 40.9 yards per punt, and elevated his game during conference play with a 43.1-yard average, second-best in the league.

Terps Battle Through Injuries...

- The Terps were hit by the injury bug in some key areas this season, mostly noticeably on offense where just three players started all 13 games. QB Jordan Steffy sat out vs. Georgia Tech and Virginia after suffering a concussion vs. Rutgers (Sept. 29). He was cleared to play prior to the Clemson game and played two series vs. FSU and the final two of the NC State game (Nov. 24). RG Andrew Crummey, a preseason All-American, missed five games with a fractured left fibula (vs. Georgia Tech, Oct. 6), but returned for the regular-season finale and bowl game. Starting left guard Jaimie Thomas was lost for the regular season when he fractured his right fibula vs. Virginia (Oct. 20), though he returned to play a reserve role in the bowl game. TE Dan Gronkowski left the Clemson game (Oct. 27) with a knee injury and missed two contests before returning vs. Florida State (Nov 17). He also missed the bowl game with an injury. FB Cory Jackson played most of the Virginia game with a broken hand and missed the Clemson contest. He returned vs. UNC (Nov. 3) and played with a wrap on his hand over the final four weeks. Starting LT Scott

Burley played over the final five weeks of the regular season, but sparingly due to an ankle injury His backup, true freshman Bruce Campbell, was also on and off the field with an ankle injury Redshirt freshman Paul Pinegar, a walk-on, replaced both of them at times. WR Danny Oquendo injured a knee in practice prior to the BC game (Nov 10) and was lost for the season. Fellow wideout LaQuan Williams hurt his knee and missed the final three games of the season. On defense, reserve DT Travis Ivey missed three weeks with a knee injury, but returned vs. BC. LB Rick Costa, who was starting for an injured Erin Henderson, incurred a sprained neck vs the Yellow Jackets and is out indefinitely Some key reserves were also on the shelf. Pass-rushing DE Mack Frost injured his right knee vs. the Cavaliers and missed the rest of the season. Junior Drew Robinson, a backup safety and special teams player, missed the final four games of the season with a knee injury, one he suffered vs. the Tar Heels. The Terps also lost Alex Wujciak, who was expected to vie for one of the starting linebacker roles, during the preseason. In all, 17 members of the two-deep missed at least one game due to injury That number does not include Burley even though he was in on just three plays vs. Clemson (Oct. 27).

Terps Upend A Top 10 Team...

- Maryland's win over No. 10 Rutgers (Sept. 29) was its first over a top 10 team since 2004 (20-17 vs. No. 5 Florida State, Oct. 30). The Terps also downed a ranked team on the road for the second time in three opportunities They lost to No. 20 Boston College, 38-16 on Nov 18, 2006, but defeated No. 19 Clemson, 13-12, Nov. 4 of last year. It also marked the first time Maryland defeated a top 10 team on the road since Nov 17, 1990 when they upended No. 8 Virginia, 35-30, in Charlottesville. That win came in the regular season finale and clinched a berth in the Independence Bowl for the Terps. In addition, Maryland defeated a top 10 non-conference team on the road for the first time since 1984 Frank Reich engineered a 31-point comeback in the Terps 42-40 win at No. 6 Miami on Nov 10, 1984 Until the Rutgers win, the Terps had lost seven in-a-row to top 10 non-conference foes on the road.

Terps Among A Select Group...

- The Terps were one of just six teams in the nation (Central Florida, East Carolina, Middle Tennessee State, Troy and Louisiana Tech) to play two top 10 teams in non-conference action. More importantly, the Terps were the only team among this group to come away with a victory

  UCF vs No. 6 Texas, at No 5 South Florida
  East Carolina at No. 9 Virginia Tech; at No. 5 West Virginia
  Middle Tennessee St. at No. 8 Louisville, at No. 2 LSU.
  Troy at No 4 Florida, No. 10 Georgia
  Louisiana Tech, at No. 8 California; at No. 2 LSU

- The Terps were also one of just four teams (Kentucky, LSU, Illinois) in the nation to defeat two top 10 teams this season:

  Kentucky: No. 9 Louisville; No. 1 LSU;
  LSU: No. 9 Virginia Tech; No. 9 Florida
  Illinois: No. 5 Wisconsin; No. 1 Ohio State

2007 Game Recaps

Game 1

Maryland 31
Villanova 14

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Sept. 1, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -- Keon Lattimore ran for 106 yards and three touchdowns, Jordan Steffy played exceptionally well in his first start as Maryland's quarterback, and the Terrapins wore down Villanova in a 31-14 victory.

Lattimore also caught six passes for 33 yards. The senior averaged 5 yards on his 21 carries and moved over 1,000 yards rushing for his career.

Steffy did a fine job running the offense, going 19-for-24 for 174 yards and running for 47 yards and a touchdown.

Up 10-7, the Terrapins opened the third quarter with an 11-play, 66-yard touchdown drive. Five plays after Steffy ran for 2 yards on a fourth-and-1 from the Villanova 42, Lattimore scored on a 14-yard run.

On Maryland's next possession, Steffy left with a leg cramp in the middle of a 57-yard touchdown drive that Lattimore concluded with an 18-yard run for a 24-7 lead.

Then, after a Maryland interception, Steffy moved the Terrapins 87 yards and scored on a 10-yard TD run with 12:46 left.

That ended a night Steffy had been waiting for since he arrived at Maryland as a freshman in 2004. Before facing the Wildcats, the redshirt junior had thrown only 37 passes and had gone two years since his last completion.

Steffy's play against Villanova belied his inexperience. First, he moved the Terrapins 46 yards for a field goal. Then he directed a 90-yard march in which he passed for 28 yards and ran for 22. The drive ended with Lattimore dragging two tacklers into the end zone on a 12-yard run.

The Wildcats then moved 84 yards on eight plays, closing to 10-7 on Antwon Young's first career touchdown pass, a 26-yarder to Matthew Sherry.

Villanova got a touchdown with 54 seconds left when Salim Koroma picked off a Turner pass and took it 42 yards to the end zone.

Game 2

Maryland 26
Florida International 10

The Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla. • Sept. 8, 2007

MIAMI (AP) -- Keon Lattimore ran for 111 yards and two early touchdowns, and Maryland held off pesky Florida International 26-10.

Jordan Steffy completed 18 of 25 passes for 135 yards and Lance Ball had a 1-yard scoring run with 53 seconds left to seal the win for Maryland, now 2-0 for the fourth time in Ralph Friedgen's seven seasons.

Moses Hinton caught a 49-yard TD pass from Wayne Younger for Florida International (0-2), losers of 14 straight games -- the second-longest current drought in major college football behind Duke.

FIU put a major scare into Maryland last season, losing 14-10 when the Terrapins intercepted a pass near the goal line on the game's final play. This one wasn't easy for the Terps, either -- who scored 10 fourth-quarter points off a pair of FIU turnovers.

Lattimore is the brother of Baltimore Ravens linebacker Ray Lewis, who starred at Miami before entering the NFL. Lattimore has fond memories of seeing Lewis play at the Orange Bowl, the Hurricanes' home field that FIU is using this season while its own stadium is remodeled. Now, he's got memories of his own.

Lattimore had a 42-yard run on Maryland's first play, and he scored from 1 yard out to make it 9-0. The scoring started with a safety on a botched FIU punt 26 seconds into the game.

FIU went three-and-out on its next possession and Lattimore came through again, this time with a 14-yard TD to make it 16-0 with 8:13 left in the quarter.

A big play helped FIU get back into the game.

Off play-action, Younger found Hinton down the left sideline for the first score in Mano Cristobal's era as FIU coach.

FIU got within 16-10 early in the fourth on Chris Abed's 42-yard field goal. But Lionell Singleton fumbled a punt return away deep in FIU territory with 12:27 left, setting up Obi Egekeze's 36-yard field goal that restored Maryland's nine-point lead.

#4/4 West Virginia 31
Maryland 14

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Sept. 13, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Keon Lattimore rushed for 80 yards and led Maryland receivers with four catches, leading the Terrapins' offense in a 31-14 defeat to No. 4 West Virginia before 53,107 at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium.

The crowd was the fifth-largest in the history of the stadium.

Lattimore scored on a 4-yard run midway through the first quarter, marking his third straight game with a rushing touchdown.

Also for Maryland, quarterback Jordan Steffy tossed his first career touchdown pass, hitting Danny Oquendo with a 22-yarder late in the fourth period.

Steve Slaton ran for 137 yards and three touchdowns and Noel Devine amassed 125 yards on his first three carries for the Mountaineers. The freshman finished with 136 on five carries, including a 76-yard run to set up one of Slaton's touchdowns.

Maryland fumbled the snap on the first play from scrimmage, giving WVU a short field at the 20-yard line. Two plays later, White scampered in from 22 yards for the touchdown.

The Terrapins responded immediately, though, going 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Lattimore's 4-yard run that tied the game at 7-7 with 9:53 left in the first quarter.

West Virginia scored 24 unanswered points over the next two periods, turning a 14-7 halftime lead into a 31-7 advantage. The Mountaineers took control by going 63 yards in nine plays with the second-half kickoff, setting up a 1-yard score by Slaton.

Maryland finished the scoring with 5:50 left when Steffy found Oquendo. The Terrapins recovered the onside kick, but were unable to move downfield.

Erin Henderson led the Maryland defense with 11 tackles, his second straight game with double figures on the defensive chart.

Game 4

Wake Forest 31 (ot)
Maryland 24

Groves Stadium
Winston Salem, N.C. • Sept. 22, 2007

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Josh Adams scored on a 6-yard run on the first possession of overtime to help Wake Forest cap a comeback and beat Maryland 31-24.

Aphonso Smith had a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the third quarter to jumpstart the Demon Deacons (2-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Riley Skinner - playing in his first game since separating his shoulder in the season opener - had a 1-yard TD sneak after Smith's return midway through the fourth, then found John Tereshinski with a 6-yard scoring pass to tie it with 3 seconds left in regulation.

Then, after Adams' score in overtime, the Terps were unable answer with a touchdown.

The Terrapins (2-2, 0-1) got 112 yards and a touchdown from Keon Lattimore, his third 100-yard game of the season, along with rushing scores from Lance Ball and Cory Jackson.

Ball added 56 yards on 14 carries and junior quarterback Jordan Steffy completed 11 of 20 passes for 115 yards. He completed passes to eight different receivers.

Steffy's third-down pass for Ball at the goal line with Maryland leading 24-3 helped spark the comeback. Smith jumped in front of the route and raced the length of the field for the score.

Skinner completed 22 of 35 passes for 219 yards with three interceptions, but the redshirt sophomore came up huge down the stretch in directing the decisive scoring drives. Adams finished with 91 yards rushing.

Erin Henderson led the defensive effort Maryland with a game-high tying 12 tackles. He also forced and recovered a fumble, and picked off a pass which led to Jackson's TD run, giving the Terps a 17-3 lead.

Kevin Barnes had his third interception of the season for the Terps and Isaiah Gardner his first.

Game 5

Maryland 34
#10/10 Rutgers 24

Rutgers Stadium
Piscataway, N.J. • Sept. 29, 2007

PISCATAWAY, N.J. (AP) - Backup quarterback Chris Turner led Maryland to 20 second-half points. Keon Lattimore rushed for 124 yards and a touchdown and the Terps ruined No. 10 Rutgers' second stay in the top 10 with a 34-24 victory.

For Maryland (3-2), it was redemption. The win ended Rutgers' 10-game home winning streak and snapped a two-game Terps losing streak that included a 31-24 overtime loss to Wake Forest last week.

Turner completed 14 of 20 passes for 149 yards in relief of Jordan Steffy, who left late in the first half with a concussion.

Maryland rallied despite losing a 14-3 advantage late in the first half and heading into halftime with Rutgers leading 17-14.

Turner led the rally that culminated in field goals of 26 and 37 yards from Obi Egekeze, a 2-yard TD run by Lattimore and a late 14-yard dash by Lance Ball, who rushed for 90 yards and two touchdowns.

Teel threw two touchdown passes and Ray Rice scored on a 1-yard run with 4:41 to go to cut the Maryland lead to 27-24. But the Terps defense held stout against a Scarlet Knights offense that was averaging 46 points. Rice was held to 97 yards rushing on 21 carries, including 38 yards on his last 15 attempts.

The victory over a top 10 team was the first for Maryland since upsetting Florida State in 2004. The Terps outgained the Scarlet Knights 458-392 while forcing three turnovers.

Turner, who took over after Steffy was hurt on the Terps' final series of the first half, got Maryland going early in the second half. A 28-yard pass to Isaiah Williams and a penalty for roughing the passer led to Egekeze's 26-yard field goal that tied the game at 17 midway through the third quarter.

Ball broke off a 32-yard run and Turner hit Darnius Heyward-Bey for 18 to set up a go-ahead 37-yard field goal with 3:43 left in the third quarter.

Maryland's defense held Rutgers to one first down on its next two series, and Turner led Maryland on a 58-yard touchdown drive. Lattimore capped it with a 2-yard run one play after LaQuan Williams stretched out to making a diving third-down catch of a 27-yard pass.

Game 6

Maryland 28
Georgia Tech 26

College Park, Md. • Oct. 6, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - In his first career start, Chris Turner threw for 255 yards, and Lance Ball ran for three touchdowns as Maryland held on for a 28-26 victory over Georgia Tech.

Travis Bell sent a 52-yard field goal attempt wide right with 54 seconds remaining. Georgia Tech was whistled for holding on the previous play, knocking the Yellow Jackets back 10 yards and preventing them from lining up for what would have been a 40-yard try.

Turner had three passes of longer than 40 yards in the first half, including the first touchdown pass of his career, a 78-yard strike to Jason Goode. He cooled off in the second half but finished 10-of-17 for 255 yards and a touchdown. Ball carried 16 times for 86 yards and three touchdowns.

Maryland (4-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) had leads of 21-3 and 28-17, but Georgia Tech closed to 28-26 with 8:21 left in the game on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Taylor Bennett to Demaryus Thomas. The Yellow Jackets' two-point conversion try fell short when linebacker Dave Philistin stuffed Tashard Choice on a direct snap.

Philistin finished with 21 tackles.

Saturday's victory was Turner's second straight impressive performance. He replaced an injured Jordan Steffy late in the second quarter the previous week and led the Terps to a 34-24 road upset over then-No. 10 Rutgers.

Steffy, who suffered a concussion against Rutgers, did not dress Saturday. Nor did the team's leading tackler, Erin Henderson, who has a bad knee.

Maryland scored first on Turner's long pass to Goode, then extended its lead to 21-3 early in the second quarter on TD runs of 7 yards and 1 yard by Ball.

Bennett finished 22 of 34 for 309 yards and a touchdown. Choice had 32 carries for 132 yards and a touchdown.

Georgia Tech's first touchdown came with less than a minute to go in the first half, when Turner, under pressure on a third down, was hit by Vance Walker and fumbled. Defensive end Darrell Robertson picked up the ball and ran 32 yards for the score.

Game 7

#24 Virginia 18
Maryland 17

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Oct. 20, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Reserve running back Mikell Simpson capped an all-around performance by scoring the winning touchdown with 16 seconds left, enabling the Virginia Cavaliers to beat Maryland 18-17 for their seventh straight victory

Simpson scored on a 1-yard plunge to finish a frantic 90-yard drive that consumed more than seven minutes.

Virginia trailed 14-3 in the second quarter and 17-10 early in the third period before rallying.

Simpson ran 16 times for 119 yards and two touchdowns. He also caught 13 passes for 152 yards. During the final drive, Simpson caught five passes for 48 yards and rushed nine times for 44 yards - totaling 92 yards on a 90-yard drive that included an intentional grounding call against the Cavaliers.

Lance Ball ran for 72 yards and a touchdown, and Keon Lattimore had 65 yards rushing and a score for the Terrapins (4-3, 1-2). But Maryland managed only a field goal in the second half.

At the outset of the third quarter, a roughing the passer penalty and a 15-yard facemask call against Virginia fueled a Maryland drive that produced a 41-yard field goal by Obi Egekeze for a 17-10 lead

The Cavaliers closed to 17-12 when standout defensive end Chris Long sacked Chris Turner in the end zone for a safety with two seconds left in the quarter.

Simpson ran for 72 yards on four carries and had five catches for 54 yards in the first half, but Lattimore and Ball combined for 98 yards rushing and two touchdowns to stake the Terrapins to a 14-10 lead.

Virginia's first four plays were short passes that totaled 61 yards, setting up a 36-yard field goal by Chris Gould The Terrapins answered with a nine-play, 69-yard drive that Lattimore ended with a 3-yard touchdown run.

After Lattimore ran for 47 yards in the first 15 minutes, Ball got his chance at the start of the second quarter. He ran four straight times for 35 yards, then took a swing pass 7 yards on a third-and-5 before scoring on a 1-yard run to make it 14-3.

Erin Henderson tallied a career-high 18 tackles after missing the Georgia Tech game with a knee injury.

College Park, Md. • Oct. 27, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -- James Davis ran for 129 yards and a touchdown to lead Clemson past Maryland 30-17.

The Tigers (6-2, 3-2 ACC) led 20-3 at halftime and held on for the victory

Maryland (4-4, 1-3) scored on its first drive, but the Tigers built up a lead in the first half. The Terrapins scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but got no closer than 13 points.

Davis, who had 29 carries, led a running game that amassed 249 yards. C.J. Spiller gained 106 yards, and Harper went 20-for-26 for 179 yards.

The previous three games in the series were decided by 4 points or fewer.

The Tigers snapped a 3-3 tie midway through the second quarter after the Terrapins failed to convert a fourth-and-1 from the Clemson 48. Two rushes by Davis netted 19 yards, and Spiller ran for 5 yards before Harper threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Kelly

On their next possession, the Tigers made it 17-3 on a 1-yard run by Davis.

Minutes later, Clemson's Crezdon Butler intercepted a pass and took it 17 yards to the Maryland 34 Later in the drive, Mark Buchholtz kicked a 34-yard field goal

Buchholtz added a 20-yarder in the third quarter, and Harper threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Michael Palmer with 12:02 left to make it 30-3.

In the fourth quarter, a 44-yard pass from Chris Turner to Adrian Cannon set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Lance Ball with 10:40 to go.

Turner completed 19 of 31 passes for 217 yards. Isaiah Williams and Joey Haynos had five catches apiece for Maryland

Game 9

North Carolina 16
Maryland 13

Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C. • Nov. 3, 2007

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Connor Barth kicked three field goals and T.J. Yates threw a touchdown pass to Hakeem Nicks helping North Carolina to a 16-13 victory over Maryland

Freshman tailback Johnny White added a career-high 92 rushing yards for the Tar Heels (3-6, 2-3 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Nicks, the team's leading receiver, finished with eight catches for 88 yards. Yet, it was the defense that set the tone early for North Carolina. The Terrapins (4-5, 1-4 ACC) lost for the first time in five games in the series.

Maryland had a chance down the stretch. One final drive started on its own 23-yard line with 2:49 left, and Chris Turner completed four consecutive passes to move the Terps to North Carolina's 41. But on fourth-and-2, he was pressured by defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer and threw high toward the sideline, ending the drive with 36 seconds remaining.

Barth connected from 23 yards to break the scoreless tie in the second quarter. Maryland's Obi Egekeze tied with a 26-yarder with about 3-1/2 minutes remaining in the first half.

Yates completed three consecutive passes - two to Brooks Foster - to give Barth another chance from 45 yards out, and his kick broke the tie at 1:01.

After the ensuing kickoff, Turner overthrew Darnus Hayward-Bey, and safety Trimaine Goddard intercepted it. Yates worked the hurry-up offense again, and his 20-yard completion led to another 45-yard field goal for Barth.

Yates' 30-yard touchdown pass to Hicks put North Carolina ahead, but Maryland found an offensive spark to make it close.

Turner completed all three passes to move his team to the Tar Heels' 6. Lattimore finished off the march with a 5-yard scoring run, and when Egekeze made a 29-yard field goal, Maryland was within the final margin.

Heyward-Bey had a team-high five receptions for 64 yards, while Lance Ball rushed for 69 yards on 15 carries.

Turner completed 20 of 36 passes for 209 yards.

Game 10

Maryland 42
#8/8 Boston College 35

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Nov. 10, 2007

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Sophomore Chris Turner threw for 337 yards and three touchdowns to lift the injury-plagued Maryland Terrapins (5-5, 2-4) to a thrilling 42-35 victory over No. 8 Boston College (8-2, 4-2) Saturday evening.

Senior tight end Jason Goode, playing in his final home game, caught two TD passes as the Terps rolled up a season-high 466 total yards.

It was the most points Boston College has allowed in an Atlantic Coast Conference game since joining the league in 2005. In addition, the nation's top-ranked rushing defense (58 yards per game) surrendered a season-high 135 yards, even though Maryland was without its leading ground-gainer.

Matt Ryan, who threw three interceptions against Florida State, went 33-for-56 for 421 yards and three touchdowns, but was intercepted twice.

The Terps received a solid performance from Turner, who went 21-for-27. Knowing it would be difficult to pound the ball inside, Maryland relied heavily on the passing game, often throwing deep and spreading the Boston College defense with quick tosses to the outside.

That enabled Lance Ball to rush 32 times for 109 yards and a score. Goode had six catches, matching his total in Maryland's first nine games.

The Terrapins let a 42-21 lead dwindle to seven points when Ryan threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Purvis with 52 seconds left, but the subsequent onside kick failed to go the required 10 yards, giving Maryland possession and the victory.

At game's end, the fans rushed the field to celebrate the Terps' second win this season over a top-10 team. Maryland beat then-No. 10 Rutgers on Sept. 29. It marked the first time in school history Maryland has defeated two top-10 teams in the same season.

Florida State 24
Maryland 16

Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium
Tallahassee, Fla. • Nov. 17, 2006

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Preston Parker ran for 133 yards and a touchdown in his first start at tailback as Florida State (7-4, 4-4 ACC) clinched a winning season with a 24-16 victory over Maryland that gave coach Bobby Bowden his 300th career win at the school.

Parker, who had been the Seminoles' leading receiver, ran for 51 yards on his first four carries, including an 18-yard touchdown that gave the Seminoles a 14-3 lead late in the first quarter.

Drew Weatherford bounced back from a concussion to throw for 204 yards and a touchdown. He also ran for another.

Florida State took a 21-3 lead 44 seconds into the second quarter when Weatherford and De'Cody Fagg hooked up on a 10-yard touchdown pass.

The Seminoles led 21-6 at the half with Maryland's points coming on a pair of field goals by Obi Egekeze, who added a third in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Maryland rallied in the second half, pulling to within 21-13 midway through the third quarter when Darnius Heyward-Bey scored on a 14-yard pass from Chris Turner.

Turner completed 16 of 32 passes for 242 yards, but threw a costly interception and was sacked four times.

The Maryland defense gave the offense some opportunities. After FSU scored on its first three drives of the game, the Seminoles were forced to punt on their next eight possessions.

Obi Egekeze's field goal with 2:58 to play in the game moved the Terps to within a score, but they could not get the ball back.

Maryland 37
NC State 0

Carter-Finley Stadium
Raleigh, N.C. • Nov. 24, 2007

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) -- Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore rushed for two touchdowns apiece as Maryland routed North Carolina State 37-0 on Saturday.

The Terrapins (6-6, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference) posted their first shutout since 2004 and became bowl eligible for the fifth time in the last seven years. They scored on four straight possessions in the first half.

Chris Turner was 19-of-24 for 206 yards and had a 41-yard keeper that set up a touchdown for Maryland. The Terrapins ran for a season-high 249 yards while holding the Wolfpack to just 10 yards rushing.

The Wolfpack were shut out for the first time since a 14-0 loss to Baylor on Sept. 23, 1995, a span of 150 straight games that was longest active streak in the ACC.

The Terrapins outscored NC State 21-0 in the second quarter and using big plays to set up their three touchdowns.

Turner's keeper through the left side set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Lattimore. On the next drive, Turner's 38-yard pass to Isaiah Williams came three plays before Ball ran for a 15-yard touchdown to make it 17-0.

Da'Rel Scott then rushed 33 yards up the middle to open a possession that ended with Ball's second TD, a 2-yard burst around right end that gave the Terps a 24-0 lead with 4 minutes left before halftime. By then, some fans were headed for the exits.

Obi Egekeze kicked three field goals for Maryland.

It was a rare rout in a series that had been dominated by close games, with the previous seven meetings decided by an average of fewer than 6 points.

AT&T Park
San Francisco, Calif. • Dec. 28, 2007

SAN FRANCISCO -- Chris Turner threw for 205 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a 63-yarder to Darnus Heyward-Bey, but Oregon State used 275 yards on the ground to earn a 21-14 victory over Maryland in the 2007 Emerald Bowl played at AT&T Park.

Yvenson Bernard rushed for 177 yards and a touchdown in his final college game, leading the ground attack in a rain-soaked game.

James Rodgers rushed for 115 yards, caught an early TD pass and recovered Bernard's fumble for the second half's only score as the Beavers (9-4) won their fourth consecutive bowl game.

Turner hit Isaiah Williams and Darnius Heyward-Bey with first-quarter TD passes, but the Terrapins (6-7) stalled in the second half.

Oregon State finished with seven victories in its last eight games by surviving the unique challenges of the Emerald Bowl, where both teams stand on the same sideline at the San Francisco Giants' waterfront ballpark.

The game was just Maryland's second in California in the program's 115-year history, and the Terps' first meeting with a Pac-10 team since the 1982 Aloha Bowl. They didn't seem bothered by the cross country trip, and Oregon State's defense deserved the credit for Maryland's struggles in the Beavers' first game against the ACC since 1942.

Maryland opened the game with an impressive 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive capped by Williams' 9-yard TD catch. Turner went 6-of-7 on the drive, with Williams dropping his only incompletion.

Moevao was hurt on the Beavers' third play by blitzing linebacker Moise Fokou. Canfield took over and finished a TD drive, hitting Rodgers with a scoring pass before Moevao returned for the rest of the quarter.

But Turner hit Heyward-Bey in stride for a 63-yard TD pass down the sideline later in the first quarter, the second-longest scoring play in Maryland bowl history. Turner also threw two interceptions in the second quarter, and Bernard tied it at 14 with a 2-yard TD run 16 seconds before halftime.

The Atlantic Coast Conferenc

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 56th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 108 national championships, including 57 in women's competition and 51 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 143 times in men's competition and 91 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively.

In addition, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 22 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 2001) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991 Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

This past season 10 ACC players earned first team All-America recognition, while nine others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 533 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 73 first team academic All-Americans.

Led by Virginia defensive end Chris Long, the second overall selection by the St. Louis Rams and Boston College quarterback Matt Ryan, the third overall pick by the Atlanta Falcons, the ACC achieved a first for any conference in the NFL Draft, having two of the top four players selected in each of the past three seasons. Over the past three years, the ACC has had more players selected in the NFL Draft (115) than any other conference and, in that time, has had more players taken in the first round of the NFL Draft (25) than any other intercollegiate league. In 2006, the ACC set NFL draft records with 12 first-round selections and 51 players drafted overall.

Long, who was the first defensive player chosen in the draft, became the third straight ACC player to achieve that feat joining NC State's Mario Williams, the top overall selection in the 2006 NFL Draft, and Clemson defensive end Gaines Adams, who was the fourth overall pick in the 2007 Draft, as the first defensive players chosen. No other league has ever had the top defender chosen in the draft for three consecutive years. The ACC also had the most first-round selections in this past year with seven.

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,157 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 217 first round selections.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proven itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 145-129-5 (.529) in post season play.

In 2002, the ACC set an NCAA record when seven of its nine teams (78%) received bowl bids. and the ACC eight teams earn bowl invitations in each of the past three years, a feat matched by only one other conference.

The ACC features four of the Top 12 winningest bowl programs in the nation in Boston College, Georgia Tech, Florida State and Miami. The ACC also has the most successful bowl team (among teams with 15 or more bowl appearances) in the country in terms of winning percentage in Bowl games in Boston College. The Eagles, who currently have a nation's best eight-game winning streak in Bowl Games, are 13-6 with a .684 winning percentage. Georgia Tech (6th, 22-14, .611), Florida State (7th, 22-14-2, .605), and Miami (12th, 19-14, .576) all rank among the nation's elite in terms of bowl winning percentage.

In 2007, the ACC exceeded 4 1 million fans (4,141,540) for the second straight year and recorded its second-highest per game average in its history, and highest since 2004, drawing an average of 53,786 fans. In 2006, in eight more home games the Conference had recorded an all-time high in attendance, as ACC teams drew 4,485,625 fans, breaking the existing record of 3,835.260 set in 2005.

2007-08 in Review

The 2007-08 academic year saw league teams capturing three national team titles and 9 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 42 national team titles over the last 12 years. The ACC has won two or more NCAA titles in 26 of the past 28 years.

A total of 140 ACC teams placed in NCAA post-season competition in 2007-08. League teams compiled a 119-69 (.633) mark against non-conference opponents in NCAA championship competition. In addition, the ACC had 151 student-athletes earn first team All-America honors this past year. Overall, the league had 255 first, second or third team All-Americans. In addition, the ACC produced 10 national Players of the Year and four national Coach of the Year honorees.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2008-09 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, while volleyball determines its champion in regular season play.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, NC State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State. The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - In front of the first capacity crowd in Gator Bowl history, 16,666, Maryland's Lu Gambino was a one-man wrecking crew, rushing for 165 yards and scoring three touchdowns. Gambino's three scores propelled Maryland to a 20-7 lead, but Georgia reeled off 13 points in the fourth quarter to tie the game. The Bulldogs threatened to win the game in the closing seconds, but time ran out with Georgia on Maryland's four-yard line. Despite the tie, there was no question as to the game's most valuable player. Gambino won the Burkhalter Award, signifying the game's outstanding performer. Gambino was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Three times in the first half Missouri turned the ball over, and all three times Maryland scored a touchdown as the Terrapins defeated the Tigers, 20-7, to earn their first-ever postseason victory. The Terrapin running attack, led by Bob Shemonski and Ed Modzelewski, amassed 266 rushing yards, the second-most by a Maryland bowl team. Maryland defensive back John Idzik set up Maryland's first score with a 26-yard interception return to the Tiger 11-yard line. Shemonski scored on a sweep on the next play for the go-ahead touchdown. Shemonski scored again on a six-yard run late in the second quarter to put the Terps up 20-0.

NEW ORLEANS - In what may have been perhaps the biggest win in Maryland football history, the Terps upset No. 1-ranked and regular season national champion Tennessee, 28-13, in the 1952 Sugar Bowl. The Terps were led by running back Ed "Mighty Mo" Modzelewski (153 yards on 28 carries) and the brilliant play of running back/defensive back Ed Fullerton who scored two touchdowns and threw for another. The Terps put the game out of reach in the third quarter with a 46-yard interception for a touchdown by Fullerton, giving the Terps a 28-6 lead. Maryland finished the season with an overall record of 10-0-0 and a No. 3 national ranking.

MIAMI - This was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Eight Conference champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champion. The Terrapins took an undefeated record and the nation's No. 1 ranking into the game against an Oklahoma squad that used a powerful running attack to grind out a second quarter touchdown to propel the Sooners to a 7-0 win. Twice the Terps had first down opportunities with the ball inside the 10-yard line and failed to come away with any points. Despite the narrow loss, the Terrapins claimed the 1953 national championship.

MIAMI - The third-ranked Terps came into the Orange Bowl riding a 15-game winning streak, only to have it snapped by an Oklahoma team that extended its winning streak to 30 games with its 20-6 win. The Terps, who led 6-0 at halftime, were stunned when the Sooners went into their famous "fast break offense" and reeled off two third quarter touchdowns to earn the national championship. Ed Vereb, who scored the Terps lone touchdown, finished with 108 rushing yards. Maryland was hurt by five turnovers.

ATLANTA - Maryland came away from its first bowl game in 18 years a bitterly disappointed team. The Terrapins dominated Georgia in all phases, but the game was tied 10-10 at the half thanks to a couple of big plays by the Bulldogs. In the third quarter, a costly Terp fumble led to Georgia's go-ahead touchdown. Seven times the Terrapins were inside the Georgia 20-yard line, coming away with only nine points. The Terps' lone touchdown came via Walter White's 68-yard touchdown reception.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The Maryland defense, led by All-ACC defensive tackle Randy White, shut out Tennessee for nearly four quarters but lost the game when the Volunteers' quarterback, Randy Wallace, found Larry Seivers for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 to play. The Terps were punting from their own 13 when a bad snap from the center was recovered by the Volunteers on the Maryland seven-yard line. Maryland had a chance to win the game but an apparent 20-yard touchdown pass was ruled out of bounds.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The ACC champion Terrapins headed into the 1975 Gator Bowl as a seven-point underdog to the Florida Gators. However, this did not deter the Terps, who were coming off their best season (8-2-1) in 20 years. Maryland shut out the Gators, 13-0, in front of a large pro-Florida crowd in a steady downpour. The Maryland defense held the SEC's total offense leader scoreless and intercepted two Florida passes which led to the first 10 Maryland points. This was the first Terp win over an SEC team since 1955.

MIAMI - Maryland made its first bowl appearance since 1990, but fell to the fifth-ranked Florida Gators, 56-23. Florida's Rex Grossman came off the bench to throw for 248 yards and four touchdowns. The Gators jumped out to a 14-0 lead, but the Terps rallied to close to within 14-10. Florida, however, scored five unanswered touchdowns to pull away. Marc Riley rushed for two touchdowns for the Terps. The teams combined for an Orange Bowl record 79 points and 1,019 total yards.

ATLANTA - The Terps posted their first bowl win since 1985 with a dominating performance against the Tennessee Volunteers. QB Scott McBnen ran for a pair of touchdowns, Nick Novak booted three field goals, All-Amenca linebacker E J Henderson registered 12 solo tackles, and cornerback Curome Cox returned an interception for a touchdown to highlight Maryland's performance. The Terps never trailed in the game, taking their opening possession in for a touchdown on a one-yard run by McBnen and taking a 17-3 lead into intermission. It was the most lopsided bowl loss in UT history.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Former Mountaineer Scott McBrien threw for a career-high 381 yards to help Maryland to a 41-7 victory over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, a rematch of a regular-season game that was almost as lopsided. Playing against the team he left in 2001, McBrien threw for three scores and ran for another. His teammate, Steve Suter, returned a punt for a touchdown and made a highlight-reel catch to help the Terrapins reach 10 wins for the third-straight year under coach Ralph Friedgen.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Maryland won its school record third-straight bowl game in style, posting a dominating 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. Senior Sam Hollenbach passed for 223 yards and two touchdowns to earn game MVP honors, while junior Lance Ball had 98 rushing yards to lead a ground attack which piled up 208 yards, much of that coming in the first half when the Terps built a 21-0 lead and never looked back. The Terrapins were able to keep Purdue's offense, the NCAA's 10th best at 425 yards per game, in check. The Boilermakers were held to 21 rushing yards and 285 total yards. Junior Keon Lattimore added 86 rushing yards on 20 carries for the Terps, who held the ball for 39:48. It was the fourth bowl appearance for the Terps under the six-year reign of head coach Ralph Friedgen..

The Tatum system was clicking by the third season under the new coach. Maryland scored more points than in any previous season in its history – 266 to its opponents' 81. Jim Tatum and a collection of new players lifted Maryland to its first ranking in the AP poll. Newcomers such as Ed Modzelewski, Bob Ward, Bob Shemonski and junior All-America tackle Ray Krouse were instrumental in leading the Terrapins to eight decisive regular season victories, losing only to No. 13 Michigan State, 14-7. The Terps plowed through the opposition, and after beating No. 15 Boston U. by a 14-13 count, earned the No. 15 poll position themselves. Maryland ended the regular season with a 13-0 shutout at Miami. The Terps earned their first bowl victory with a 20-7 rout of Missouri in the Gator Bowl.

Maryland completed its only undefeated season in history and clobbered top-ranked and heavily favored Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl to lay its own claim to a national crown. Led by All-America tackles Bob Ward and Ray Krouse, brothers Ed and Dick Modzelewski, and QB Jack Scarbath, Maryland accepted a Sugar Bowl invitation against the recommendation of Southern Conference presidents who sought for all league institutions to boycott the bowls. The Terps were decided underdogs against No. 1 Tennessee, but Ed "Mighty Mo" Modzelewski's 153 rushing yards and a 28-13 victory prompted Tennessee coach Bob Neyland to state, "We were soundly beaten by a superior team."

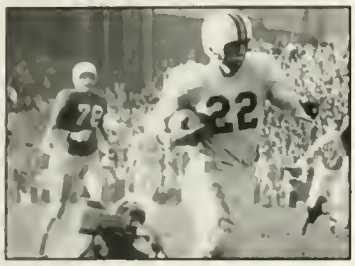
Ranked 13th

The amazing win streak continued in 1952, but it ended abruptly and Maryland was kept out of a bowl game despite its No. 13 final ranking. The Terps had amassed 19 straight wins and 22 straight games without a defeat before falling 21-14 at Mississippi on Nov. 15. The end came in the eighth game of a schedule that was revised heavily after Southern Conference teams refused to play Maryland because the Terps had chosen to play in the previous season's Sugar Bowl. Ole Miss scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to upend the Terps, and Maryland fell 27-7 to Alabama the following week to quell any hopes of a bowl bid. Bernie Faloney and Jack Scarbath both were All-Americans and Scarbath, a preseason favorite to win the Heisman Trophy, finished second in the balloting.



Chet Hanulak raced past the Boston U. defenders for a 15-yard TD on Nov. 1.

National Champions

College Park was home to the nation's No. 1 football team. The Maryland grid team swept past its 10 regular-season opponents with a perfect record and, in so doing, scored a total of 298 points while limiting its opposition to a record 31. Coach Jim Tatum was named the national coach of the year and many Old Line players were selected to various all-star teams. Operating out of the split T, Maryland ranked sixth in the nation in total offense with a 359.5-yard average. On defense, the team yielded only 193.2 yards per game and led the country in rushing (83.9) and scoring defense (3.1). During the '53 campaign, the Terps made up for two defeats handed them in 1952 by decisively beating Mississippi and Alabama. After the Terps downed Miami 30-0, Hurricanes coach Andy Gustafson summed up the nation's top team by saying, "Maryland has one of the greatest teams I've ever seen." Maryland began the season with a No. 9 preseason ranking by the Associated Press and took over the top spot in the polls on the final week of the regular season after the No. 2 Terps waxed the No. 11 Crimson Tide, 21-0. The top-ranked and undefeated Terps tied No. 18 Duke for the inaugural ACC title, but fell to 10-1 after losing the Orange Bowl to Oklahoma, 7-0.

Ranked 8th

Entering the season ranked No. 3 in the nation, the Terps began the 1954 campaign in convincing style, shutting out Kentucky 24-0 in their season opener. But the Terps stumbled in their next game, losing a close 12-7 decision to fourth-ranked UCLA. That dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls heading into its ACC matchup vs. Wake Forest. A 13-13 tie with the Demon Deacons sent the Terps tumbling out of the national rankings for the first time since 1950. Maryland rebounded to shut out North Carolina 33-0 before dropping a 9-7 road decision to Miami. The Terps went on to win their final five games by a combined score of 200-33, including a 74-13 Thanksgiving Day shellacking of Missouri. Maryland finished the season with a No. 8 national ranking.

Ranked 3rd

For the second time in the ACC's first three years, Maryland and Duke tied for the league title with identical 4-0 records. The Terps finished third in both polls while the Blue Devils earned a 16th listing in the UPI poll. The ACC posted a 22-18-1 mark against non-conference opponents. Maryland led the nation in defense against the rush, allowing 83.9 yards per game. Maryland had a 15-game win streak snapped with a 20-6 loss to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. Terp center Bob Pellegrini was a consensus All-American and national college lineman of the year.

Ranked 20th

In his second season at Maryland, head coach Jerry Claiborne lifted the Terps to a 5-1 mark in the ACC, and their first national ranking in 12 seasons. The Terps were 5-3 after a 42-22 loss to No. 6 Penn State, but three decisive wins over Virginia, Clemson and Tulane earned Maryland a bid to its first bowl game since the 1956 Orange Bowl. Maryland dominated Georgia in the Peach Bowl, outgaining the Bulldogs 461 to 284 on offense and driving inside the Georgia 20-yard line seven times. Four turnovers proved costly however, and after a 10-10 tie at intermission, all Maryland could muster were a pair of fourth-quarter field goals by Steve Mike-Mayer. Defensive tackle Randy White earned the first of his two All-America awards.

Maryland won its first conference championship in 18 years, sweeping past all six of its league opponents. It marked the 10th time in conference history that a team had gone unbeaten in league play. The Terps extended their win streak against ACC foes to 10. Maryland took a top-10 ranking into the Liberty Bowl before falling to Tennessee, 7-3, and ending the season 13th in the final AP poll. Maryland's Randy White was a consensus All-American and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies.

Maryland captured its second consecutive ACC title by posting a perfect 5-0 league mark and extending its win streak over conference opponents to 15, tying a league record. For the third straight year, the Terps took part in postseason competition, defeating Florida, 13-0, in the Gator Bowl. Maryland, which led the league in total offense with 375.2 yards per game, set an ACC single-game total offense mark with 802 yards in a 62-24 victory over Virginia, Nov. 22. Maryland's John Schultz was the nation's top kickoff returner with a 31.0 average.

The Terps fired out of the gates 8-0 including a 31-7 homecoming win over No. 20 NC State. Maryland steadily rose in the polls, and after a 27-0 shutout of Duke, was No. 5 heading into a showdown at No. 2 Penn State. The Nittany Lions won a 27-3 decision in front of 78,019 which dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls. But after a 17-7 win at Virginia, the Terps were paired with Clemson for an ACC first-place showdown. No. 11 Maryland and No. 12 Clemson entered the regular-season finale both tied at 5-0. Clemson emerged from the Byrd Stadium shootout a 28-24 victor. The loss sent Maryland into a Sun Bowl matchup with Texas, where it suffered its worst bowl loss ever, 42-0.

Junior quarterback Boomer Esiason led the Terrapins and first-year head coach Bobby Ross to a seven-game midseason win streak which earned Maryland its first national ranking in two seasons. After early season losses at No. 7 Penn State and No. 17 West Virginia, Maryland scored points at will while rolling through its ACC schedule. The Terrapins' 31-point average was second only to its undefeated season of 1951, and Ross was named the national coach of the year by the Washington Touchdown Club. A 31-24 win at No. 10 North Carolina put Maryland back in the rankings, and another shootout with Clemson would determine the ACC champion. No. 16 Maryland was invited to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where it surrendered a last-second touchdown to No. 9 Washington, losing 21-20.

ACC Champions

Maryland claimed its first ACC title since 1976, finishing undefeated to top runner-up North Carolina (4-2). Maryland opened the season by winning six of its first seven contests, including ACC matchups vs. Virginia, Wake Forest, Duke and North Carolina. The Terps were ranked seventh in the nation prior to suffering a 35-23 setback at the hands of No. 3-ranked Auburn on Nov. 5. Maryland closed the regular season and wrapped up the ACC crown topping NC State on the road, 29-6.

ACC Champions

Maryland pocketed the championship for the second year in a row and earned its fifth outright crown over the past 11 seasons. The title was not decided until the season's final weekend when the Terps knocked off Virginia, 45-34, for the league crown. Maryland, trailing Miami 31-0 at the half on Nov. 10, rallied for 42 second-half points to beat the No. 6 Hurricanes, 42-40, setting a record for the greatest comeback in NCAA Division I-A football history. The Terps, taking part in their third straight bowl game, defeated Tennessee in the Sun Bowl, 28-27.

ACC Champions

Under first-year head coach Ralph Friedgen, the consensus national coach of the year, the Terps claimed their first ACC title since 1985. Maryland became the first team other than Florida State to win the ACC title outright since the Seminoles joined the league in 1992. Maryland was selected to the Bowl Championship Series for the first time, meeting Florida in the FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium in Miami. E.J. Henderson was ACC Player of the Year and a consensus All-American.

Ralph Friedgen is interviewed by ESPN after Maryland captured the 2001 ACC crown with a win over Clemson on Nov. 10.

2002 Ranked 13TH

Maryland closed the season by winning 10 of its final 11 games to match the 1976 team for most wins in school history (11) and finished the season ranked 13th in both major polls. The Terps tied for second in the ACC and captured their first bowl victory since 1985 – a 30-3 defeat of Tennessee in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Linebacker E.J. Henderson, the first two-time consensus All-American in Maryland history, won the Bednarik (nation's outstanding defensive player) and Butkus (nation's outstanding linebacker) awards. A school-record eight players were named first team All-ACC.

QB Scott McBrien leaps into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown against NC State on Nov. 9.

2003 Ranked 17TH

After starting its season 0-2, Maryland finished the season by winning 10 of its last 11 games for the second year in a row. In doing so, the Terrapins became the first team in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 10 games after starting 0-2. The Terps finished 2003 10-3, winning the Toyota Gator Bowl by a resounding 41-7 margin over regional rival West Virginia, a team they had beaten once already earlier in the season. Scott McBrien was named the game's MVP after posting a career performance (21-33, 381 yards, 3 TDs, 0 int, 2 rush TD) against his former school. Ralph Friedgen's 31 wins in three years marked the seventh-most in NCAA history by a third-year coach and most-ever by an ACC coach. Ten players were named first or second team All-ACC, most by any team in the league.

Terps in the Hall of Fame

Jerry Claiborne

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1999)

Former Maryland football coach Jerry Claiborne was selected to join 12 legendary college football players and two other coaches among the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

Claiborne coached 28 seasons overall between stints at Virginia Tech (1961-70), Maryland (1972-81) and Kentucky (1982-89), and compiled a 179-122-8 record in the process.

At Maryland, Claiborne was named The Sporting News National Coach of the Year in 1974 after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference and finishing the season ranked No. 13 by the Associated Press. He was the District III Coach of the Year in 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In all, Claiborne was the coach of the year in three different conferences --- Southern (1963), ACC (1973, '75, '76) and Southeastern (1983) --- while leading his teams to 11 bowl games. Throughout his coaching career, he was a strong advocate of the right combination of academics and athletics. In his years as head coach, he had four players named Academic All-America and 87 players earn academic all-conference honors. On the field, he coached 13 All-Americans and 53 who earned all-conference status.

Dick Modzelewski

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1993)

Through three All-America years at Maryland and 14 All-Pro years in the National Football League, Dick Modzelewski was always "Little Mo." At 6-0, 235 pounds during his playing days at Maryland, he was one of the bigger collegiate linemen during the early 1950s. He was the second Mo at Maryland, following his older brother Ed, "Big Mo."

Dick Modzelewski played three years at defensive tackle for the Terps on the great teams which were 24-4-1. He became Maryland's first winner of a major national honor when he received the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman in 1952. Through his career at Maryland, the Terps fashioned a 22-game unbeaten streak.

At the end of his senior season, Modzelewski was named to every All-America team. He was a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins. He spent 14 seasons in the NFL, with the Redskins, the Pittsburgh Steelers, the New York Giants and Cleveland Browns. Modzelewski was an All-Pro and played on NFL championship teams with both the Giants (1956) and the Browns (1964).

Dick Modzelewski was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1993.

Stan Jones

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1991) National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (2000)

Stan Jones was the starting right tackle on the Terp defense that allowed only 31 points during 10 regular season games in 1953. With Jones leading the way, Maryland recorded six shutouts and allowed only one team, Georgia, to score more than six points.

It all added up to a 10-0 regular-season for the Terps, who captured the national championship despite an upset loss to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Jones earned consensus All-America honors in 1953 and was chosen "Outstanding College Lineman of 1953" by the College Football Coaching Board. A fifth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears, Jones went on to have a lengthy pro career. He spent a majority of his career with the Bears (1954-65) before finishing at Washington (1966).

"I was very prepared for the NFL when I left Maryland," Jones said. "From my coaches who taught me football to my professors who taught me anatomy, physiology and weight training, I received a great education. I couldn't have picked a better place to go."

Jones was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991 and selected for the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bob Pellegrini

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1996)

Bob Pellegrini was recruited to Maryland as a quarterback, but made his name as one of college football's best linemen. In his first season, Pellegrini was a 6-2, 215-pound sophomore guard for the 1953 national champion Terrapins. He played guard again in 1954 in an era when players went both ways, before switching to center for his senior year to fill a Terrapin void.

As a senior, Pellegrini led Maryland to its second 10-0 regular season and ACC championship in three years as the Terps defeated defending national champion UCLA. He was selected ACC Player of the Year, named consensus All-American and pictured as Herman Hickman's cover boy for Lineman of the Year in 1955.

Pellegrini led the Terps to a 27-4-1 record over his career, with rankings in the top 10 each season. He was the first pick in the National Football League draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. Pellegrini became one of the building blocks of an Eagle turnaround that took the team to the top of the football world. A losing team when he joined, the Eagles defeated Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers for the World Championship four years later with Bob Pellegrini at linebacker.

Pellegrini was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in December 1996.

Jack Scarbath

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1983)

Jack Scarbath is an integral part of Maryland football history. In his first start, the All-America quarterback scored the first touchdown in the new Byrd Stadium, a 21-yard run in the first game of the 1950 season.

Scarbath was the quarterback for head coach Jim Tatum's new split T offense for three seasons (1950-52). Scarbath led the Terps to a 24-4-1 record, including a perfect 10-0 season and a 28-13 upset of national champion Tennessee in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Scarbath called the signals during Maryland's 22-game unbeaten streak over the course of the 1950, '51 and '52 seasons.

During his stellar career, Scarbath rewrote the Terrapin record book, completing 125 of 260 passes for 2,287 yards, an average of 18.3 yards per completion. In 1951, AP and UPI voters named him honorable mention All-American. In 1952, he was honored with first team All-America citations from AP, UPI, International News Service, Colliers, and Look. He finished runner-up to Oklahoma's Billy Vessels in the 1952 Heisman Trophy balloting.

A first-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins, Scarbath went on to play with the Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1983.

Bob Ward

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1980)

Bob Ward weighed all of 165 pounds throughout his four-year playing career at Maryland and, even in the early 1950s, that was no size for a lineman. Especially a lineman who was a first team All-America middle guard on defense as a junior in 1950 and a first team offensive guard as a senior in 1951.

The forte of the Maryland teams of the early 1950s was consistency—a winning consistency. During Ward's four years, the team was a combined 32-7-1, winning two bowl games (1949 Gator over Missouri, 1951 Sugar over Tennessee to complete a perfect 10-0 season).

The awards and honors Ward earned as a Maryland player belie physical stature, but speak volumes about the man. He was the MVP of the 1949 Gator Bowl, Maryland's first bowl victory. He was the only player ever to earn All-America honors as both an offensive and defensive position player. He earned Southern Conference Player of the Year honors as a senior and was chosen Lineman of the Year by the Washington Touchdown Club and the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association in 1951.

Bob Ward was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1980.

Jim Tatum

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1984)

In a brief time as a college football head coach -- one season at North Carolina (1942, 5-2-2), one at Oklahoma (1946, 8-3, Gator Bowl victory over North Carolina State) and nine years at Maryland (1947-55, 73-15-4, 2-2-1 in bowl games) -- Jim Tatum had become a coaching legend.

Tatum's Maryland teams from 1950-55 were 51-8-2, with a perfect 10-0 record and Sugar Bowl victory in 1951. The squad posted 10-0 regular-season records in 1953 and 1955 before both teams were upset by Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. Tatum's 1953 team was declared national champion, and Tatum was named national Coach of the Year.

During his career at Maryland, Tatum led the Terps to 19 consecutive wins and an unbeaten streak of 22 games (21-0-1) during the 1950, '51 and '52 campaigns. In the 1952 Sugar Bowl, the Terrapins defeated top-ranked Tennessee 23-13.

Tatum left Maryland following the 1955 season to return to his alma mater, North Carolina. He coached the Tar Heels for three more seasons.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1984.

Randy White

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1994) National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1994)

Randy White changed the look of football's defensive lines. At Maryland, and later in an All-Pro National Football League career with the Dallas Cowboys, he was regarded as the quickest defensive lineman to play the game. He could be in an opponent's backfield before a quarterback could make a hand-off.

In 1974, White cleaned up the college football awards plate. He was honored with the Outland and Lombardi trophies as the top collegiate lineman, was ACC Player of the Year, was an unanimous first-team All-America choice, named the Delaware (his home state) Athlete of the Year and named the Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

A first round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys, White was an All-Pro performer throughout his career and shared Super Bowl MVP honors with Dallas teammate Harvey Martin when the Cowboys defeated Denver in Super Bowl XII.

White's jersey number, 94, has been retired at Maryland. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

LeFrak Scholarship

The Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation donated $1 million in 2003 to establish the Samuel J. LeFrak Scholars Fund at the University of Maryland.

The gift will fund annual LeFrak Scholars in the sports of men's basketball, football and men's track. Beginning in 2004-05, the three LeFrak scholarships have been awarded annually, concurrently and in perpetuity to three student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic ability, leadership and academic achievement.

Dan Gronkowski

Men's basketball player Nik Caner-Medley was the first-ever recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship at Maryland for the 2003-04 season and Sean Lowe earned the honor for men's track.

Tight end Dan Gronkowski is this year's recipient from the football team.

Prior to his death in April 2003, Samuel J. LeFrak, a 1940 graduate of the University of Maryland and one of its most distinguished alumni, was chairman of the Lefrak Organization, one of the world's largest private development companies. The firm's accomplishments include building Lefrak City, a community of apartments, stores and office buildings in Queens, N.Y.; and creating and developing Battery Park City in New York City, as well as Newport, a $10 billion mixed-use community in New Jersey on 600 acres overlooking the Hudson River.

While a student at Maryland, LeFrak was a varsity track letterman, president of the Latch Key Honor Society, and an officer of his class and of Tau Epsilon Phi.

"In keeping with Dr. LeFrak's dedicated support of the university for more than 60 years, the foundation is happy to sustain his wishes to help the school in its many endeavors to maintain high scholastic and athletic standards," said Deborah Dolan, director of the LeFrak Foundation.

Samuel J. LeFrak

Said athletics director Deborah A. Yow, "The LeFrak scholar-athletes will serve as role models to young people across the country. We are very grateful for the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. LeFrak."

FRANK KING REICH OF THE COMEBACK

When it comes to engineering record-setting comeback victories, no one has done it better than Maryland's Frank Reich, who was at the controls for the greatest comebacks in NCAA and NFL history.

Reich's first encounter with greatness occurred as a senior in 1984, when he came off the bench to lead the Terps to what then ranked as the biggest comeback in NCAA history. Down 31-0 at halftime to the defending national champion Miami Hurricanes, head coach Bobby Ross inserted Reich into the lineup in place of Stan Gelbaugh, and Reich proceeded to complete 12 of 16 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns in propelling the Terps to a 42-40 victory in the Orange Bowl.

Eight years later, on Jan. 3, 1993, Reich met destiny again as he led the Buffalo Bills to the greatest comeback in pro football annals. As in the Miami game in 1984, Reich came off the bench and performed his heroics against a top-notch opponent. This time the foe was the Houston Oilers, who appeared on their way to an easy playoff win by building a 35-3 lead early in the second half.

Reich, however, wasn't deterred. Filling in for the injured Jim Kelly, he demonstrated grace under fire by throwing for a career-high 289 yards and four touchdowns as the Bills went on to win 41-38 in overtime.

Year-By-Year Results

Game-by-game results for every Maryland football season since 1892. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College from 1892-1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953, Southern Conference from 1921-51 (SC standings not available from 1921-32) and South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1920.

Home games were played at Byrd Field or "Old" Byrd Stadium, across the street from the campus on Baltimore Ave., from 1923-1947 and again in 1949. Home games in 1948 were played at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. Home games since 1950 have been played at Byrd Stadium on campus.

Home, road and neutral records are in parentheses (H, A, N). Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1936. From 1961-1967, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

FOOTBALL

University of Maryland

DEEP ROOTS BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management, intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

President C.D. Mote Jr.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

Deborah A. Yow

Director of Athletics • 15th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 16 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annually and the $51 million debt which her administration inherited has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlete welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 million upgrade of athletic facilities.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal* Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow congratulates one of the members of the Maryland Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in four Final Fours in the past six years and won the NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-onented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

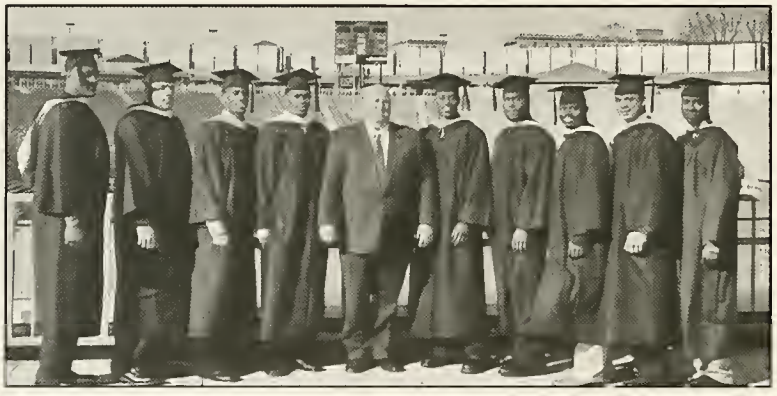
She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.



Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills™ PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

Strength & Conditioning

In today's highly competitive world of collegiate football, the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention to the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the country. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Maryland football players train with some of the best equipment available, including 20,000 pounds of customized York free weights, seven pieces of Keiser progressive air resistance machines, and a full line of Hammer strength equipment. The weight complex also features immense, self-contained power rack stations, Olympic lifting platforms with Eleiko bumper plates and 10 upper body pressing stations.

A meaningful goal of every Terrapin football player is achievement of the prestigious "Iron Terp" award, which is recognized twice a year to those team members who achieve extremely challenging strength goals, based on body weight. It is a great honor and matter of pride to earn an "Iron Terp" award, and the Terps must "pay the toll" to accomplish this.

Sports Medicine

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Darryl Conway

Assistant AD/Sports Medicine
Delaware '93
Fifth Year at Maryland

Darryl Conway was hired in June 2004 as Maryland's assistant athletics director for sports medicine after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. Conway oversees all medical and athletic training operations for the Terrapins' 27 varsity athletic programs.

Conway has been an athletic trainer at both the collegiate and professional levels. At UCF he was the head trainer for the football squad, while supervising the assistant trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants who provide training coverage of Central Florida's 17 varsity sports. At UCF, Conway was responsible for overseeing the compilation and input of daily medical records, the computerized injury surveillance program and the NCAA injury surveillance system. He served as a clinical instructor/field experience supervisor for athletic training students, assisted in the development of marketing and fundraising projects for the sports medicine department and served as the site coordinator for the NCAA drug testing program at UCF.

Prior to his position at Central Florida, Conway served as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Northern Iowa, working as the head trainer for the Panthers' football and men's basketball teams from 1999 to 2001. He was the head athletic trainer at Morgan State University in Baltimore for one season and was an assistant trainer and professor at Delaware, his alma mater, for two years. From 1993 to 1996, Conway was an assistant trainer with the NFL's New York Jets.

Conway earned a bachelor's degree in physical education studies, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware in 1993, before receiving a master's degree in physical education and a certificate in sports management from Adelphi University two years later.

Conway has taught numerous collegiate courses related to athletic training, has made numerous presentations and has co-authored several scholarly publications and book chapters. He has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) since 1989, and is also a member of the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Conway and his wife, Tracy, have a son, Michael.

Dr. Cothran is an alumnus of the University of Maryland and was a four-year letterwinner in track & field.

Athletic Development

Terrapin Club

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

Getting Involved

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

The M Club

An 85-Year Tradition of "Athletes Helping Athletes"℠

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call the M Club office at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org

Major Gifts Fundraising

In the Fall of 2006, the University of Maryland publicly launched Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland, a $1 billion fundraising effort that will transform the University from excellence to greatness. Intercollegiate Athletics, one of the most visible units of the University will seek to raise a total of $133 million to: (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student-athlete scholarships, coaching positions and teams.

A centerpiece of the ambitious Great Expectations fund raising campaign is an enhancement to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, for which construction began in 2007. Phase one of this project, which is scheduled for completion for the 2009 season, includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse to add 64 luxury suites of varying sizes and 440 mezzanine seats (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; and enhanced seating for disabled customers.

Phase two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort, and chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the lower rows, converting a number of those seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future expansion for football facilities includes renovation of Gossett Football Team House to enlarge the locker room and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

To obtain information on leasing a suite at Byrd Stadium, or any other component of the Great Expectations Campaign for Athletics, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu, or visit www.GreatExpectationsAthletics.com

Terps On The Radio

All of Maryland's games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in college sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing, a division of CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, manages the Terrapin Sports Radio Network. In its seventh year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, and Washington D.C.

Live 105.7 FM (WHFS) and ESPN Radio 1300 AM (WJFK-AM) in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with many more affiliates across the state picking up the games.

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps' official athletics website, www.umterps.com.

Johnny Holliday

Play-by-Play Announcer
30th Year

One of Washington's most versatile broadcasters, Johnny Holliday, is now in his 30th season as play-by-play voice of the University of Maryland. Holliday has broadcasted more than 1,100 Terrapin football and basketball games, including 11 bowl games, 10 Sweet 16 and two Final Four appearances, including Maryland's national championship victory over Indiana in 2002.

Holliday's sports reports are heard mornings coast-to-coast on the ABC Radio Network, as well as on XM and Sirius. Dick Vitale has named Holliday one of his "top 15 play-by-play voices in the nation." Holliday's list of credits includes ABC's coverage of the Winter and Summer Olympic Games, championship boxing, the USFL with hall of fame member Paul Hornung, The Masters and television coverage of the Liberty and Aloha Bowls. Holliday also co-hosts the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams shows on both radio and television. Holliday was public address announcer for the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco Warriors and the Washington Bullets.

In Washington, Holliday hosted the Washington Senators pregame show on the radio with Ted Williams and in San Francisco the Giants pregame show on television. He also handled play-by-play duties for George Washington University basketball, Navy football radio and television coverage of the Washington Bullets and Wizards and hosted a Redskins television show with Dexter Manley, Mark Moseley, Bobby Beathard and Charley Casserly. Holliday also handled television play-by-play duties of ACC Women's basketball, Baltimore Orioles and national gymnastics events.

Holliday has been honored by Washingtonian Magazine as "Washingtonian of the Year". His basketball and softball teams have raised in excess of $1.5 million for charity. Holliday has been honored by the University of Maryland with the school's Distinguished Citizen award, and by the Touchdown Club of Washington with the outstanding achievement in Sports Broadcasting "Timmie" award.

Holliday was inducted into the Radio Television Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2003. In 2005, he was given the Lindsay Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster award by the All-American Football Foundation, and in 2006 was honored by the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame with the Chris Schenkel Award. In 2006 the Catholic Youth Organization named Holliday its National Person of the Year, and the Diabetes Association recognized him as its Father of the Year. Holliday last year was inducted into the Baltimore Sports Media Hall of Fame.

Holliday also received the "Smile" award from Operation Smile for outstanding service to the community. Holliday still finds the time to participate in a variety of community activities, among them, Catholic Charities, Special Olympics and The Youth Leadership Foundation. Holliday is on the Board of Directors of Victory Youth Centers and Children's Charities Foundation. Holliday has served as television host for Muscular Dystrophy, Leukemia, Cerebral Palsy, Children's Hospital, March of Dimes and Easter Seals telethons.

His network credits include announcing duties for NBC's "Hullaballoo" and "The Roger Miller Show," ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley" and "This Week with Sam and Cokie", along with ABC radio's Sam Donaldson Show. Holliday was also seen on the CBS television series "Good Morning World." His face and voice are one of the most familiar in all of Washington radio and television with hundreds of commercials and narrations to his credits.

Holliday was born and raised in Miami, Fla. Before coming to Washington in 1969 he was a top-rated radio personality in Cleveland, New York City and San Francisco. Before giving up music, Holliday was named America's number one disc jockey. A visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland will enable you to listen to Holliday during DJ days in Cleveland. Holliday also co-hosts "Catholic Radio Weekly" with Carol Lehan, syndicated radio stations throughout the country.

Holliday and his wife Mary Clare are the proud parents of three daughters, Kellie, Tracie and Mona, three son-in-laws, Steve, Chris and Bob, seven grandsons, J.T., Devin, Anthony, Christopher, Nicholas, Jack and Liam, and one granddaughter Maggie.

Jonathan Claiborne

Color Commentary
Ninth Year

Former Terrapin standout Jonathan Claiborne is in his ninth season as the color analyst on Maryland's radio broadcast team. Claiborne, who lettered from 1975-77 as a safety, is the son of former Terp head coach Jerry Claiborne, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1999 after a 28-year career as head coach at Virginia Tech, Maryland and Kentucky.

Originally a walk-on at Maryland in the mid-'70s, Jonathan Claiborne eventually worked his way into a first-string safety position and earned a scholarship. He was a two-year starter and played on three bowl teams. The Terps were 28-7-1 during his varsity playing career.

Claiborne, who is now a practicing attorney in the Baltimore area for the firm Whiteford, Taylor and Preston, excelled on and off the field while playing with the Terrapins. He was a two-time All-ACC Academic selection and a 1977 CoSIDA Academic All-American. He also was the recipient of a NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship in addition to earning a fellowship from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. Claiborne earned a double degree at Maryland (history and accounting) with a cumulative GPA of 3.57. He was a two-time winner of the George C. Cook Award (given to the Terp varsity football player with the highest grade point average) and also won the Talbot T. Speer Award for leadership, scholarship and athletic ability.

Claiborne previously spent four years as a color analyst on Towson Tiger football radio broadcasts.

Tim Strachan

Sideline Reporter
13th Year

Former DeMatha standout Tim Strachan is in his 13th season as the sideline reporter on Maryland's football broadcasts. Strachan, a 1999 graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in communication, was a student assistant coach with the Terps from 1996-99. He graduated from Georgetown University Law Center in the spring of 2004.

Strachan, who was paralyzed in a swimming accident before his senior year of high school, launched T13 Charities — A Foundation for Spinal Cord Injuries as a way to benefit others with spinal cord injuries. He is a professional motivational speaker and also is a freelance reporter for the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams coaches' television shows. He was named the 1999 Washingtonian of the Year by Washingtonian magazine.

Media Credentials Policy

The University of Maryland issues media credentials under the priorities listed below. These priorities are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact Associate Athletics Director-Media Relations Doug Dull at 301-314-7064 or at ddull@umd.edu.

Priorities

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
5. Official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
6. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
7. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline 7, below.

Guidelines

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this policy, all passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation upon University request.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets." The University of Maryland will not issue credentials to organizations whose primary function is to deliver news related to the recruitment of student-athletes.
6. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18. Admission to media facilities are for working media only.
7. Credentials may be issued. a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and employs for that University of Maryland-dedicated website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site, and that registers a minimum of 20,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months.

   An online entity that meets the requirements of either 7.a) or 7.b) and which sponsors message boards or chat rooms may be credentialed only if the entity enforces its policies regarding abusive or discriminatory material.
8. University personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding University athletic events; violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request the Media Relations Office provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.
9. The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office reserves the right to change this policy at any time. The latest version will be available online at www.umterps.com.

Credential Requests

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at http://www.sportssystems.com/clients/maryland/ no later than five days prior to an event. Credential requests can also be made on official letterhead from a sports editor or sports director and sent to Doug Dull, Athletics Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20741. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094 or e-mailed to ddull@umd.edu. No credential requests will be accepted by phone.

Credentials will be mailed whenever possible, picked up at the Athletics Media Relations Office or picked up on game day at Media Will Call at the South Gate of Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium. Credentials will be sent via overnight entities (FedEx, UPS, U.S. Postal Service) only at the expense of the requesting outlet.

All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of the University of Maryland's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Maryland may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Maryland may result in revocation of press credentials. Maryland reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live continual play-by-play coverage, in-game statistics, digital photographs, or audio or video of an event).

Parking

Game-day press parking is located in the Union Lane Garage which is adjacent to Cole Field House and along Field House Drive. The parking garage is best accessed from the Stadium Drive entrance to campus. Access is via pass only and is available on a limited basis.

Photography Regulations

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers should obtain an armband from the media-relations staff in Tyser Tower to gain admittance to the field. Under NCAA and ACC rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

Player Interviews

All player interviews must be arranged through Shawn Nestor in the Maryland media relations office. Players and coaches have been instructed not to participate in interviews unless they have been arranged through the media relations office. Interviews will be conducted on Tuesday and Wednesday, as well as postgame. No interviews will be conducted on Sunday, Monday, Thursday or Fnday. Player phone numbers will not be released, and members of the media are asked not to attempt to contact student-athletes or relatives on the telephone or via e-mail. Players are not available for live call-in radio shows.

Postgame Interviews

Head coach Ralph Fnedgen and selected players will be brought to the Young Dining Hall on the main floor of the Gossett Football Team House for postgame interviews. The dining hall is located one level above the playing field. Interviews with the visiting team coach and players will be coordinated by the opponent SID staff and specifics announced in the press box on gameday. The opposing team interview area is located in a tent outside the visiting locker room (opposite side of the field from the Tyser Tower Press Box). The Terps follow similar guidelines for coach and player interviews for road games.

Maryland's locker room is closed following games.

Practice Coverage

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday practices are open to local media outlets for the first five periods. Monday practices and Fnday walk-throughs (home and away) are closed to the media. Cameras and photographers from season credentialed outlets are allowed to shoot the first five periods of practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, unless otherwise noted. Team drills are not accessible to cameras or photographers. All team meetings are not accessible to the media.

Ralph Friedgen Interviews

Coach Friedgen will be available to the media at his weekly Tuesday media luncheons, which begin at 1 p.m. in the Young Dining Hall of the Gossett Team House. He will also address the media after Wednesday and Thursday practice sessions. In addition, Friedgen is available on the weekly ACC Teleconference held each Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. ET.

Press Box

The press box is located on the south side of Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium in Tyser Tower. Access to Level 3 (print) and Level 4 (radio, television booths) is via elevators.

Statistical Services

Complete team and individual statistics by quarter, play-by-play, and postgame notes and quotes will be provided to the working media. Scores of other college games are provided before, during and after the game. In-game stat monitors are stationed throughout the press box. An internal PA system will provide updated statistics and notes throughout the game.

Teleconference

The 12 ACC football coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference each Wednesday from 10:30 a.m., to 12:30 p.m., beginning August 27, and concluding Tuesday, November 25. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site TheACC.com each Wednesday afternoon.

Telephones

A limited number of telephones are available in the Tyser Tower Press Box (calling card required). Any additional telephone requests should be directed to Nick Morrow, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-7027. List Doug Dull or Shawn Nestor as the contact person for all installations.

Video Services

Highlights of Maryland home games not televised will be distributed via satellite. In addition, the Atlantic Coast Conference uplinks game highlights and selected interviews from each ACC school on Wednesday afternoons during the season.

Web Site

All of Maryland's news releases and statistics, as well as quotes from head coach Ralph Friedgen's weekly press conference, can be accessed via the World Wide Web at umterps.com.
